It will be found very instructive to compare the preceding tables with those on page 14, showing the carrying trade of the New York canals. The effect of lowering the tolls on the agricultural productions carried has been greatly overrated. The increased movement of wheat over the Erie canal in the years 1871, 1872, and 1873 was more the effect of the increased wants of Great Britain, and the consequent advance of 30 or 40 cents a bushel over the average price of the years 1863-6 and 1868-70, than of the reduction of three cents a bushel in the canal tolls from Buffalo to Troy. The high prices of 1867 and 1868 did not bring a great increase of business for the canal, for the excellent reason that the Western farmers did not have the wheat to send. If the wheat had been in existence, $2 30 to $2 80 for a bushel of No. 2 Milwaukee at New York would have brought it forward.

The exports of wheat and wheat flour from the United Kingdom are of insignificant amount, compared with the imports. The following table shows the quantities of wheat and wheat flour exported for the last fourteen years:

VI.

The quantity of wheat grown in the United Kingdom is estimated at 14 million quarters, or 112 million bushels, in average years. The average quantity imported may be reckoned at 8 million quarters, or 64 million bushels in the shape of grain, and 1½ million quarters, or 12 million bushels, in the shape of flour. It is, therefore, apparent that the wheat included in the following tables is in no case one-half of the annual growth of the United Kingdom. For the period from 1854 to 1864, when the quantities sold were returned from 290 towns, we may reckon them at one-third the entire produce of the United Kingdom, and from 1864 to 1874, when they are returned from 150 towns, at from one-fourth to one-fifth the total harvest.

VII.

The following chart, or diagram, is intended to show at one view, most of the separate facts presented in the three preceding pages.

The figures at the extreme right and left mark a scale of prices per bushel.

The columns adjoining them on the inside denote the number of millions of quarters, the quarter consisting of eight bushels.

The line at the top marks the harvest year, beginning with September.

The characters "oooo," by their position with reference to the scale of quarters at the sides, denote in millions of quarters the estimated supply of British wheat. The estimate is made by multiplying the number of millions of quarters sold, as shown in Tables V and VI, by three down to 1864, and in the years since then by four.

The characters "xxx" denote in the same manner the number of millions of quarters of foreign wheat imported into Great Britain.

The heavy black line marks the average price per bushel for the year.

The line at the bottom gives a rough approximation of the total supply, being the total of the estimated English product and the imports. It is not, of course, strictly accurate, but it illustrates the principle that a comparatively small excess or deficiency of supply produces a much greater fluctuation in price.

The dotted lines running straight across the diagram are merely for convenience in applying the scales at the side.

The following will further illustrate the use of the diagram. Take the year 1864-5, which is the seventh of the blank columns. The line "oooo" is opposite to 14 in the scale of quarters, showing that the supply of British wheat was, in round numbers, 14 million quarters. The line "xxx" is opposite to 4½ in the same scale, showing that the imports of wheat were 4½ million quarters. The heavy black line is opposite $1.20 in the scale of prices, showing that the average price was $1.20 per bushel in gold. Comparing the above with the supplies and price of 1867-8, three spaces to the right, we notice a falling off to 10½ million quarters in the British supply, an increase to 8½ millions in the imports, and an advance in the price to $2.05 per bushel, all which is denoted by the changed position of the characters.

We may remark, in explanation of the discrepancy in the total supply, which appears to have been one half million quarters greater in 1867-8, than it was in 1864-5, that the effect of a high price is to bring to the market a larger proportion of the total yield, wheat being held back in the cheap years. It is undoubtedly the fact that the 2,616,894 quarters of British wheat sold in the dear year, 1867-8, constituted a larger proportion of the total harvested than did the 3,440,510 quarters which were sold in the same markets in the cheap year, 1864-5. Unfortunately, there are no means of measuring the operation of this principle.

When the plan upon which the diagram is constructed is once understood, it will be found to illustrate the principles which we have endeavored to explain much more clearly than solid columns of statistics.

As a general conclusion, it may be considered as established that the effect of unrestricted importation, improved means of communication by land and sea, and the use of the telegraph, has been to give greater steadiness to the prices of wheat in England and throughout the world. They neither rise so high, nor sink so low as was formerly the case. It is clear, however, that no effort of human ingenuity can prevent the price of food from rising when there is a scarcity, and falling when there is an abundance, and that, too, on a considerable scale. The peculiar situation of Great Britain, as the greatest commercial nation in the world and, at the same time, in no slight degree, dependent on other nations for bread, causes the price of wheat in all civilized nations to turn on the relation of England's to the supply of other countries, and this is particularly the case with regard to prices in the United States.

TREE PLANTING ON WESTERN PRAIRIES.

Chap. 55.—An act to amend the act entitled "An act to encourage the growth of timber on western prairies."—Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That the act entitled "An act to encourage the growth of timber on western prairies," approved March third, eighteen hundred and seventy-three, be, and the same is hereby, amended so as to read as follows: That any person who is the head of a family or who has arrived at the age of twenty-one years, and is a citizen of the United States, or who shall have filed his declaration of intention to become such, as required by the naturalization laws of the United States, who shall plant, protect, and keep in a healthy, growing condition for eight years, forty acres of timber, the trees thereon not being more than twelve feet apart each way, on any quarter-section of any of the public lands of the United States, or twenty acres on any legal subdivision of eighty acres, or ten acres on any legal subdivision of forty acres, or one-fourth part of any fractional subdivision of land less than forty acres, shall be entitled to a patent for the whole of said quarter-section, or of such legal subdivision of eighty or forty acres, or fractional subdivision of less than forty acres, as the case may be, at the expiration of said eight years, on making proof of such fact by not less than two credible witnesses: Provided, That not more than one-quarter of any section shall be thus granted, and that no person shall make more than one entry under the provisions of this act, unless fractional subdivisions of less than forty acres are entered which, in the aggregate, shall not exceed one quarter-section.

SEC. 2. That the person applying for the benefit of this act shall, upon application to the register of the land-district in which he or she is about to make such entry, make affidavit before the register, or the receiver, or some officer authorized to administer oaths in the district where the land is situated, who is required by law to use an official seal, that said entry is made for the cultivation of timber, and upon filing said affidavit with said register and said receiver, and on payment of ten dollars, he or she shall thereupon be permitted to enter the quantity of land specified; and the party making an entry of a quarter-section under the provisions of this act shall be required to break ten acres of the land covered thereby the first year, ten acres the second year, and twenty acres the third year after date of entry, and to plant ten acres of timber the second year, ten acres the third year, and twenty acres the fourth year after date of entry. A party making an entry of eighty acres shall break and plant at the times hereinbefore prescribed, one-half of the quantity required of a party who enters a quarter-section, and a party entering forty acres shall break and plant, at the times hereinbefore prescribed, one-quarter of the quantity required of a party who enters a quarter-section, or a proportionate quantity for any smaller fractional subdivision: Provided, however, That no final certificate shall be given or patent issued for the land so entered until the expiration of eight years from the date of such entry; and, if at the expiration of such time, or at any time within five years thereafter, the person making such entry, or if he or she be dead, his or her heirs or legal representatives shall prove, by two credible witnesses, that he, or she, or they have planted, and, for not less than eight years, have cultivated and protected such quantity and character of timber as aforesaid, they shall receive a patent for such quarter-section or legal subdivision of eighty or forty acres of land, or for any fractional quantity of less than forty acres, as herein provided. And in case of the death of a person who has complied with the provisions of this act for the period of three years, his heirs or legal representatives shall have the option to comply with the provisions of this act, and receive, at the expiration of eight years, a patent for one hundred and sixty acres, or receive without delay a patent for forty acres, relinquishing all claim to the remainder.

SEC. 3. That if at any time after the filing of said affidavit, and prior to the issuing of the patent for said land, the claimant shall abandon the land, or fail to do the breaking and planting required by this act, or any part thereof, or shall fail to cultivate, protect, and keep in good condition such timber, then, and in that event, such land shall be subject to entry under the homestead laws, or by some other person under the provisions of this act: Provided, That the party making claim to said land, either as a homestead settler or under this act, shall give, at the time of filing his application, such notice to the original claimant as shall be prescribed by the rules established by the Commissioner of the General Land Office, and the rights of the parties shall be determined as in other contested cases.

SEC. 4. That each and every person who, under the provisions of the act entitled "An act to secure homesteads to actual settlers on the public domain," approved May twentieth, eighteen hundred and sixty-two, or any amendment thereto, having a homestead on said public domain, who, at any time after the end of the third year of his or her residence thereon, shall, in addition to the settlement and improvements now required by law, have had under cultivation, for two years, one acre of timber, the trees thereon not being more than twelve feet apart each way, and in a good thrifty condition, for each and every sixteen acres of said homestead, shall, upon due proof of such fact by two credible witnesses, receive his or her patent for said homestead.

SEC. 5. That no land acquired under the provisions of this act shall in any event become liable to the satisfaction of any debt or debts contracted prior to the issuing of certificate therefor.

SEC. 6. That the Commissioner of the General Land Office is hereby required to prepare and issue such rules and regulations, consistent with this act, as shall be necessary and proper to carry its provisions into effect; and that the registers and the receivers of the several land offices shall each be entitled to receive two dollars at the time of entry, and the same sum when the claim is finally established and the final certificate issued.

SEC. 7. That the fifth section of the act entitled "An act in addition to an act to punish crimes against the United States, and for other purposes," approved March third, eighteen hundred and fifty-seven, shall extend to all oaths, affirmations, and affidavits required or authorized by this act.

SEC. 8. That parties who have already made entries under the act approved March third, eighteen hundred and seventy-three, of which this is amendatory, shall be permitted to complete the same upon full compliance with the provisions of this act.

Approved, March 13, 1874.

(The act hereby amended is given in full in the Tribune Almanac for 1874.)

ENCOURAGEMENT OF PUBLIC MARINE SCHOOLS.

Chap. 339.—An act to encourage the establishment of public marine schools.—Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Navy, to promote nautical education, is hereby authorized and empowered to furnish, upon the application in writing of the Governor of the State, a suitable vessel of the Navy, with all her apparel, charts, books, and instruments of navigation, provided the same can be spared without detriment to the naval service, to be used for the benefit of any nautical school, or school or college having a nautical branch, established at each or any of the ports of New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Norfolk, and San Francisco, upon the condition that there shall be maintained, at such port, a school or branch of a school for the instruction of youths in navigation, seamanship, marine enginery and all matters pertaining to the proper construction, equipment and sailing of vessels or any particular branch thereof: And the President of the United States is hereby authorized, when in his opinion the same can be done without detriment to the public service, to detail proper officers of the Navy as superintendents of, or instructors in, such schools: Provided, That if any such school shall be discontinued, or the good of the naval service shall require, such vessel shall be immediately restored to the Secretary of the Navy, and the officers so detailed recalled: And provided further, That no person shall be sentenced to, or received at, such schools as a punishment or commutation of punishment for crime.

Approved, June 20, 1874.

THE CURRENCY.

The following is the Dawes Compromise Bank Note Redemption, Inflation, Redistribution bill, in full:

Chap. 343.—An act fixing the amount of United States notes, providing for a redistribution of the national bank currency, and for other purposes.—Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the act entitled "An act to provide a national currency secured by a pledge of the United States bonds, and to provide for the circulation and redemption thereof," approved June third, eighteen hundred and sixty-four, shall hereafter be known as "the national bank act."

Release of Reserves on Circulation. Reserves on Deposits Retained.

SEC. 2. That section thirty-one of the "the national bank act" be so amended that the several associations therein provided for shall not hereafter be required to keep on hand any amount of money whatever, by reason of the amount of their respective circulations; but the moneys required by said section to be kept at all times on hand shall be determined by the amount of deposits in all respects, as provided for in the said section.

Provisions for Redemption of Bank Notes.

SEC. 3. That every association organized, or to be organized, under the provisions of the said act, and of the several acts amendatory thereof, shall at all times keep and have on deposit in the treasury of the United States, in lawful money of the United States, a sum equal to five per centum of its circulation, to be held and used for the redemption of of such circulation; which sum shall be counted as a part of its lawful reserve, as provided in section two of this act; and when the circulating notes of any such associations, assorted or unassorted, shall be presented for redemption, in sums of one thousand dollars, or any multiple thereof, to the Treasurer of the United States, the same shall be redeemed in United States notes. All notes so redeemed shall be charged by the Treasurer of the United States to the respective associations issuing the same, and he shall notify them severally, on the first day of each month, or oftener, at his discretion, of the amount of such redemptions; and whenever such redemptions for any association shall amount to the sum of five hundred dollars, such association so notified shall forthwith deposit with the Treasurer of the United States a sum in United States notes equal to the amount of its circulating notes so redeemed. And all notes of national banks worn, defaced, mutilated, or otherwise unfit for circulation shall, when received by any assistant treasurer, or at any designated depository of the United States, be forwarded to the Treasurer of the United States for redemption as provided herein. And when such redemptions have been so reimbursed, the circulating notes so redeemed shall be forwarded to the respective associations by which they were issued; but if any of such notes are worn, mutilated, defaced, or rendered otherwise unfit for use, they shall be forwarded to the Comptroller of the Currency and destroyed and replaced as now provided by law: Provided, That each of said associations shall reimburse to the Treasury the charges for transportation, and the costs for assorting such notes; and the associations hereafter organized shall also severally reimburse to the Treasury the cost of engraving such plates as shall be ordered by each association respectively; and the amount assessed upon each association shall be in proportion to the circulation redeemed, and be charged to the fund on deposit with the Treasurer: And provided further, That so much of section thirty-two of said national bank act requiring or permitting the redemption of its circulating notes elsewhere than at its own counter, except as provided for in this section, is hereby repealed.

Withdrawal of Circulation.

SEC. 4. That any association organized under this act, or any of the acts of which this is an amendment, desiring to withdraw its circulating notes, in whole or in part, may, upon the deposit of lawful money with the Treasurer of the United States in sums of not less than nine thousand dollars, take up the bonds which said association has on deposit with the Treasurer for the security of such circulating notes; which bonds shall be assigned to the bank in the manner specified in the nineteenth section of the national bank act; and the outstanding notes of said association, to an amount equal to the legal tender notes deposited, shall be redeemed at the Treasury of the United States, and destroyed as now provided by law: Provided, That the amount of the bonds on deposit for circulation shall not be reduced below fifty thousand dollars.

Charter Numbers of Associations to be Printed on National Bank Notes.

SEC. 5. That the Comptroller of the Currency shall, under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, cause the charter numbers of the association to be printed upon all national bank notes which may be hereafter issued by him.

Increase of the Lawful Legal Tender Circulation.

SEC. 6. That the amount of United States notes outstanding and to be used as a part of the circulating medium, shall not exceed the sum of three hundred and eighty-two million dollars, which said sum shall appear in each monthly statement of the public debt, and no part thereof shall be held or used as a reserve.

Withdrawal of Currency to Secure Equitable Distribution.

SEC. 7. That so much of the act entitled "An act to provide for the redemption of of the three per centum temporary loan certificates, and for an increase of national bank notes," as provides that no circulation shall be withdrawn under the provisions of section six of said act, until after the fifty-four millions granted in section one of said act shall have been taken up, is hereby repealed; and it shall be the duty of the Comptroller of the Currency, under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury, to proceed forthwith and he is hereby authorized and required, from time to time, as applications shall be duly made therefor, and until the full amount of fifty-five million dollars shall be withdrawn, to make requisitions upon each of the national banks described in said section, and in the manner therein provided, organized in States having an excess of circulation, to withdraw and return so much of their circulation as by said act may be apportioned to be withdrawn from them, or, in lieu thereof, to deposit in the Treasury of the United States lawful money sufficient to redeem such circulation, and upon the return of the circulation required, or the deposit of lawful money, as herein provided, a proportionate amount of the bonds held to secure the circulation of such association as shall make such return or deposit shall be surrendered to it.

Delinquent Banks, How Dealt With.

SEC. 8. That upon the failure of the national banks upon which requisition for circulation shall be made, or of any of them, to return the amount required, or to deposit in the Treasury lawful money to redeem the circulation required within thirty days, the Comptroller of the Currency shall at once sell, as provided in section forty-nine of the national currency act approved June third, eighteen hundred and sixty-four, bonds held to secure the redemption of the circulation of the association or associations which shall so fail, to an amount sufficient to redeem the circulation required of such association or associations, and with the proceeds, which shall be deposited in the Treasury of the United States so much of the circulation of such association or associations shall be redeemed as will equal the amount required and not returned, and if there be any excess of proceeds over the amount required for such redemption, it shall be returned to the association or associations whose bonds shall have been sold. And it shall be the duty of the Treasurer, assistant treasurers, designated depositaries, and national bank depositaries o the United States, who shall be kept informed by the Comptroller of the Currency of such associations as shall fail to return circulation as required, to assort and return to the Treasury for redemption the notes of such associations as shall come into their hands until the amount required shall be redeemed, and in like manner to assort and return to the Treasury, for redemption, the notes of such national banks as have failed, or gone into voluntary liquidation for the purpose of winding up their affairs, and of such as shall hereafter so fail or go into liquidation.

Redistribution of Bank Note Circulation.

SEC. 9. That from and after the passage of this act it shall be lawful for the Comptroller of the Currency, and he is hereby required, to issue circulating notes without delay, as applications therefor are made, not to exceed the sum of fifty-five million dollars, to associations organized, or to be organized, in those States and Territories having less than their proportion of circulation, under an apportionment made on the basis of population and of wealth, as shown by the returns of the census of eighteen hundred and seventy; and every association hereafter organized shall be subject to, and be governed by, the rules, restrictions, and limitations, and possess the rights, privileges, and franchises, now or hereafter to be prescribed by law as to national banking associations, with the same power to amend, alter, and repeal provided by "the national bank act:" Provided, That the whole amount of circulation withdrawn and redeemed from banks transacting business shall not exceed fifty-five million dollars, and that such circulation shall be withdrawn and redeemed as it shall be necessary to supply the circulation previously issued to the banks in those States having less than their apportionment: And provided further, That not more than thirty million dollars shall be withdrawn and redeemed as herein contemplated during the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and seventy-five.

Approved, June 20, 1874.

AMENDMENTS TO THE BANKRUPT ACT.

Chap. 390.—An act to amend and supplement an act entitled "An act to establish a uniform system of bankruptcy throughout the United States," approved March 2, 1867, and for other purposes.—The court may direct the receiver or assignee to take possession of the property and carry on the business of the debtor, but not for a period exceeding nine months. Such order shall not be made, however, until the court shall be satisfied that it is approved by a majority in value of the creditors. Unless otherwise ordered by the court, the assignee shall sell the property of the bankrupt at public auction. The court may, in its discretion, order any real estate of the bankrupt to be sold for one-fourth cash at the time of sale, and the residue within eighteen months, in such instalments as the court may direct, bearing interest at seven per cent., and secured by mortgage. Penalties for neglect, fraud, &c., on part of assignee are prescribed.

Composition with Creditors.

In all cases of bankruptcy the creditors may resolve that a composition proposed by the debtor shall be accepted, provided that the proposition is agreed to by a majority in number and three-fourths in the amount of their claims. Creditors whose debts amount to less than $50 shall not be reckoned in determining the majority in number. Creditors whose debts are fully secured shall not be entitled to vote upon the proposition.

Reduction of Fees.

The fees, commissions, charges, and allowances, excepting actual and necessary disbursements, are reduced to one-half those formerly provided.

(A synopsis of the act, to which the above is an amendment, is given in the Tribune Almanac for 868.)

MOIETIES REPEALED.

Chap. 193.—To amend the Customs-Revenue laws and repeal Moieties.—Abolishes moieties to officers of the revenue and informers, provides for the payment of all fines into the Treasury, and appropriates $100,000 to the Secretary of the Treasury, out of which to make suitable compensation in certain cases. Not to exceed $5,000 shall be paid to informers who are not officers of the United States.

Production of Books, Papers, &c.

SEC. 5. That all suits and proceedings other than criminal arising under any of the revenue laws of the United States, the attorney representing the Government, whenever, in his belief, any business-book, invoice, or paper belonging to or under the control of the defendant or claimant, will tend to prove any allegation made by the United States, may make a written motion, particularly describing such book, invoice, or paper, and setting forth the allegation which he expects to prove; and thereupon the court in which suit or proceeding is pending may, at its discretion, issue a notice to the defendant or claimant to produce such book, invoice, or paper in court, at a day and hour to be specified in said notice, which, together with a copy of said motion, shall be served formally on the defendant or claimant by the United States marshal, by delivering to him a certified copy thereof, or otherwise serving the same as original notices of suit in the same court are served; and if the defendant or claimant shall fail or refuse to produce such book, invoice, or paper, in obedience to such notice, the allegations stated in the said motion shall be taken as confessed, unless his failure or refusal to produce the same shall be explained to the satisfaction of the court. And if produced, the said attorney shall be permitted, under the direction of the court, to make examination (at which examination the defendant or claimant, or his agent, may be present) of such entries in said book, invoice, or paper as relate to or tend to prove the allegation aforesaid, and may offer the same in evidence on behalf of the United States. But the owner of said books and papers, his agent or attorney, shall have, subject to the order of the court, the custody of them, except pending their examination in court as aforesaid.

Penalty for False Invoices.

SEC. 12. That any owner, importer, consignee, agent, or other person who shall, with intent to defraud the revenue, make, or attempt to make, any entry of imported merchandise by means of any fraudulent or false invoice, affidavit, letter, or paper, or by means of any false statement, written or verbal, or who shall be guilty of any wilful act or omission, by means whereof the United States shall be deprived of the lawful duties, or any portion thereof, accruing upon the merchandise, or any portion thereof, embraced or referred to in such invoice, affidavit, letter, paper, or statement, or affected by such act or omission, shall, for each offense, be fined in any sum not exceeding five thousand dollars, nor less than fifty dollars, or be imprisoned for any time not exceeding two years, or both; and, in addition to such fine, such merchandise shall be forfeited; which forfeiture shall only apply to the whole of the merchandise in the case or package containing the particular article or articles of merchandise to which such fraud or alleged fraud relates; and anything contained in any act which provides for the forfeiture or confiscation of an entire invoice in consequence of any item or items contained in the same being undervalued, be, and the same is hereby, repealed.

The omission to add to market value the cost of packing, shipping, charges for inland transportation, &c., without intent to defraud the revenue, shall not be a cause of forfeiture; but where such cost, &c., is omitted, the collector or appraiser shall add double such cost to the dutiable value of the goods.

Salaries of Custom House Officers.

SEC. 18. That in lieu of the salaries, moieties, and perquisites of whatever name or nature, and commissions on disbursements, now paid to and received by the collectors, naval officers, and surveyors connected with the customs service in the several collection districts of the United States hereinafter named, there shall be paid, from and after the first day of July, eighteen hundred and seventy-four, an annual salary as follows:

To the collector of the district of New York, twelve thousand dollars.

To the collectors of the districts of Boston and Charlestown, Massachusetts; and Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, each eight thousand dollars.

To the collectors of the districts of San Francisco, California; Baltimore, Maryland; and New Orleans, Louisiana, each seven thousand dollars.

To the collector of the district of Portland and Falmouth, Maine, six thousand dollars.

To the naval officer for the district of New York, eight thousand dollars.

To the naval officers of the districts of Boston and Charlestown, Massachusetts; and San Francisco, California; and Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, each five thousand dollars.

To the surveyor of the port of New York, eight thousand dollars.

To the surveyors of the ports of Boston, Massachusetts; and San Francisco, California; and Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, each five thousand dollars.

THE ALABAMA CLAIMS.

Chap. 459.—Creates a Court of Five Commissioners to adjudicate Claims on the Alabama Indemnity Fund of $15,500,000 received from Great Britain.—SEC. 11. That it shall be the duty of said court to receive and examine all claims admissible under this act that may be presented to it, directly resulting from damage caused by the so-called insurgent cruisers Alabama, Florida, and their tenders, and also all claims admissible under this act directly resulting from damage caused by the so-called insurgent cruiser Shenandoah, after her departure from Melbourne on the eighteenth day of February, eighteen hundred and sixty-five, and to decide upon the amount and validity of such claims, in conformity with the provisions hereinafter contained, and according to the principles of law and the merits of the several cases. All claims shall be verified by oath of the claimant, and filed in said court within six months next after the organization thereof, as provided in section eight of this act; and no claim shall be received, docketed, or considered that shall have not been so filed within the time aforesaid; but every such unrepresented claim shall be deemed and held to be finally and conclusively waived and barred.

What Claims are not to be Allowed.

SEC. 12 That no claim shall be admissible or allowed by said court for any loss or damage for or in respect to which the party injured, his assignees or legal representatives, shall have received compensation or indemnity from any insurance company, insurer, or otherwise; but if such compensation or indemnity so received shall not have been equal to the loss or damage so actually suffered, allowance may be made for the difference. And in no case shall any claim be admitted or allowed for or in respect to unearned freights, gross freights, prospective profits, freights, gains, or advantages, or for wages of officers or seamen for a longer time than one year next after the breaking up of a voyage by the acts aforesaid. And no claim shall be admissible or allowed by said court by or in behalf of any insurance company or insurer, either in its or his own right, or as assignee, or otherwise, in the right of a person or party insured as aforesaid, unless such claimant shall show, to the satisfaction of said court, that, during the late rebellion, the sum of its or his losses, in respect to its or his war risks, exceeded the sum of its or his premiums or other gains upon or in respect to such war risks; and, in case of any such allowance, the same shall not be greater than any such excess of loss. And no claim shall be admissible or allowed by said court arising in favor of any insurance company not lawfully existing at the time of the loss under the laws of some one of the United States. And no claim shall be admissible or allowed by said court arising in favor of any person not entitled, at the time of his loss, to the protection of the United States in the premises, nor arising in favor of any person who did not at all times during the late rebellion bear true allegiance to the United States.

POSTPONEMENT OF EXPENDITURES FOR PUBLIC BUILDINGS.

Chap. 476.—An act to authorize the Secretary of the Treasury to suspend work upon the public buildings.—Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to defer

THE CURRENCY QUESTION.

RECORD OF THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, SHOWING HOW EACH SENATOR AND REPRESENTATIVE VOTED ON SIX IMPORTANT FINANCIAL PROPOSITIONS INVOLVING THE QUESTION OF INFLATION.

Record of the Senate.

1.—March 25, 1874, Mr. Schurz moved to amend the first section of the Senate Currency Bill so as to make the maximum limit of United States notes $356,000,000, which was voted down by 18 to 40.

2.—The same day Mr. Wright moved to strike out the first section and insert: "That the maximum amount of United States notes is hereby fixed at $400,000,000," which was agreed to by 31 to 26.

3.—April 2, 1874, the Senate passed its Inflation Bill, which is given in full under the head of 4, in the introduction to the Record of the House on Inflation. The vote was 29 to 24, with 19 absent or not voting.

4.—April 27, 1874, a vote was taken in the Senate on the question, "Shall the (Senate Inflation) bill pass notwithstanding the objections of the President?" The vote was, yeas 34, nays 30—not two thirds.

5.—June 12, 1874, the Senate, by a vote of 32 to 23, passed the Maynard-Morton Compromise Inflation Bill, which (June 19) was rejected by the House. (See 5 of the Record of the House.) This so-called "Compromise" released the reserves required to be held by banks against the circulation, authorized unlimited expansion bank note circulation, provided for redemption of bank notes with greenbacks by the U. Treasurer, and extended the legal limit of th legal tender circulation to $382,000,000.

6.—June 19, 1874, the Senate passed the Dawe Compromise Inflation bill by a vote of 43 to 1 which, June 22, was signed by the President an became a law. It is given in full on anothe page of this ALMANAC, under the Abstract o the more important Acts passed at the first Se sion of the XLIIId Congress.

Explanation.—In the following lists th letter Y signifies in every case a vote in favor o an increased issue of paper money, or of legalizing the increase of the legal tender circulatio beyond $356,000,000. The letter N signifies a vot against such increase, and the letter A show that the senator or representative was absen or did not vote. The names of Republican are printed in Roman, those of Democrat in Italic, and those of Liberal Republicans i SMALL CAPS. An * shows that the individual was not a senator or representative at the time the vote was taken.

Record of the House.

1.—January 19, 1874, Mr. Wilson, of Indiana, moved that the rules be suspended and that the following preamble and resolutions be adopted:

Whereas, by reason of the present monetary stringency and the insufficiency in the amount of circulating medium, the industries and commercial affairs of the country have been greatly depressed; and whereas, by reason of said stringency, the revenues of the Government have been largely diminished, in consequence whereof Congress has been asked to increase taxation to the amount of $42,000,000; and whereas until the recent panic the revenues were ample to meet the current expenses of the Government: Therefore,

Resolved, That instead of levying additional taxes the true policy lies in the enactment of such a law or laws as will relieve such stringency and supply the means necessary to the business wants of the country, by increasing the circulating medium, thereby reviving business, ncreasing revenues, and thus avoiding the necessity of increasing the present rates of taxation or duties, or the imposition of additional taxes or duties.

Resolved, That the Committee on Banking and Currency be, and is hereby, instructed to prepare and report to the House, without delay, a bill for the purpose in the first resolution expressed, and that said committee have leave to report at any time.

Mr. Wilson required a two-thirds vote to carry his motion, but obtained only 135 to 98, 53 not voting.

2.—March 23, 1874, the following bill passed the House by a vote of 166 to 77:

A Bill to fix the amount of legal tender notes at $400,000,000.

Whereas, The existing uncertainty as to whether the amount of legal tender notes now authorized by law to be kept in general circulation, is $356,000,000, or $400,000,000, is calculated to derange the business of the country and unsettle values; therefore

Be it enacted, &c., That the provisions of law existing prior to the passage of the act approved April 12, 1866, entitled "An act to amend an act to provide ways and means to support the Government," approved March 3, 1865, be and the same are hereby declared to be in force, so as to authorize the amount of legal tender notes of the United States to the amount of $400,000,000, to be kept in general circulation, and the total amount of United States notes, issued or to be issued, shall never exceed $400,000,000.

3.—April 14, 1874, the House, by a vote of 129 to 116, passed the Maynard "free banking" Inflation Bill. This bill provided that the national banks should not be required to keep a reserve for the redemption of their circulating notes; that there should be no limit to the aggregate circulation of the national banks; that bank notes should be "redeemed" at the Treasury in legal tenders, out of a five per cent. "redemption fund," to be kept and maintained there by the banks for that purpose; that banks should keep their reserves in their own vaults, and not on deposit at "redemption cities."

4.—April 14, 1874, the House, by a vote of 140 to 102, passed the Senate Inflation Bill which, April 22, was vetoed by the President. The following is the full text of this bill:

A Bill to fix the amount of United States notes and the circulation of national banks, and for other purposes.

Be it resolved, &c., That the maximum amount of United States notes is hereby fixed at $400,000,000.

Section 2. That $46,000,000 in notes for circulation, in addition to such circulation now allowed by law, shall be issued to national banking associations now organized, and which may be organized hereafter, and such increased circulation shall be distributed among the several States as provided in section 1 of the Act entitled "An Act to provide for the redemption of the three per centum temporary loan certificates, and for an increase of national bank notes," approved July 12, 1870; and each national banking association now organized, or hereafter to be organized, shall keep and maintain, as a part of its reserve required by law, one fourth part of the coin received by it as interest on bonds of the United States, deposited as security for circulating notes or Government deposits, and that hereafter only one fourth of the reserve now prescribed by law for national banking associations shall consist of balances due to an association available for the redemption of its circulating notes from associations in cities of redemption, and upon which balances no interest shall be paid.

5.—June 13, 1874, the House, by a vote of 108 to 146, rejected the Maynard-Morton Compromise Inflation Bill, such inflationists as Butler, Coburn and Kelley voting against it as not furnishing adequate "relief" to the business community. See 5, Record of the Senate.

6.—June 20, 1874, the House, by a vote of 221 to 40, passed the Dawes Compromise Currency Bill, which, June 22, was signed by the President and became a law. It is given in full on another page of this ALMANAC, under the Abstract of the more important acts passed at the first Session of the XLIIId Congress.

Monthly Range of the Gold Premium for Thirteen Years.

The following tables show the lowest and highest prices of gold at New York, for each month in the last thirteen years. The left-hand column of each year shows the lowest price, and the right-hand column the highest. The last two columns of the second table show for each month the lowest and highest prices for the five years since 1870, when the lower range of the gold premium, from 120 to 120, was established:

THE AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

The method prescribed by chapter 330 of the laws of 1874 for voting on the proposed amendments to the Constitution was by a ballot, on which was printed or written the following words:

"For all propositions on this ballot which are not canceled with ink or pencil; and against all which are so canceled.

(1) For the proposed amendments to article two, "relative to suffrage and bribery."

(2) For the proposed amendment to article three, part first, "Legislature and its organization," sections one to eight, inclusive.

(3) For the proposed amendment to article three, part two, "powers and forms of Legislature," being sections seventeen to twenty-five, inclusive.

(4) For the proposed amendments to article four, "the Governor and Lieutenant-Governor, their powers and duties."

(5) For the proposed amendments to article seven, "finance and canals."

(6) For the proposed amendments to article eight, part one, being sections four and eleven, "relating to corporations, local liabilities and appropriations."

(7) For the proposed amendments to article eight, part two, section ten, "State appropriations."

(8) For the proposed amendment to section nine of article ten, being section "relative to compensation of certain officers."

(9) For the proposed amendment to article twelve, "oath of office."

(10) For the proposed amendment to add a new article to be known as article fifteen, "relating to official corruption."

(11) For the proposed amendment to add a new article to be known as article sixteen, "time for amendments to take effect."

Each ballot was counted as a vote cast for every proposition thereon not canceled with ink or pencil, and against each proposition so canceled.

The following synopsis of the provisions of the amendments is made to refer to the propositions on the above ballot:

(1) Amendments to Article II.—Sec. 1. Every male citizen, of the age of 21, a citizen for 10 days, inhabitant of the State one year, of the county for 4 months, and for thirty days a resident of the election district in which he may offer his vote, is entitled to vote for all officers and on all questions submitted to the people.

"Sec. 2. No person who shall receive, expect or offer to receive, or pay, offer or promise to pay, contribute, offer or promise to contribute to another, to be paid or used, any money or other valuable thing as a compensation or reward for the giving or withholding a vote at an election, or who shall make any promise to influence the giving or withholding any such vote, or who shall make or become directly or indirectly interested in any bet or wager depending upon the result of any election, shall vote at such election; and upon challenge for such cause, the person so challenged, before the officers author sed for that purpose shall receive his vote, shall swear or affirm before such officers that he has not received or offered, does not expect to receive, has not paid, offered or promised to pay, contributed, offered or promised to contribute to another, to be paid or used, any money or other valuable thing as a compensation or reward for the giving or withholding a vote at such election, and has not made any promise to influence the giving or withholding of any such vote, nor made or become directly or indirectly interested in any bet or wager depending upon the result of such election. The Legislature, at the session thereof next after the adoption of this section, shall, and from time to time thereafter may, enact laws excluding from the right of suffrage all persons convicted of bribery or of any infamous crime."

(2) Amendments to Article III, part 1.—Members of the Assembly, 128 in number, elected for one year, shall be apportioned among the several counties by the Legislature, as nearly as may be, according to population, as determined by the State census of 1875, and those taken decennially thereafter. The Board of Aldermen in New York, and the Supervisors in the other counties, shall district their several counties. No town is to be divided in the formation of Assembly Districts. Every county, except Hamilton, shall be entitled to at least one Assemblyman. No new county shall be formed having not sufficient population to entitle it to a member of Assembly, and the county of Hamilton may be abolished, and its territory annexed to the contiguous counties.

Sec. 6. Each member of the Legislature shall receive $1,500 a year for his services, and 10 cents a mile, going and returning from his home once in each session, for traveling expenses. Senators, in the trial of impeachments, and managers of the trial appointed from the Assembly, not exceeding 9 in number, shall receive $10 a day additional.

Sec. 7. No member of the Legislature shall receive any civil appointment within this State, or the Senate of the United States, from the Governor, the Governor and Senate, or from the Legislature, or from any city government.

Sec. 8. If any person shall, after his election to the Legislature, be elected to Congress, or appointed to any office, civil or military, under the Government of the United States or any city government, his acceptance thereof shall vacate his seat, and no person can be elected to the Legislature who, within 100 days of his election has been a Member of Congress, an officer of the United States, or an officer under any city government.

(3) Amendments to Article III, part 2.—The following are additional sections to Article III as it formerly stood. On account of their great importance, we give them in full:

Sec. 17. No act shall be passed which shall provide that any existing law, or any part thereof, shall be made or deemed a part of said act, or which shall enact that any existing law, or any part thereof, shall be applicable, except by inserting it in such act.

Sec. 18. The Legislature shall not pass a private or local bill in any of the following cases:

Elections of Representatives in Congress in 1876 and following years.

The following sections of Chapter XI of the Statutes at Large, passed at the IId Session of the XLIId Congress, fix the Tuesday after the 1st Monday of November as the day on which elections of representatives in Congress shall hereafter be held in all the States:

SEC. 3. That the Tuesday next after the first Monday in November, in the year eighteen hundred and seventy-six, is hereby fixed and established as the day, in each of the States and Territories of the United States, for the election of Representatives and Delegates to the forty-fifth Congress; and the Tuesday next after the first Monday in November, in every second year thereafter, is hereby fixed and established as the day for the election, in each of said States and Territories, of Representatives and Delegates to the Congress commencing on the fourth day of March next thereafter.

SEC. 4. That if, upon trial, there shall be a failure to elect a Representative or Delegate in Congress in any State, District, or Territory, upon the day hereby fixed and established for such election, or if, after any such election, a vacancy shall occur in any such State, District, or Territory, from death, resignation, or otherwise, an election shall be held to fill any vacancy caused by such failure, resignation, death, or otherwise, at such time as is or may be provided by law for filling vacancies in the State or Territory in which the same may occur.

SEC. 5. That no State shall be hereafter admitted to the Union without having the necessary population to entitle it to at least one Representative according to the ratio of representation fixed by this bill.

William H. Wickham over Wales, 33,118; over Oswald Ottendorfer, 45,845; over both, 8,892. Patrick H. Jones's maj. for Register, 11,647.

LOUISIANA.

The attention of the whole country has been fixed on the rascally operations of Kellogg's so-called Returning Board, which does not permit the will of the voters of this State to have effect. It is well known that the Conservatives carried the State in November by a large majority, but the result of the election is not officially announced.

NOTE.—The new Constitution of Pennsylvania provides that "Members of the General Assembly shall be chosen at the general election every second year. Their term of service shall begin on the first day of December next after their election. Senators shall be elected for the term of four years, and Representatives for the term of two years." It is further provided in the schedule that at the general elections in the years 1874 and 1875, Senators shall be elected in all districts where there shall be vacancies, those elected in 1874 to serve two years, and those elected in 1875 to serve one year, the Senators already elected under the old Constitution continuing to represent the districts in which they reside until the expiration of the terms for which they were elected. Of the 22 Senators holding over, 13 were Republicans and 9 Democrats. 17 Republican and 11 Democratic Senators were elected.

NEBRASKA.

At an election held in this State on the 13th of October, the Republicans elected Silas Garber, their candidate for Governor, and the other State officers, carried the Legislature, and re-elected Lorenzo Crounse to the U. S. House of Representatives. An application to the Secretary of State for the official returns for publication in this ALMANAC was refused, that officer professing to be under obligations to keep the returns sacredly secret until after they have been passed upon by the State Legislature, which assembles in January. Should we succeed in obtaining them, we will publish the returns in the ALMANAC for 1876.

Explanation of the above Table.

In the table above it is to be understood that the word "near" and the character ♂ (conjunction) are synonymous, and mean that the two bodies are nearest each other at the time expressed, and that they are then on a line running from the North Pole through both bodies, and have the same right ascension. GR. ELON. means greatest elongation, or greatest apparent angular distance from the SUN. STATIONARY means that the planet is then without apparent motion east or west with respect to the Stars, and is about to move in a direction contrary to that it last had. The character ☍ indicates that the planet is opposite the Sun, or 180 deg., or a half circle, east of it, and rises when the Sun sets, and sets when he rises. When a planet is a quarter of a circle, or 90 deg. from the Sun, east or west, it is known by □.

PLANETARY CHARACTERS. — ☿ Mercury, ♀ Venus, ♂ Mars, ♃ Jupiter, ♄ Saturn, ♅ Uranus, ♆ Neptune, ☉ Moon.

The above table enables us to find the planets throughout the year.

TRADE AND COMMERCE.

NOTE.—In the following tables it will be understood that the fiscal year of the United States and that of the Dominion of Canada, end with the 30th of June. That of Great Britain ends with the 31st of December. The imports of the United States are rated at their coin value in the ports from which they are shipped. The imports of Great Britain are rated at their value, exclusive of duty, in the British ports where they are entered, including freights and profits of the importer. The values of the foreign trade of Great Britain are uniformly given in pounds sterling, the value of which is $4.86 and 65-100ths cents in our gold coin.

The following statistical summaries of the foreign commerce of the United States, Great Britain and the Dominion of Canada, illustrate the transition from a period of great activity to one of extreme depression. The last commercial crisis which was common to Europe and America, previous to the one of two years ago, was in 1857. That was followed, in the case both of England and the United States, by a heavy decline in the imports and exports, which lasted until 1860. The crisis of 1873 has been followed by similar effects, and so was the panic of 1866, the consequences of which were mainly confined to Great Britain. At the present time (November, 1875) the appearances are that the effects of the panic and the general commercial depression will continue to the end of the current fiscal year.

By comparing the five years with each other, it will be found that the imports and consumption of tea, coffee, sugar and molasses are maintained with great steadiness, both in the United States and Great Britain. The greatest falling off in the imports of the United States and the exports of Great Britain, is shown in iron and steel and the manufactures of these articles. The quantities of the various manufactures of iron imported into the United States in 1874-5 are not one-fifth those imported in 1871-2. Next come the manufactures of cotton, woolen, silk and linen. The British exports of cotton manufactures, however, though greatly diminished in value, still show an increase in quantity. As might be inferred from the state of trade, the falling off in values of articles which show a decline is usually greater than the decline in quantities. In 1875, as compared with 1874, the exports of the United States show a serious decrease in cotton, wheat and wheat flour, petroleum, bacon and hams, tallow and leaf tobacco, the decrease in these important articles showing itself in quantities as well as values.

In THE TRIBUNE ALMANAC of last year, we made the following observations in regard to the export trade of the United States, the truth of which is confirmed by the events of the twelve months which have passed since the tables for last year were compiled: "In examining the exports of the United States, the great fall in the value per cwt. of cotton and provisions, comparing 1869–70 with 1873–4, is to be noticed. Other striking features are the enormous quantities of breadstuffs and provisions exported in the last three years, the increase ranging from two to fivefold in four years. In the case of some of these articles, the capacity of the foreign markets to absorb our productions appears to have been reached, and no further increase is to be expected, at least until trade in Great Britain becomes more active. Bacon, hams, beef and lard are examples of the products to which we refer. On the other hand, there is reason to expect an increase in the exports of coal, leather, manufactures of iron and steel and cotton goods. The nation is under a necessity to export, both in payment for its imports and for the settlement of its large debts to foreigners. If cotton, breadstuffs, provisions, petroleum, tobacco and the available coin and bullion prove inadequate for such payments, other articles will be taken—namely, manufactures."

No. 9.—Foreign Trade of the Dominion of Canada.

[The Dominion of Canada consists of the six Provinces of Ontario, Quebec, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, British Columbia and Manitoba. The British North American Provinces, outside of the Dominion, are Newfoundland and Prince Edward Island. The population of the four principal Provinces of the Dominion was 3,090,561 in 1861, and 3,485,761 in 1871.]

STATISTICS of the IRON MANUFACTURES of the UNITED STATES.

COMPILED FROM THE REPORT OF JAMES M. SWANK, SECRETARY OF THE AMERICAN IRON AND STEEL ASSOCIATION.

Presented to the members, October 1, 1875.

[PRODU]CTION OF PIG IRON IN THE UNITED STATES IN 1874.

[The] American Iron and Steel Association has [obtain]ed from the producers and from its cor[resp]ondents full statistics of the production of [pig iro]n in the United States in 1874. The total [produ]ction was 2,689,413 net tons, against [2,854,5]78 net tons in 1873, and 2,854,558 net tons [in 187]2, showing a decrease of 178,865 tons as [compa]red with 1873, and 165,145 tons as com[pared] with 1872. Notwithstanding this decrease, [the p]roduction in 1874 was much larger than has [been] generally estimated—much larger even [than the] partial returns made to the Association at [the c]lose of 1874 indicated.

Had the prices of 1872 been maintained [durin]g 1873, and the demand for iron experi[enced] no abatement, there can be no doubt that [the] production of 1873 would have reached [3,000,]000 tons. But at the beginning of summer [it b]ecame evident that production was outrun[ning] consumption, and it will be remembered [that] on the 19th of June a convention of pig iron [manufac]turers assembled at Cleveland, and adopted a [resolu]tion recommending a restriction of pro[duct]ion. This recommendation was so far fol[lowe]d or anticipated as to cause the blowing out [durin]g the summer of a number of furnaces, [furnac]es were blown out for repairs, at various [perio]ds during the year, and were not again put [in b]last. In September the panic came, and it [was] at once made evident, by the resultant [slum]kage in prices and decrease in consumption, [that] production would have to be still further re[duce]d, and accordingly a number of additional [furn]aces were blown out, so that, by the close of [the] year, of 665 furnaces then completed, 252 [were] out of blast and 413 were in blast. The [prod]uction of the year was 2,868,278 tons, or [178,2]80 tons in excess of that of 1872. The year [was] opened with 413 furnaces in blast, in which [nearl]y every one of the large new and improved [furn]aces built in 1872 and 1873 was included. [The] hopes of a revival of business that were en[terta]ined at the beginning of the year were soon [fou]nd to be delusive, and then began the agita[tion] of the policy of still further restricting pro[duct]ion by means of a definite system which [sho]uld aim at an equitable division of the trade. [Thi]s agitation proved fruitless, but while it was [go]ing very few furnaces were blown out, while [man]y as many others, some of which were new, [were] blown in. It was not until near the close [of] the year that a general determination to blow [out] furnaces was reached, and when the year [clos]ed, of 701 furnaces then completed, 886 were [out] of blast and 365 were in blast. The production of the year was 2,689,413 tons, or 178,865 tons less than the product of 1873.

When we consider that the furnaces which made 2,854,558 tons of iron in 1872 were mostly small; that the lessened number of furnaces which made 2,868,278 tons in 1873 included all the large and improved new furnaces; and that there were almost as many furnaces in blast in 1874 as in 1873, the best furnaces running, while the poorest stood idle, we need no longer wonder that the production of 1874 was 2,689,413 tons, or only 178,865 tons less than the product of 1873.

The quantity of pig iron of all kinds which was on hand and unsold at the close of 1874 in the hands of makers or their agents was 795,784 net tons. The quantity which was held by speculative parties, or was in the hands of creditors, or in the hands of consumers, was undoubtedly large; so that, at the close of 1874, the total quantity of pig iron in the country, exclusive of the small stocks of foreign iron, may be safely estimated at 1,000,000 tons. Prices could not be expected to improve under such circumstances, and, although more furnaces have blown out since the 1st of January than have been blown in, the quantity of iron that has been made since then, joined to the 1,000,000 tons then on hand, has been entirely too large to exercise any other than a depressing effect on the market. On the 1st of February, 1875, of 701 completed furnace stacks in the country, there were in blast 303 stacks, and out of blast 398 stacks. Sixty-two furnaces had been blown out in January. Since February 1st the number of furnaces out of blast has been slightly increased. The number of new furnaces completed in 1874 was 38, against 50 in 1873 and 41 in 1872. The astonishing number of 46 stacks is reported as being in course of erection in 1875, while others are projected.

Below we present a table showing the growth of the pig iron branch of the iron trade of the United States from 1854 to 1874, compiled from statistics procured by this Association.

PRODUCTION OF ROLLED IRON IN THE UNITED STATES IN 1874.

Below will be found a table showing the production in net tons by States of all forms of rolled iron produced in the United States in 1874, including all kinds of rails, and nails and spikes. As heretofore explained, our statistics of rolled iron embrace bar, band, hoop, plate, sheet, angle, girder, beam, boat, guide, rod, and bridge iron, and rolled axles. All forged iron, such as anchors, anvils, hammered axles, cranks, ships' knees, etc., is carefully excluded, because it is impossible to learn the whole amount of iron hammered or forged in the vast number of machine-shops, locomotive works, marine engine works, anchor works, and similar establishments of the country.

Total	689,280	175,258	245,609	729,413	1,839,560

The total production of all rolled iron in 1874, Bessemer steel rails included, was 1,889,560 net tons, against 1,966,445 tons in 1873, a decrease of only 126,885 tons. This decrease was all in rails. Of the total product of the rolling mills in 1874, 1,110,147 tons were rolled iron other than rails, against 1,076,868 tons in 1873, an increase of 33,779 tons. The number of tons of nail plate consumed in 1874 was 245,609 net tons, against 201,235 tons in 1873, an increase of 44,374 tons. The increase of 33,779 tons in the aggregate production of rolled iron other than rails in 1874 was therefore wholly in the department of cut nails and spikes. The total number of kegs of cut nails and spikes produced in 1874 was 4,912,180, against 4,024,704 kegs in 1873.

The following table will show the comparative production of rolled iron, excluding rails, and of cut nails and spikes, in all the States in 1873 and 1874.

PRODUCTION OF RAILS IN THE UNITED STATES IN 1874.

The total production of rails of all kinds in the United States in 1874, was 729,413 net tons, against 890,077 tons in 1873, 1,000,000 tons in 1872, and 775,733 tons in 1871. The following table will show the States which produced rails in 1874, and the character of the product, in net tons.

The whole number of rail rolling mills in the country in 1874 was 91, of which 57 make heavy rails mainly, and 34 make only light or street rails. Of the whole 91 mills, 22 made no rails in 1874. The product of the year was therefore rolled by 69 mills, and many of these ran only a part of the time. The capacity of all the rail rolling mills of the country is at least double the product of 1874, which was 729,413 net tons. Of the 67 mills which made rails in 1874, 7 made both iron and Bessemer steel rails, 1 made Bessemer steel rails exclusively, 2 made steel-headed rails exclusively, 2 made steel-headed rails and iron rails, and one made solid cast steel rails and iron rails.

The following summary will show the sources of rail supply during these three years, in net tons:

Rails of all Kinds.	1872.	1873.	1874.

Consumption	1,530,850	1,148,850	837,695

Our exports of rails during the past four years have not been sufficiently large to affect appreciably the above figures of home consumption. They were as follows in net tons: 1871, 888; 1872, 1,212; 1873, 375; 1874, 1,257.

Below is a table which shows the production of each of the rail-making States during the past four years. The production of street, mine, and light rails in 1872 is given in the aggregate, but in the other years it is incorporated with the general rail product of the several States:

PRODUCTION OF BESSEMER STEEL IN THE UNITED STATES IN 1874.

The eight completed Bessemer steel establishments in this country were not fully occupied in filling orders during 1874. Nevertheless, the product of the year was greater than that of 1873. The production of Bessemer steel rails in 1874 was 144,944 net tons, against 129,015 net tons in 1873—a gain of 15,929 tons. The production of Bessemer steel rails in this country, since 1867, when they were first made upon orders, has been as follows in net tons:

1868	7,225	1872	94,070
1869	9,650	1873	129,015
1870	34,000	1874	144,944

Below is a table of the annual production in this country of merchantable Bessemer steel for all purposes, from 1867 to 1874, in net tons:

1867	3,000	1871	45,000
1868	8,500	1872	110,500
1869	12,000	1873	157,000
1870	40,000	1874	176,579

The total quantity of pig iron converted by the Bessemer or Pneumatic process was 140,404 net tons in 1872, 188,584 tons in 1873, and 204,859 tons in 1874.

The Edgar Thomson Steel Company Limited made their first blow on Thursday, August 26th last, started their blooming mill on Friday, Aug. 27th, and rolled their first rail on Wednesday, Sept. 1st. The works at once went into full operation. This company makes the ninth that is now engaged in making Bessemer steel rails in this country. The Lackawanna Iron and Coal Company will follow before the close of this year. The foundations of the Bessemer plant of the Vulcan Iron Works at St. Louis have just been laid.

The quantity of Bessemer ingots made in the United Kingdom during the last five years is stated as follows, by competent authority, in gross tons: In 1870, 215,000 tons; 1871, 329,000; 1872, 410,000; 1873, 496,000; 1874, 540,000.

The imports of steel rails from all countries into the United States in the calendar year 1874 were 100,456 net tons, against 159,571 tons in 1873, and 149,786 tons in 1872. Prior to 1872 the imports of steel rails were not separately classified, and there is consequently no record of the quantity imported. In the following table we give in net tons the production and importation of steel rails during the past three years, the combined figures indicating the consumption in those years:

STEEL RAILS.	1872.	1873.	1874.
Production of Bessemer steel rails	94,070	129,015	144,944
Importation, ditto	149,786	159,571	100,486
Consumption, ditto	243,856	288,586	245,430

The average price in currency at which American steel rails have been sold at the works since the establishment of the industry, is shown in the following summary:

1867	$160	1869	$133¼	1871	$102½	1873	$120½
1868	158½	1870	106¾	1872	112	1874	94¼

The prices obtained at the works thus far during 1875, have averaged about $75.

Below is a table showing, in net tons, the total production of steel other than Bessemer in this country during the past ten years:

1866	15,262	1870	35,000
1868	18,973	1871	37,000
1867	19,000	1872	38,000
1868	21,500	1873	50,000
1869	23,000	1874	47,481

During the calendar year 1874 our imports of steel ingots, bars, sheets and wire amounted to $2,678,611, against $3,865,816 in 1873, $4,106,087 in 1872, and $8,460,785 in 1871. Our exports of these articles in 1874 amounted to 348 net tons of the value of $29,557, against 26 tons in 1873 of the value of $3,481, 9 tons in 1872 of the value of $3,694, and 30 tons in 1871 of the value of $7,364. The increase in our exports and the decrease in our imports of these commodities in 1874 are very marked, and the statistics for 1874 are equally encouraging to the home manufacturer.

SUMMARY OF IRON AND STEEL PRODUCTION IN 1874.

From the foregoing statistics of the production of pig iron, rails, bar iron, steel, etc., in the United States in 1872, 1873 and 1874, the following table of the aggregate production of iron and steel is compiled, embracing the different branches of the iron trade:

PRODUCTS—NET TONS	1872.	1873.	1874.
Pig iron	2,854,558	2,868,278	2,689,413
All rolled iron, including nails	1,941,692	1,666,445	1,839,560
All rolled iron, including nails and excluding rails	941,692	1,076,368	1,110,147
Rails of all kinds	1,000,000	890,077	729,413
Bessemer steel rails	94,070	129,015	144,944
Iron and all other rails	905,930	761,062	584,469
Street rails	15,000	9,430	6,739
Kegs of cut nails and spikes	4,065,322	4,024,704	4,912,:80
Merchantable Bessemer steel other than rails	16,430	27,985	31,635
Total of merchantable Bessemer steel	110,500	157,000	176,579
Crucible cast steel	27,260	32,786	34,128
Open-hearth steel	3,000	3,500	7,000
All other steel	7,740	13,714	6,353
Blooms from ore and pig iron	58,000	62,564	61,670

The consumption of rails in any given year can be ascertained with a great degree of accuracy by assuming that the quantity carried over from year to year is always about the same, and that the total of imports and production is therefore consumed. The following table will show the probable consumption of rails in this country during 1872, 1873 and 1874:

RAILS.	1872. Net Tons	1873. Net Tons	1874. Net Tons
Production of iron rails	905,930	761,062	584,469
Production of Bessemer rails	94,070	129,015	144,944
Importation of iron rails	381,064	99,202	7,796
Importation of Bessemer rails	149,786	159,571	100,486
Probable consumption	1,530,850	1,148,850	837,695

These figures indicate a reduced consumption of rails of all kinds in 1874 of 311,155 tons, as compared with 1873, and of 693,155 tons as compared with 1872.

COTTON STATISTICS.

Previously to 1790, the United States did not export a pound of cotton. A little had been raised for domestic use before the Revolution, but the quantity was of no importance. In 1791 the trifling quantity of 189,316 lbs. was exported, and in 1792, 138,328 lbs.—not enough in both years to load an average sized schooner. About this time Eli Whitney invented the cotton gin, by which the wool of the upland cotton is separated from the seed with facility, whereas before the process was so difficult that the cotton was hardly worth the labor of preparing it. The effect of this invention was immediately perceptible in the exports of cotton, which increased in 1794 to 1,601,760 lbs., and in 1795 to 5,276,300 lbs. By 1821 they had increased to 124,893,405 lbs. of the value of $20,157,484, and at present the exports upon an average exceed 1,100,000,000 lbs. of the average value in our paper currency of $200,000,000. The following table shows the annual production of cotton in bales in the United States for a period of 54 years.

The above statistics show an average for the last three years of nearly 4,000,000 bales. Of this aggregate, on an average of the last four years, 1,200,000 bales a year have been consumed by the manufacturers of our own country. According to the valuable statistics of The Commercial and Financial Chronicle, Northern manufacturers took from the crop 896,860 bales in 1869-70; 1,008,956 bales in 1870-1; 977,540 bales in 1871-2; 1,063,465 bales in 1872-3; 1,177,417 bales in 1873-4, and 1,062,522 bales in 1874-5. Manufacturers in the Southern States took 90,000 bales in 1869-70; 91,940 bales in 1870-1; 120,000 bales in 1871-2; 137,662 bales in 1872-3; 128,526 bales in 1873-4, and 120,483 bales in 1874-5.

The late J. R. McCulloch, an eminent authority in political economy among the inhabitants of the British Isles, expatiates in his Dictionary of Commerce on the immense obstacles to be overcome before the cotton manufacture could gain a secure footing in the United States. He regarded that species of industry as having been forced into a premature existence here by a protective tariff, and expressed the opinion that such a misdirection of capital and industry could end in nothing but ruin to the parties involved in it. While the people of the United States can agree with Mr. McCulloch that without the protection of the tariff the cotton manufacture could never have reached its present development in our country, it may at the present time be seriously debated whether the manufacture might not continue to flourish with unabated vigor were the protective duties abolished and revenue duties alone collected, as is the case in Canada. The fact, however, is beyond doubt that the United States rank next to Great Britain and far in advance of all other countries in the manufacture of cotton goods, though the products of our factories are almost exclusively for home consumption.

The United States produce more cotton than all the rest of the world together. The annual consumption of cotton in Europe and North America is now estimated at 2,700,000,000 lbs., of which 1,250,000,000 are worked up in Great Britain, 925,000,000 lbs. on the Continent of Europe, and 525,000,000 lbs. in the United States. Of this total of 2,700,000,000 lbs., over 1,700,000,000 lbs. are grown in the United States, and less than 1,000,000,000 in India, Egypt, Brazil, and other countries. By consulting Table No. 2, on the preceding page, it will be seen that Great Britain is the destination of from two-thirds to three-quarters of all our exports of cotton, the greater portion of the remainder going to the Continent of Europe. Table No. 3 shows that previously to 1861 more than three-fourths of all the cotton imported into Great Britain came from the United States, whereas upon an average of the last four years but little more than one-half of the British imports came from this country. It will be noticed that a large quantity of cotton, which is finally manufactured by the nations of Continental Europe is first imported by Great Britain, and then re-exported to its final place of destination. The quantity for the last ten years has ranged from 220,000,000 to 289,000,000 lbs.

AMERICAN AND BRITISH SHIPPING.

The following tables exhibit, in the strongest light, the decadence in the foreign commerce of American shipping since 1860, and the great increase, during the same period, of British tonnage. Fifteen years ago two-thirds of the tonnage which entered and cleared at our ports, carried our own flag, and in British ports our flag was seen almost as often as British colors. The state of things is now reversed, British-built steamers and other vessels doing, we suppose, two-thirds of the foreign carrying trade of the world. The accompanying statistics, which have never before been placed in juxtaposition, will be found an interesting study.

NOTE.—The principal article embraced under the head of manufactures is the Syracuse salt, of which were carried 212,730 tons in 1873, and 167,801 tons in 1874. Under the head of merchandise is included railroad iron, of which 161,667 tons were carried in 1872, and 53,263 tons in 1873. Under miscellaneous are classed iron ore, stone, lime and clay, which, together, amounted to 599,553 tons in 1874, against 253,411 tons in 1862. For agricultural products and total tonnage, see Tables I and II.

UNITED STATES REVENUE AND EXPENDITURE.

It is sufficiently evident, that, whilst one-third of the national revenue is necessarily absorbed by the payment of interest, a persevering application of the resources afforded by seasons of peace and prosperity, to the discharge of the principal, in the manner directed by the Legislature, is the only effectual mode by which the United States can ultimately obtain the full command of their revenue, and the free disposal of all their resources.—Albert Gallatin, Report on the Finances, Dec. 9, 1805.

THE FOREIGN MARKETS FOR OUR BREADSTUFFS.

The first of the subjoined tables shows that while the exports of our wheat to foreign countries are subject to great fluctuations, the movement for the last two fiscal years has been on a greater scale than during any former period. The total exported, exclusive of flour, rose from 8 million bushels in 1859, to 87 millions in 1862; then fell to less than 6 millions in 1866, and increased again to 71 millions in 1874. The second table shows that the British imports of wheat from each country are subject to corresponding vicissitudes, the fluctuations in the aggregate imported being less violent, but still considerable. The average quantity imported into Great Britain for five years past, including 1875, which is not embraced in our table, is about 42½ million cwts., or 80 million bushels. The United States, counting the exports directly from our own ports and indirectly through the ports of Canada, are by far the most important source of supply. For the annual value of the wheat exported from the United States to all countries, and imported into Great Britain from all countries, see the tables on pages 10 and 11.

In addition to the exports of wheat, there were exported from the United States, in the fiscal year 1874, 4,094,094 barrels of wheat flour, and in 1875, 3,951,086 barrels. The principal countries to which flour is exported from the United States are Great Britain, the West Indies, Brazil, the British North American Provinces, New Grenada and Venezuela.

For four years past the exports of Indian corn have been of great consequence, the quantity averaging more than 80,000,000 bushels a year, and the value exceeding $25,000,000 in paper currency. Great Britain is the principal market for this product, the quantities sent to other countries being comparatively insignificant.

ABSTRACT OF PUBLIC LAWS,

PASSED AT THE SECOND SESSION OF THE FORTY-THIRD CONGRESS, WITH A SUMMARY OF APPROPRIATIONS MADE

THE CURRENCY.

[The following is the Act of Jan. 14, 1875, providing for the resumption of specie payments on Jan. 1, 1879. This act was agreed upon by a caucus of Republican Senators, and made a party measure both in the Senate and House of Representatives, the Democrats, as a general thing, voting against it.]

Chap. 15.—An act to provide for the resumption of specie payments.—Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and required, as rapidly as practicable, to cause to be coined at the mints of the United States, silver coins of the denominations of ten, twenty-five, and fifty cents, of standard value, and to issue them in redemption of an equal number and amount of fractional currency of similar denominations, or, at his discretion, he may issue such silver coins through the mints, the subtreasuries, public depositaries, and post-offices of the United States; and, upon such issue, he is hereby authorized and required to redeem an equal amount of such fractional currency, until the whole amount of such fractional currency outstanding shall be redeemed.

SEC. 2. That so much of section three thousand five hundred and twenty-four of the Revised Statutes of the United States as provides for a charge of one-fifth of one per centum for converting standard gold bullion into coin is hereby repealed, and hereafter no charge shall be made for that service.

SEC. 3. That section five thousand one hundred and seventy-seven of the Revised Statutes of the United States, limiting the aggregate amount of circulating notes of national banking associations, be, and is hereby, repealed; and each existing banking association may increase its circulating notes in accordance with existing law without respect to said aggregate limit; and new banking associations may be organized in accordance with existing law without respect to said aggregate limit; and the provisions of law for the withdrawal and redistribution of national bank currency among the several States and Territories are hereby repealed. And whenever, and so often, as circulating notes shall be issued to any such banking association, so increasing its capital or circulating notes, or so newly organized as aforesaid, it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury to redeem the legal-tender United States notes in excess only of three hundred million of dollars, to the amount of eighty per centum of the sum of national bank notes so issued to any such banking association as aforesaid, and to continue such redemption as such circulating notes are issued until there shall be outstanding the sum of three hundred million dollars of such legal-tender United States notes, and no more. And on and after the first day of January, anno Domini eighteen hundred and seventy-nine, the Secretary of the Treasury shall redeem, in coin, the United States legal-tender notes then outstanding on their presentation for redemption, at the office of the assistant treasurer of the United States in the city of New York, in sums of not less than fifty dollars. And to enable the Secretary of the Treasury to prepare and provide for the redemption in this act authorized or required, he is authorized to use any surplus revenues, from time to time, in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, and to issue, sell, and dispose of, at not less than par, in coin, either of the descriptions of bonds of the United States described in the act of Congress approved July fourteenth, eighteen hundred and seventy, entitled, "An act to authorise the refunding of the national debt," with like qualities, privileges and exemptions to the extent necessary to carry this act into full effect, and to use the proceeds thereof for the purposes aforesaid. And all provisions of law inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

Approved, January 14, 1875.

Chap. 19.—Removes the limit on the circulation of banks issuing notes payable in gold, which was formerly a maximum of $1,000,000 by any one bank.

THE CIVIL RIGHTS BILL.

Chap. 114.—An act to protect all citizens in their civil and legal rights.—Whereas, it is essential to just government we recognize the equality of all men before the law, and hold that it is the duty of government, in its dealings with the people, to mete out equal and exact justice to all, of whatever nativity, race, color, or persuasion, religious or political, and it being the appropriate object of legislation to enact great fundamental principles into law: Therefore,

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That all persons within the jurisdiction of the United States shall be entitled to the full and equal enjoyment of the accommodations, advantages, facilities, and privileges of inns, public conveyances on land or water, theaters, and other places of public amusement; subject only to the conditions and limitations established by law, and applicable alike to citizens of every race and color, regardless of any previous condition of servitude.

SEC. 2. That any person who shall violate the foregoing section by denying to any citizen, except for reasons by law applicable to citizens of every race and color, and regardless of any previous condition of servitude, the full enjoyment of any of the accommodations, advantages, facilities, or privileges in said section enumerated, or by aiding or inciting such denial, shall, for every such offense, forfeit and pay the sum of five hundred dollars to the person aggrieved thereby, to be recovered in an action of debt, with full costs; and shall also, for every such offense, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not less than five hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, or shall be imprisoned not less than thirty days nor more than one year: Provided, That all persons may elect to sue for the penalty aforesaid, or to proceed under their rights at common law and by State statutes; and having so elected to proceed in the one mode or the other, their right to proceed in the other jurisdiction shall be barred. But this proviso shall not apply to criminal proceedings, either under this act or the criminal law of any State: And provided further, That a judgment for the penalty in favor of the party aggrieved, or a judgment upon an indictment, shall be a bar to either prosecution respectively.

SEC. 3. That the district and circuit courts of the United States shall have, exclusively of the courts of the several States, cognisance of all crimes and offenses against, and violations of, the provisions of this act; and actions for the penalty given by the preceding section may be prosecuted in the territorial, district or circuit courts of the United States wherever the defendant may be found, without regard to the other party; and the district attorneys, marshals, and deputy marshals of the United States, and commissioners appointed by the circuit and territorial courts of the United States, with powers of arresting and imprisoning, or bailing, offenders against the laws of the United States, are hereby specially authorized and required to institute proceedings against every person who shall violate the provisions of this act, and cause him to be arrested and imprisoned, or bailed, as the case may be, for trial before such court of the United States, or territorial court, as by law has cognizance of the offense, except in respect of the right of action accruing to the person aggrieved; and such district attorneys shall cause such proceedings to be prosecuted to their termination as in other cases: Provided, That nothing contained in this section shall be construed to deny or defeat any right of civil action accruing to any person, whether by reason of this act or otherwise; and any district attorney who shall willfully fail to institute and prosecute the proceedings herein required, shall, for every such offense, forfeit and pay the sum of five hundred dollars to the person aggrieved thereby, to be recovered by an action of debt, with full costs, and shall, on conviction thereof, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and be fined not less than one thousand nor more than five thousand dollars: And provided further, That a judgment for the penalty in favor of the party aggrieved against any such district attorney, or a judgment upon an indictment against any such district attorney, shall be a bar to either prosecution respectively.

SEC. 4. That no citizen possessing all other qualifications which are, or may be, prescribed by law shall be disqualified for service as grand or petit juror in any court of the United States, or of any State, on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude; and any officer or other person charged with any duty in the selection or summoning of jurors who shall exclude or fail to summon any citizen for the cause aforesaid shall, on conviction thereof, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and be fined not more than five thousand dollars.

SEC. 5. That all cases arising under the provisions of this act in the courts of the United States shall be reviewable by the Supreme Court of the United States, without regard to the sum in controversy, under the same provisions and regulations as are now provided by law for the review of other causes in said court.

Approved, March 1, 1875.

TAXES ON LIQUORS AND TOBACCO, AND DUTIES ON SUGARS AND VARIOUS IMPORTED COMMODITIES INCREASED.

Chap. 127.—An act to further protect the sinking fund and provide for the exigencies of the Government.—Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That from and after the passage of this act there shall be levied and collected on all distilled spirits thereafter produced in the United States, a tax of ninety cents on each proof gallon, or wine-gallon when below proof, to be paid by the distiller, owner or person having possession thereof, before removal from the distillery bonded warehouse; and so much of section three thousand two hundred and fifty-one of the Revised Statutes of the United States as is inconsistent herewith is hereby repealed.

SEC. 2. That section three thousand three hundred and sixty-eight of the Revised Statutes be, and the same is hereby, amended by striking out the words "twenty cents a pound" (on tobacco and snuff), and inserting in lieu thereof, the words "twenty-four cents a pound;" and that section three thousand three hundred and ninety-four of the Revised Statutes be, and the same is hereby, amended by striking out the word "five" wherever it occurs therein, and inserting instead thereof the word "six," and by striking out the word "fifty" and inserting instead thereof the words "seventy-five" (these two amendments apply to the tax on cigars): Provided, That the increase of tax herein provided for shall not apply to tobacco on which the tax under existing law shall have been paid when this act takes effect. And provided further, That whenever it shall be shown to the satisfaction of the Secretary of the Treasury by testimony under oath that any person liable to pay the increased tax by this section imposed had prior to the tenth day of February, eighteen hundred and seventy-five, made a contract for the future delivery of such tobacco, cigars, and cigarettes at a fixed price, which contract was in writing prior to that date, such tobacco may be delivered to the contracting party entitled thereto under special permit from the Commissioner of Internal Revenue provided therefor, without previous payment of such additional tax; but the said additional tax shall be a lien thereon, and shall be paid by and collected from the purchaser under such contract before the sale or removal thereof by him, and when demanded by the collector of internal revenue for the district to which the same shall be removed for delivery to the purchaser; and any sale or removal by such purchaser, prior to the payment of such tax, shall subject him and such tobacco so sold or removed to all the penalties and processes of law provided in the case of manufacturers of tobacco so selling or removing tobacco to avoid the payment of tax.

SEC. 3. That on all molasses, concentrated molasses, tank-bottoms, syrup of sugar cane juice, melada, and on sugars according to the Dutch standard in color, imported from foreign countries, there shall be levied, collected and paid, in addition to the duties now imposed in schedule G, section two thousand five hundred and four of the Revised Statutes, an amount equal to twenty-five per centum of said duties as levied upon the several articles and grades therein designated; Provided, That concentrated melada, or concrete, shall hereafter be classed as sugar dutiable according to color by the Dutch standard; and melada shall be known and defined as an article made in the process of sugar-making, being the cane-juice boiled down to the sugar point, and containing all the sugar and molasses resulting from the boiling process and without any process of purging or clarification, and any and all products of the sugar-cane imported in bags, mats, baskets or other than tight packages shall be considered sugar and dutiable as such. And provided further, That of the drawback on refined sugars exported allowed by section three thousand and nineteen of the Revised Statutes of the United States, only one per centum of the amount so allowed shall be retained by the United States.

SEC. 4 That so much of section two thousand five hundred and three of the Revised Statutes as provides that only ninety per centum of the several duties and rates of duty imposed on certain articles therein enumerated by section two thousand five hundred and four shall be levied, collected, and paid be, and the same is hereby, repealed; and the several duties and rates of duty prescribed in said section two thousand five hundred and four shall be and remain as by that section levied, without abatement of ten per centum as provided in section two thousand five hundred and three.

SEC. 5 That the increase of duties provided by this act shall not apply to any goods, wares, or merchandise actually on shipboard and bound to the United States, on or before the tenth day of February, eighteen hundred and seventy-five, nor on any such goods, wares, or merchandise on deposit in warehouses or public stores at the date of the passage of this act.

SEC. 6. That nothing contained in the act entitled "An act to amend existing customs and internal revenue laws, and for other purposes," approved February eighth, eighteen hundred and seventy-five, shall be construed to impose any duty on bolting-cloths theretofore admitted free of duty; nor to require the use of a stamp upon the receipt in the receipt-book of a savings bank or institution for savings having no capital stock, and doing no other business than receiving deposits to be loaned or invested for the sole benefit of the parties making such deposits without profit or compensation to the association or company, when money is paid to a depositor on his passbook.

Approved, March 3, 1875.

Chap. 139.—Enables the people of Colorado to form a Constitution and State Government, and provides for the admission of the State of Colorado into the Union as soon as its Constitution is formed and adopted by vote of the people.

Currency Contraction.

The laws in force affecting the paper currency of the country have produced a contraction of the circulating medium during the 17 months ended Nov. 30, beyond the expectation of the general public, as may be demonstrated by the light cast upon the subject by the recent report of Controller Knox on the National banks, viz.:

I. The legal-tender money, issued directly by the Government, was,

On 1st of July, 1874	$382,000,000
On 1st of December, 1875	372,471,772
Decrease	$9,528,128

The above decrease is to compensate for the issue since Jan. 14, 1875, of $11,010,360 additional circulation to the National banks.

II. The fractional currency outstanding was,

On 1st of July, 1874	$45,881,296
On 1st of December, 1875	42,356,105
Decrease	$3,525,191

III. The National bank circulation outstanding was,

On June 20, 1874	$349,894,182
On November 1, 1875	345,586,902
Decrease	$4,307,280

IV. Under the Act of June 20, 1874, for retiring bank circulation, the greenbacks remaining on deposit with the U. S. Treasurer, for the redemption and retirement of bank notes was,

On November 1, 1875	$20,238,642
On June 30, 1874	3,813,675
Increase	$16,424,967

V. The currency balance of the Treasury was,

On June 30, 1874	$14,576,011
On November 30, 1875	12,014,762
Decrease	$2,561,249

Finally, summarizing the above changes, we have the following as the net result:

Decrease of legal tenders	$9,528,128
Decrease of postal currency	3,525,191
Decrease of bank-notes	4,307,280
Increase of legal tenders on deposit for redemption of bank notes	16,424,967
Total contraction	$33,785,566
Treasury balance reduced	2,561,249
Net contraction	$31,224,317

As regards the banks, the contraction is $16,233,192 greater than the above total, that being the amount of permanent deposit with the U. S. Treasurer for the redemption and return of their notes.

Benjamin K. Phelps's maj. over Peter B. Olney, 26,593; William H. Wickham over Wales, 33,118; over Oswald Ottendorfer, 45,845; over both, 8,892.

An election was held in the thirty-third district (Cattaraugus and Chautauqua Counties) for representative to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the late Augustus F. Allen; but it was attended by so much informality that the State canvassers declined to declare the election of either Charles S. Cary or Nelson I. Norton, who were the leading candidates; so unless the House of Representatives shall determine which, if either, of the gentlemen was chosen, the district must for the present continue to be unrepresented in Congress.

A majority of all the votes thrown is required in this State for the election of a Governor by the popular vote, otherwise the election is made by the Legislature. Henry Lippitt was elected by the General Assembly, receiving 70 votes to 36 for R. Hazard, the Prohibition and Independent candidate.

Hazard over Lippitt, 356; over Cutler, 3558. Henry Howard's maj. in 1874, 10,746; in 1873, 5870. Total vote in 1875, 22,258; in 1874, 13,924; in 1873, 13,442.

There was no election of Lieut.-Governor by the people. Henry T. Sisson (Rep.), of Little Compton, was elected Lieut.-Governor by the General Assembly.

The aggregates in 1875 of candidates for the other State offices were as follows:

Three judges of the Supreme Court were elected, but the Democrats nominated but one candidate. George B. Lake, Daniel Gantt and Samuel Maxwell, the successful Republican candidates, were re-elected, having been first chosen by the people in 1872.

Silas Garber's maj. for Governor in 1874, 7,117 over all. Lorenzo Crounse's maj. for Congressman in 1874, 8,011; Grant's maj. in 1872, 10,517. Total vote for Governor in 1874, 36,019; for Congressman in 1874, 35,833; for President in 1872, 26,141.

In 1875, the counties of Frontier and Red Willow did not send in their returns in season to be included in the official canvass. We have included their vote in the above table.

In 1875, a new Constitution was adopted by a vote of 30,202 in favor of to 5,474 against.

"THE LEADING AMERICAN NEWSPAPER."

The Paper for Business Men, Farmers, Families, and all the People.

1. It publishes all the news.
2. It is candid and independent in all things.
3. Its moral tone is unexceptionable, nothing appearing in its pages unsuited for the most refined and cultured family circle.
4. It has the best and freshest correspondence, poems, stories; in short, the cream of the current literature of the day.
5. Its Agricultural Department is the fullest, most thorough, practical, and useful in any paper, giving its readers in each number as much or more than the highest priced monthlies.
6. Its Market Reports are the generally accepted standard for dealers and producers throughout the country.
7. Its aggregate circulation is larger than that of any other four cent morning paper in New York.
8. Its circulation, regarding character as well as number of subscribers, is better than that of any paper in the country.
9. It is growing more vigorously, and increasing in circulation more rapidly than any of its rivals.

MORNING AND EVENING STARS.

DEFINITION.—The planet Venus is called a Morning Star when she rises before the Sun, and an Evening Star when she sets after the Sun. The planets Mars, Jupiter, and Saturn may be considered Morning and Evening Stars when they rise shortly before the Sun, or set shortly after the Sun, in the same manner as Venus does. But they may also be considered as Evening Stars when they rise before twelve o'clock at night, and as morning Stars when they are visible before sunrise, until the day when they set on or before sunrise.

The following tables have been prepared according to the preceding definition:

Morning Stars.

Venus, until May 6. Mars, until June 6.

Mars is also visible before sunrise until about September 5; after which date he sets before sunrise earlier every day.

Jupiter, until April 13.

Jupiter is also visible before sunrise until about June 22; after which date he sets before sunrise earlier every day.

Saturn, from March 1 to June 16.

Saturn is also visible before sunrise until about the middle of September, when he sets before sunrise earlier every day.

Evening Stars.

Venus, after May 6.

Mars, after June 6, rising after that date before midnight.

Jupiter, after April 13, rising before midnight.

Saturn, until March 1, and also after June 16, at which date he begins to rise before midnight.

The position in the heavens of the four bright planets, Venus, Mars, Jupiter, and Saturn, are best determined by an observer without instruments by means of their times of rising, passing the meridian, and setting.

Explanation of the above Table.

In the table above it is to be understood that the word "near" and the character ☌ (conjunction) are synonymous, and mean that the two bodies are nearest each other at the time expressed, and that they are then on a line running from the North Pole through both bodies, and have the same right ascension. GR. ELON. means greatest elongation, or greatest apparent angular distance from the SUN. STATIONARY means that the planet is then without apparent motion east or west with respect to the Stars, and is about to move in a direction contrary to that it last had. The character ☍ indicates that the planet is opposite the Sun, or 180 deg., or a half circle, east of it, and rises when the Sun sets, and sets when he rises. When a planet is a quarter of a circle, or 90 deg. from the Sun, east or west, it is known by □.

PLANETARY CHARACTERS. — ☿ Mercury, ♀ Venus, ♂ Mars, ♃ Jupiter, ♄ Saturn, ♅ Uranus, ♆ Neptune, ● Moon.

The above table enables us to find the planets throughout the year.

CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES.

WE, the People of the United States, in order to form a more perfect union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America.

ARTICLE I.

SECTION 1.

All legislative powers herein granted shall be vested in a Congress of the United States, which shall consistof a Senate and House of Representatives.

SECTION 2.

The House of Representatives shall be composed of members chosen every second year by the people of the several States; and the electors in each State shall have the qualifications requisite for electors of the most numerous branch of the State Legislature.

No person shall be a representative who shall not have attained to the age of twenty-five years, and been seven years a citizen of the United States, and who shall not, when elected, be an inhabitant of that State in which he shall be chosen.

Representatives and direct taxes shall be apportioned among the several States which may be included within this Union, according to their respective numbers, which shall be determined by adding to the whole number of free persons, including those bound to service for a term of years, and excluding Indians not taxed, three-fifths of all other persons. The actual enumeration shall be made within three years after the first meeting of the Congress of the United States, and within every subsequent term of ten years, in such manner as they shall by law direct. The number of representatives shall not exceed one for every thirty thousand, but each State shall have at least one representative; and until such enumeration shall be made, the State of New Hampshire shall be entitled to choose three; Massachusetts eight; Rhode Island and Providence Plantations one; Connecticut five; New York six; New Jersey four; Pennsylvania eight; Delaware one; Maryland six; Virginia ten; North Carolina five; South Carolina five; and Georgia three.

When vacancies happen in the representation from any State, the executive authority thereof shall issue writs of election to fill such vacancies.

The House of Representatives shall choose their speaker and other officers, and shall have the sole power of impeachment.

SECTION 3.

The Senate of the United States shall be composed of two senators from each State, chosen by the legislature thereof, for six years; and each senator shall have one vote.

Immediately after they shall be assembled in consequence of the first election, they shall be divided as equally as may be into three classes. The seats of the senators of the first class shall be vacated at the expiration of the second year, of the second class at the expiration of the fourth year, and of the third class at the expiration of sixth year, so that one-third may be chosen every second year; and if vacancies happen by resignation or otherwise, during the recess of the legislature of any State, the executive thereof may make temporary appointments until the next meeting of the legislature, which shall then fill such vacancies.

No person shall be a senator who shall not have attained the age of thirty years, and been nine years a citizen of the United States, and who shall not, when elected, be an inhabitant of that State for which he shall be chosen.

The Vice-President of the United States shall be president of the Senate, but shall have no vote unless they be equally divided.

The Senate shall choose their other officers, and also a president pro tempore in the absence of the Vice-President, or when he shall exercise the office of President of the United States.

The Senate shall have the sole power to try all impeachments. When sitting for that purpose they shall be on oath or affirmation. When the President of the United States is tried, the Chief Justice shall preside; and no person shall be convicted without the concurrence of two-thirds of the members present.

Judgment in cases of impeachment shall not extend further than to removal from office, and disqualification to hold and enjoy any office of honor, trust or profit under the United States but the party convicted shall, nevertheless, be liable and subject to indictment, trial, judgment and punishment, according to law.

SECTION 4.

The times, places and manner of holding elections for senators and representatives shall be prescribed in each State by the legislature thereof; but the Congress may at any time by law make or alter such regulations, except as to the place of choosing senators.

The Congress shall assemble at least once in every year; and such meeting shall be on the first Monday in December, unless they shall by law appoint a different day.

SECTION 5.

Each house shall be the judge of the elections, returns and qualifications of its own members, and a majority of each shall constitute a quorum to do business; but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day, and may be authorized to compel the attendance of absent members, in such manner and under such penalties as each house may provide.

Each house may determine the rules of its proceedings, punish its members for disorderly behavior, and, with the concurrence of two-thirds, expel a member.

Each house shall keep a journal of its proceedings, and from time to time publish the same, excepting such parts as may in their judgment require secrecy; and the yeas and nays of the members of either house on the question shall, at the desire of one-fifth of those present, be entered on the journal.

Neither house, during the session of Congress, shall, without the consent of the other, adjourn for more than three days, nor to any other place than that in which the two houses shall be sitting

SECTION 6.

The senators and representatives shall receive a compensation for their services, to be ascertained by law, and paid out of the treasury of the United States. They shall, in all cases except treason, felony, and breach of the peace, be privileged from arrest during their attendance at the session of their respective houses, and in going to and returning from the same; and for any speech or debate in either house they shall not be questioned in any other place.

No senator or representative shall, during the time for which he was elected, be appointed to any civil office under the authority of the United States, which shall have been created, or the emoluments whereof shall have been increased during such time; and no person holding any office under the United States shall be a member of either house during his continuance in office.

SECTION 7.

All bills for raising revenue shall originate in the House of Representatives; but the Senate may propose or concur with amendments as on other bills.

Every bill which shall have passed the House of Representatives and the Senate shall, before it becomes a law, be presented to the President of the United States; if he approve, he shall sign it; but if not, he shall return it with his objections, to that house in which it shall have originated; who shall enter the objections at large on their journal, and proceed to reconsider it. If, after such reconsideration, two-thirds of that house shall agree to pass the bill, it shall be sent, together with the objections, to the other house by which it shall likewise be reconsidered; and if approved by two-thirds of that house, it shall become a law. But in all cases, the votes of both houses shall be determined by yeas and nays, and the names of the persons voting for and against the bill shall be entered on the journal of each house respectively. If any bill shall not be returned by the President within ten days (Sundays excepted) after it shall have been presented to him, the same shall be a law in like manner as if he had signed it, unless the Congress, by their adjournment, prevent its return, in which case it shall not be a law.

Every order, resolution, or vote to which the concurrence of the Senate and House of Representatives may be necessary (except on a question of adjournment), shall be presented to the President of the United States; and before the same shall take effect, shall be approved by him; or being disapproved by him, shall be repassed by two-thirds of the Senate and House of Representatives, according to the rules and limitations prescribed in the case of a bill.

SECTION 8.

The Congress shall have power:

To lay and collect taxes, duties, imposts, and excises; to pay the debts, and provide for the common defense and general welfare of the United States; but all duties, imposts, and excises shall be uniform throughout the United States.

To borrow money on the credit of the United States.

To regulate commerce with foreign nations, and among the several States, and with the Indian tribes.

To establish an uniform rule of naturalization, and uniform laws on the subject of bankruptcies throughout the United States.

To coin money, regulate the value thereof, and of foreign coin, and fix the standard of weights and measures.

To provide for the punishment of counterfeiting the securities and current coin of the United States.

To establish post-offices and post-roads.

To promote the progress of science and useful arts, by securing for limited times, to authors and inventors, the exclusive right to their respective writings and discoveries.

To constitute tribunals inferior to the Supreme Court; to define and punish piracies and felonies committed on the high seas, and offenses against the law of nations.

To declare war, grant letters of marque and reprisal, and make rules concerning captures on land and water.

To raise and support armies; but no appropriation of money to that use shall be for a longer term than two years.

To provide and maintain a navy.

To make rules for the government and regulation of the land and naval forces.

To provide for calling forth the militia to execute the laws of the Union, suppress insurrections, and repel invasions.

To provide for organizing, arming and disciplining the militia, and for governing such part of them as may be employed in the service of the United States; reserving to the States respectively the appointment of the officers and the authority of training the militia according to the discipline prescribed by Congress.

To exercise exclusive legislation in all cases whatsoever, over such district (not exceeding ten miles square) as may, by cession of particular States, and the acceptance of Congress, become the seat of the government of the United States; and to exercise like authority over all places purchased by the consent of the legislature of the State in which the same shall be, for the erection of forts, magazines, arsenals, dockyards, and other needful buildings; and

To make all laws which shall be necessary and proper for carrying into execution the foregoing powers, and all other powers vested by this constitution in the government of the United States, or in any department or officer thereof.

SECTION 9.

The migration or importation of such persons as any of the States now existing shall think proper to admit, shall not be prohibited by the Congress prior to the year one thousand eight hundred and eight; but a tax or duty may be imposed on such importation not exceeding ten dollars for each person.

The privilege of the writ of habeas corpus shall not be suspended, unless when, in cases of rebellion or invasion, the public safety may require it.

No bill of attainder or ex post facto law shall be passed.

No capitation or other direct tax shall be laid, unless in proportion to the census or enumeration hereinbefore directed to be taken.

No tax or duty shall be laid on articles exported from any State.

No preference shall be given by any regulation of commerce or revenue to the ports of one State over those of another; nor shall vessels bound to or from one State be obliged to enter, clear or pay duties in another.

No money shall be drawn from the treasury but in consequence of appropriations made by law; and a regular statement and account of the receipts and expenditures of all public money shall be published from time to time.

No title of nobility shall be granted by the United States; and no person holding any office of profit or trust under them shall, without the consent of the Congress, accept of any present, emolument, office, or title of any kind whatever, from any king, prince, or foreign state.

SECTION 10.

No State shall enter into any treaty, alliance, or confederation; grant letters of marque and reprisal; coin money; emit bills of credit; make anything but gold and silver coin a tender in payment of debts; pass any bill of attainder, ex post facto law, or law impairing the obligation of contracts; or grant any title of nobility.

No State shall, without the consent of the Congress, lay any imposts or duties on imports or exports, except what may be absolutely necessary for executing its inspection laws; and the net produce of all duties and imposts laid by any State on imports and exports, shall be for the use of the treasury of the United States; and all such laws shall be subject to the revision and control of the Congress. No State shall, without the consent of Congress, lay any duty of tonnage, keep troops or ships of war in time of peace, enter into any agreement or compact with another State, or with a foreign power, or engage in war, unless actually invaded, or in such imminent danger as will not admit of delay.

ARTICLE II.

SECTION 1.

The executive power shall be vested in a President of the United States of America. He shall hold his office during the term of four years; and together with the Vice-President chosen for the same term, be elected as follows:

Each State shall appoint, in such manner as the legislature thereof may direct, a number of electors equal to the whole number of senators and representatives to which the State may be entitled in the Congress; but no senator or representative, or person holding an office of trust or profit under the United States shall be appointed an elector.

The electors shall meet in their respective States and vote by ballot for two persons, of whom one at least shall not be an inhabitant of the same State with themselves. And they shall make a list of all the persons voted for, and of the number of votes for each; which list they shall sign and certify, and transmit sealed to the seat of the Government of the United States, directed to the president of the Senate. The president of the Senate shall, in the presence of the Senate and House of Representatives, open all the certificates, and the votes shall then be counted. The person having the greatest number of votes shall be the President, if such number be a majority of the whole number of the electors appointed; and if there be more than one who have such majority, and have an equal number of votes, then the House of Representatives shall immediately choose, by ballot, one of them for President; and if no person have a majority, then, from the five highest on the list, the said house shall, in like manner, choose the President. But in choosing the President, the vote shall be taken by States, the representation from each State having one vote; a quorum for this purpose shall consist of a member or members from two-thirds of the States, and a majority of all the States shall be necessary to a choice. In every case, after the choice of a President, the person having the greatest number of votes of the electors shall be the Vice-President. But if there should remain two or more who have equal votes, the Senate shall choose from them, by ballot, the Vice-President.*

The Congress may determine the time of choosing the electors, and the day on which they shall give their votes, which day shall be the same throughout the United States.

No person, except a natural born citizen, or a citizen of the United States at the time of the adoption of this constitution, shall be eligible to the office of President; neither shall any person be eligible to that office who shall not have attained to the age of thirty-five years, and been fourteen years a resident within the United States.

In case of the removal of the President from office, or of his death, resignation, or inability to discharge the powers and duties of the said office, the same shall devolve on the Vice-President; and the Congress may, by law, provide for the case of removal, death, resignation, or inability, both of the President and Vice-President, declaring what officer shall then act as President; and such officer shall act accordingly, until the disability be removed, or a President shall be elected.

The President shall, at stated times, receive for his services a compensation, which shall neither be increased or diminished during the period for which he shall have been elected; and he shall not receive within that period any other emolument from the United States, or any of them.

Before he enter on the execution of his office, he shall take the following oath or affirmation:

"I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will faithfully execute the office of President of the United States; and will, to the best of my ability, preserve, protect, and defend the Constitution of the United States."

SECTION 2.

The President shall be commander-in-chief of the army and navy of the United States, and of the militia of the several States, when called into the actual service of the United States; he may require the opinion, in writing, of the principal officer in each of the executive departments upon any subject relating to the duties of their respective offices; and he shall have power to grant reprieves and pardons for offenses against the United States, except in cases of impeachment.

He shall have power, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, to make treaties, provided two-thirds of the senators present concur; and he shall nominate, and, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, shall appoint ambassadors, other public ministers and consuls, judges of the Supreme Court, and all other officers of the United States whose appointments are not herein otherwise provided for, and which shall be established by law. But the Congress may, by law, vest the appointment of such inferior officers as they think proper, in the President alone, in the courts of law, or in the heads of departments.

The President shall have power to fill up all vacancies that may happen during the recess of the Senate, by granting commissions which shall expire at the end of their next session.

SECTION 3.

He shall, from time to time, give to the Congress information of the state of the Union, and recommend to their consideration such measures as he shall judge necessary and expedient. He may, on extraordinary occasions, convene both houses, or either of them; and in case of disagreement between them with respect to the time of adjournment, he may adjourn them to such time as he shall think proper. He shall receive ambassadors and other public ministers. He shall take care that the laws be faithfully executed; and shall commission all the officers of the United States.

SECTION 4.

The President, Vice-President, and all civil officers of the United States, shall be removed from office on impeachment for, and conviction of treason, bribery, or other high crimes and misdemeanors.

ARTICLE III.

SECTION 1.

The judicial power of the United States shall be vested in one Supreme Court, and in such inferior courts as the Congress may, from time to time, ordain and establish. The judges, both of the supreme and inferior courts, shall hold their offices during good behavior; and shall, at stated times, receive for their services a compensation which shall not be diminished during their continuance in office.

SECTION 2.

The judicial power shall extend to all cases in law and equity arising under this Constitution, the laws of the United States, and treaties made, or which shall be made, under their authority; to all cases affecting ambassadors, other public ministers, and consuls; to all cases of admiralty and maritime jurisdiction; to controversies to which the United States shall be a party; to controversies between two or more States; between a State and citizens of another State, between citizens of different States, between citizens of the same State claiming lands under grants of different States, and between a State, or the citizens thereof, and foreign States, citizens, or subjects.

In all cases affecting ambassadors, other public ministers and consuls, and those in which a State shall be a party, the Supreme Court shall have original jurisdiction. In all the other cases before mentioned, the Supreme Court shall have appellate jurisdiction, both as to law and fact, with such exceptions and under such regulations as the Congress shall make.

The trial of all crimes, except in cases of impeachment, shall be by jury, and such trial shall be held in the State where the said crimes shall have been committed; but when not committed within any State, the trial shall be at such place or places as the Congress may by law have directed.

SECTION 3.

Treason against the United States shall consist only in levying war against them or in adhering to their enemies, giving them aid and comfort. No person shall be convicted of treason unless on the testimony of two witnesses to the same overt act, or on confession in open court.

The Congress shall have power to declare the punishment of treason; but no attainder of treason shall work corruption of blood, or forfeiture, except during the life of the person attainted.

ARTICLE IV.

SECTION 1.

Full faith and credit shall be given in each State to the public acts, records, and judicial proceedings of every other State; and the Congress may, by general laws, prescribe the manner in which such acts, records, and proceedings shall be proved, and the effect thereof.

SECTION 2.

The citizens of each State shall be entitled to all privileges and immunities of citizens in the several States.

A person charged in any State with treason, felony, or other crime, who shall flee from justice, and be found in another State, shall, on demand of the executive authority of the State from which he fled, be delivered up, to be removed to the State having jurisdiction of the crime.

No person held to service or labor in one State under the laws thereof, escaping into another, shall in consequence of any law or regulation therein, be discharged from such service or labor; but shall be delivered up on claim of the party to whom such service or labor may be due.

SECTION 3.

New States may be admitted by the Congress into this Union; but no new State shall be formed or erected within the jurisdiction of any other State, nor any State be formed by the junction of two or more States, or part of States, without the consent of the legislatures of the States concerned, as well as of the Congress.

The Congress shall have power to dispose of, and make all needful rules and regulations respecting the territory or other property belonging to the United States; and nothing in this Constitution shall be so construed as to prejudice any claims of the United States, or of any particular State.

SECTION 4.

The United States shall guarantee to every State in this Union a republican form of government, and shall protect each of them against invasion; and, on application of the legislature or of the executive (when the legislature cannot be convened), against domestic violence.

ARTICLE V.

The Congress, whenever two-thirds of both houses shall deem it necessary, shall propose amendments to this Constitution; or, on the application of the legislatures of two-thirds of the several States, shall call a convention for proposing amendments, which, in either case, shall be valid to all intents and purposes as part of this Constitution, when ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several States, or by conventions in three-fourths thereof, as the one or the other mode of ratification may be proposed by the Congress; provided that no amendment which may be made prior to the year one thousand eight hundred and eight shall in any manner affect the first and fourth clauses in the ninth section of the first article; and that no State, without its consent, shall be deprived of its equal suffrage in the Senate.

ARTICLE VI.

All debts contracted and engagements entered into before the adoption of this Constitution shall be as valid against the United States under this Constitution, as under the confederation.

This Constitution, and the laws of the United States which shall be made in pursuance thereof, and all treaties made, or which shall be made, under the authority of the United States, shall be the supreme law of the land; and the judges in every State shall be bound thereby, anything in the constitution or laws of any State to the contrary notwithstanding.

The senators and representatives before mentioned, and the members of the several State legislatures, and all executive and judicial officers, both of the United States and of the several States, shall be bound by oath or affirmation to support this Constitution; but no religious test shall ever be required as a qualification to any office or public trust under the United States.

ARTICLE VII.

The ratification of the conventions of nine States shall be sufficient for the establishment of this Constitution between the States so ratifying the same.

AMENDMENTS.

ARTICLE I.

Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the government for a redress of grievances.

ARTICLE II.

A well regulated militia being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed.

ARTICLE III.

No soldier shall, in time of peace, be quartered in any house without the consent of the owner; nor in time of war, but in a manner to be prescribed by law.

ARTICLE IV.

The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures, shall not be violated; and no warrants shall issue but upon probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched, and the persons or things to be seized.

ARTICLE V.

No person shall be held to answer for a capital or otherwise infamous crime, unless on a presentment or indictment of a grand jury, except in cases arising in the land or naval forces, or in the militia, when in actual service in time of war or public danger; nor shall any person be subject for the same offense to be twice put in jeopardy of life or limb; nor shall he be compelled, in any criminal case, to be a witness against himself; nor be deprived of life, liberty, or property without due process of law; nor shall private property be taken for public use, without just compensation.

ARTICLE VI.

In all criminal prosecutions, the accused shall enjoy the right to a speedy and public trial, by an impartial jury of the State and district wherein the crime shall have been committed, which district shall have been previously ascertained by law; and to be informed of the nature and cause of the accusation; to be confronted with the witnesses against him; to have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor, and to have the assistance of counsel for his defense.

ARTICLE VII.

In suits at common law, where the value in controversy shall exceed twenty dollars, the right of trial by jury shall be preserved; and no fact tried by a jury shall be otherwise reexamined in any court of the United States, than according to the rules of the common law.

ARTICLE VIII.

Excessive bail shall not be required, nor excessive fines imposed, nor cruel and unusual punishments inflicted.

ARTICLE IX.

The enumeration in the Constitution of certain rights, shall not be construed to deny or disparage others retained by the people.

ARTICLE X.

The powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States respectively, or to the people.

ARTICLE XI.

The judicial power of the United States shall not be construed to extend to any suit in law or equity, commenced or prosecuted against one of the United States by citizens of another State, or by citizens or subjects of any foreign State.

ARTICLE XII.

The electors shall meet in their respective States, and vote by ballot for President and Vice-President, one of whom, at least, shall not be an inhabitant of the same State with themselves. They shall name in their ballots the person voted for as President, and, in distinct ballots, the person voted for as Vice-President; and they shall make distinct lists of all persons voted for as President, and of all persons voted for as Vice-President, and of the number of votes for each; which lists they shall sign and certify, and transmit sealed to the seat of government of the United States, directed to the president of the Senate. The president of the Senate shall, in the presence of the Senate and House of Representatives, open all the certificates, and the votes shall then be counted. The person having the greatest number of votes for President shall be the President, if such a number be a majority of the whole number of electors appointed; and if no person have such majority, then from the persons having the highest numbers, not exceeding three, on the list of those voted for as President, the House of Representatives shall choose immediately, by ballot, the President. But, in choosing the Pres-lent, the votes shall be taken by States, the representation from each State having one vote; quorum for this purpose shall consist of a member or members from two-thirds of the States, and a majority of all the States shall be necessary to a choice. And if the House of Representatives shall not choose a President whenever the right of choice shall devolve upon them, before the fourth day of March next following, then the Vice-President shall act as President, as in the case of the death or other constitutional disability of the President.

The person having the greatest number of votes as Vice-President shall be the Vice-President, if such number be a majority of the whole number of electors appointed, and if no person have a majority, then from the two highest numbers on the list, the Senate shall choose the Vice-President. A quorum for the purpose shall consist of two-thirds of the whole number of senators, and a majority of the whole number shall be necessary to a choice.

But no person constitutionally ineligible to the office of President, shall be eligible to that of Vice-President of the United States.

ARTICLE XIII.

Neither slavery nor involuntary servitude, except as a punishment for crime, whereof the party shall have been duly convicted, shall exist within the United States, or any place subject to their jurisdiction.

Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

ARTICLE XIV.

All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States, nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty or property, without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

Representatives shall be apportioned among the several States according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State, excluding Indians not taxed. But when the right to vote at any election for the choice of electors for President and Vice-President of the United States, representatives in Congress, the executive and judicial officers of a State, or the members of the legislature thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such State, being twenty-one years of age, and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridged, except for participation in rebellion or other crime, the basis of the representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens twenty-one years of age in such State.

No person shall be a senator or representative in Congress, or elector of President and Vice-President, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States, or under any State, who having previously taken an oath as a member of Congress, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; but Congress may, by a vote of two-thirds of each house, remove such disability.

The validity of the public debt of the United States, authorized by law, including debts incurred for payment of pensions and bounties for services in suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall not be questioned. But neither the United States, nor any State shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave; but all such debts, obligations, and claims shall be held illegal and void.

The Congress shall have power to enforce, by appropriate legislation, the provisions of this article.

ARTICLE XV.

The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States, or by any State, on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude.

The Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

Of the AMENDMENTS, the first ten were proposed by the First Congress, in 1789. The eleventh, by the Third Cong. March 4, 1794. The twelfth, by the Eighth Congress, 1803–'5. The thirteenth, by the Thirty-eighth Congress, February 1, 1865, and declared ratified December 18, 1865. The fourteenth, by the Thirty-ninth Congress, June 13, 1866, and declared ratified July 28, 1868. The fifteenth, by the Fortieth Congress, February 26, 1869, and declared ratified March 30, 1870.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS, NATIONAL AND STATE.

On Presidential Term.

During the last session of the FORTY-THIRD Congress, the following proposed new Article of Amendment (Art. 16), reported from the Committee on the Judiciary, in the House:

"From and after the next election for a President of the United States, the President shall hold his office during the term of six years, and, together with the Vice-President chosen for the same term, be elected in the manner as now provided or may hereafter be provided; but neither the President nor the Vice-President, when the office of President has devolved upon him, shall be eligible for re-election as President."

In the FORTY-FOURTH (present) Congress, the following proposed new Article was reported from the Committee on the Judiciary, in the House:

"No person who has held, or may hereafter hold, the office of President shall ever again be eligible to said office."

The minority reported this substitute:

"From and after the fourth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, the term of office of President and Vice-President of the United States shall be six years; and any person having been elected to and held the office of President, or who, for two years, has held such office, shall be ineligible to a re-election."

Public School Amendment.

The following was reported from the Judiciary Committee, in the House:

"ARTICLE 16. No State shall make any law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; and no money raised by taxation in any State for the support of public schools, or derived from any public fund therefor, nor any public lands devoted thereto, shall ever be under the control of any religious sect or denomination; nor shall any money so raised, or lands so devoted, be divided between religious sects or denominations. This article shall not vest, enlarge or diminish legislative power in Congress."—And agreed to—yeas 180, nays 7, as follows:

used for the support of any school, educational or other institution under the control of any religious or anti-religious sect, organization, or denomination, or wherein the particular creed or tenets of any religious or anti-religious sect, organization, or denomination shall be taught. And no such particular creed or tenets shall be read or taught in any school or institution supported in whole or in part by such revenue or loan of credit; and no such appropriation or loan of credit shall be made to any religious or anti-religious sect, organization or denomination, or to promote its interests or tenets. This article shall not be construed to prohibit the reading of the Bible in any school or institution; and it shall not have the effect to impair rights of property already vested.

"SEC. 2. Congress shall have power, by appropriate legislation, to provide for the prevention and punishment of violations of this article."

Which was adopted—yeas 27, nays 15—as follow:

YEAS—Messrs. Allison, Anthony, Booth, Boutwell, Burnside, Cameron of Wisconsin, Christiancy, Conkling, Cragin, Edmunds, Ferry of Michigan, Frelinghuysen, Harvey, Hitchcock, Howe, Ingalls, Logan, McMillan, Mitchell, Morrill of Vermont, Oglesby, Paddock, Patterson, Sargent, Spencer, Wadleigh, West—27.

So the Amendment fell.

Constitutional Amendments in the States.

In CALIFORNIA and NEW HAMPSHIRE, Conventions have been called.

In CONNECTICUT, six Amendments were ratified in October last. One relates to new towns. The second applies sect. 2, art. 4, and amendments thereto, to all elections after November, 1876. The third fixes the term of Common Pleas judges and district judges at four years; city and police courts, two. The fourth provides for election of judges of probate. The fifth limits compensation of members of the General Assembly to $300 a year, and one mileage each way for each session. The sixth erases the word "white" from Art. 8 of the Amendments.

In MAINE, several Constitutional Amendments were ratified by the people, in September last. The principal are:

"The Legislature shall, from time to time, provide, as far as practicable, by general laws, for all matters appertaining to special or private legislation."

"Corporations shall be formed under general laws, and shall not be created by special acts of the Legislature, except for municipal purposes and in cases where the object of the corporation cannot otherwise be attained; and, however formed, they shall forever be subject to the general laws of the State."

"All taxes upon real and personal estate assessed by the authority of this State, shall be apportioned and assessed equally, according to the just value thereof."

"The Legislature shall never, in any manner, suspend or surrender the power of taxation."

"The Legislature may enact laws excluding from the right of suffrage, for a term not exceeding ten years, all persons convicted of bribery at any election, or of voting at any election under the influence of a bribe."

In 1875, an Amendment was adopted in MINNESOTA, allowing women of twenty-one years of age and upward, to vote at any election for school officers, or upon any measure relating to schools, and to be eligible to hold any office pertaining solely to the management of schools.

In ALABAMA, ARKANSAS, MISSOURI, NEBRASKA and TEXAS, new Constitutions have recently been adopted.

In KANSAS, two amendments were adopted placing guards upon the drawing of money from the treasury, and modifying the terms of county officers.

In LOUISIANA, Amendments were adopted in November, 1876, limiting the expenses of General Assembly to $175,000 per session; abrogating parish courts, and enlarging the jurisdiction of the district courts; fixing the Governor's salary at $6,000 a year; and abolishing fees or perquisites of office in the offices of the Treasurer, Auditor, Attorney General, and District Attorneys.

In NEW YORK, two Amendments were ratified in November last, as follow:

THE CANAL AMENDMENT.

"Resolved, That section three of article five of the Constitution be amended so as to read as follows:

"SEC. 3. A Superintendent of Public Works shall be appointed by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and hold his office until the end of the term of the Governor by whom he was nominated, and until his successor is appointed and qualified. He shall receive a compensation, to be fixed by law. He shall be required by law to give security for the faithful execution of his office before entering upon the duties thereof. He shall be charged with the execution of all laws relating to the repair and navigation of the canals; and also of those relating to the construction and improvement of the canals, except so far as the execution of the laws relating to such construction or improvement shall be confided to the State Engineer and Surveyor; subject to the control of the Legislature, he shall make the rules and regulations for the navigation or use of the canals. He may be suspended or removed from office by the Governor whenever, in his judgment, the public interest shall so require; but, in case of the removal of such Superintendent of Public Works from office, the Governor shall file with the Secretary of State a statement of the cause of such removal, and shall report such removal and the cause thereof to the Legislature at its next session. The Superintendent of Public Works shall appoint not more than three assistant superintendents, whose duties shall be prescribed by him, subject to modification by the Legislature, and who shall receive for their services a compensation to be fixed by law. They shall hold their office for three years, subject to suspension or removal by the Superintendent of Public Works, whenever, in his judgment, the public interest shall so require. Any vacancy in the office of any such assistant superintendent shall be filled for the remainder of the term for which he was appointed by the Superintendent of Public Works; but in case of the suspension or removal of any such assistant superintendent by him, he shall at once report to the Governor in writing the cause of such removal. All other persons employed in the care and management of the canals, except collectors of tolls, and those in the department of the State Engineer and Surveyor, shall be appointed by the Superintendent of Public Works, and be subject to suspension or removal by him. The office of Canal Commissioner is abolished from and after the appointment and qualification of the Superintendent of Public Works, until which time the Canal Commissioners shall continue to discharge their duties as now provided by law. The Superintendent of Public Works shall perform all the duties of the Canal Commissioners and Board of Canal Commissioners, as now declared by law, until otherwise provided by the Legislature. The Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, shall have power to fill vacancies in the office of Superintendent of Public Works; if the Senate be not in session, he may grant commissions which shall expire at the end of the next succeeding session of the Senate."

THE STATE PRISON AMENDMENT.

"Resolved, That section four of article five of the Constitution be amended so as to read as follows:

"SEC. 4. A Superintendent of State Prisons shall be appointed by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and hold his office for five years, unless sooner removed; he shall give security in such amount and with such sureties as shall be required by law for the faithful discharge of his duties; he shall have the superintendence, management, and control of State prisons, subject to such laws as now exist or may hereafter be enacted; he shall appoint the agents, wardens, physicians, and chaplains of the prisons. The agent and warden of each prison shall appoint all other officers of such prisons, except the clerk, subject to the approval of the same by the Superintendent. The Controller shall appoint the clerks of the prisons. The Superintendent shall have all the powers and perform all the duties not inconsistent herewith, which have heretofore been had and performed by the Inspectors of State Prisons; and from and after the time when such Superintendent of State Prisons shall have been appointed and qualified, the office of Inspector of State Prisons shall be and hereby is abolished. The Governor may remove the Superintendent for cause at any time, giving to him a copy of the charges against him, and an opportunity to be heard in his defense."

In NORTH CAROLINA, Amendments were adopted in November, to take effect January 1, 1877 providing for biennial sessions and elections, and limiting compensation of members of General Assembly to sixty days; modifying the judicial system; establishing separate public schools for white and colored children, and prohibiting marriage between a white person and a negro, or a white person and a person of negro descent to the third generation inclusive.

In RHODE ISLAND, all the proposed Amendments were rejected in November. One gave foreign-born soldiers and sailors, citizens of U. S., honorably discharged from service during the "late war," the same right to vote in the election of all civil officers, and on all questions in all legally organized town, district or ward meetings, on the same conditions as native-born citizens. Another, abolishing the registry tax, gave every male citizen, 21 years, with two years' residence in the State and six months' in the district, a right to vote for all civil officers and in town meetings, except in election of city council in any city, or on any proposition to impose a tax, or for the expenditure of money in any town or city, unless he has paid a tax on his property valued at least at $134. Another looked to the adoption of a general corporation law.

In VIRGINIA, all the proposed Amendments were adopted in November. One requires that all persons, before voting, shall have paid a State capitation tax, disfranchises all persons convicted of bribery at any election, embezzlement of public funds, treason, felony, or petit larceny. The registration provision of old Constitution is struck out. Another authorizes the Legislature, by two-thirds vote, to enfranchise persons who have been disfranchised by dueling.

THE ELECTORAL VOTE.

The only provisions of the Constitution on the election of a President are contained in sects. 2, 3, 4, and 5 of Article II, and in the Twelfth Amendment, which alters and supplies section 3 of Art. II.

Laws were passed on the subject, 1st March, 1792; 26th March, 1804 (this after the adoption of the Twelfth Amendment), and 23d January, 1845 (this after the experience in Wisconsin, in December, 1844). These provisions are reiterated in U. S. Statutes, Title II, chap. 1, p. 21. Those relating to the Electoral College are:

Each State may by law provide for the filling of any vacancies which may occur in its college of electors, when such college meets to give its electoral vote. Whenever any State has held an election for the purpose of choosing electors, and has failed to make a choice on the day prescribed by law, the electors may be appointed on a subsequent day, in such a manner as the legislature of such State may direct. The electors for each State shall meet and give their votes upon the first Wednesday in December, in the year in which they are appointed, at such place, in each State, as the legislature of such State shall direct.

It shall be the duty of the executive of each State to cause three lists of the names of the electors of such State to be made and certified, and to be delivered to the electors, on or before the day on which they are required, by the preceding section, to meet. The electors shall vote for President and Vice-President respectively, in the manner directed by the Constitution. The electors shall make and sign three certificates of all the votes given by them, each of which certificates shall contain two distinct lists, one of the votes for President, and the other of the votes for Vice-President; and shall annex to each of the certificates one of the lists of the electors, which shall have been furnished to them by direction of the executive of the State. The electors shall seal up the certificates so made by them, and certify upon each that the lists of all the votes of such State given for President, and of all the votes given for Vice-President, are contained therein.

Other sections prescribe how each of these certificates is to be disposed of, one by messenger, and one by mail to the president of the Senate at the seat of Government, the other to the U. S. district judge of that district. This section follows:

Congress shall be in session on the second Wednesday in February succeeding every meeting of the electors, and the certificates, or so many of them as have been received, shall then be opened, the votes counted, and the persons to fill the offices of President and Vice-President ascertained and declared, agreeable to the Constitution.

The other sections of the law relate to details of no interest at present.

PARTY PLATFORMS IN 1876.

Republican Platform.

[Adopted by the Republican National Convention at Cincinnati, June 15.]

When, in the economy of Providence, this land was to be purged of human slavery, and when the strength of government of the people, by the people, and for the people, was to be demonstrated, the Republican party came into power. Its deeds have passed into history, and we look back to them with pride. Incited by their memories to high aims for the good of our country and mankind, and looking to the future with unfaltering courage, hope and purpose, we, the representatives of the party in National Convention assembled, make the following declarations of principles:

1. The United States of America is a Nation, not a league. By the combined workings of the National and State Governments, under their respective constitutions, the rights of every citizen are secured, at home and abroad, and the common welfare promoted.

2. The Republican party has preserved these Governments to the hundredth anniversary of the Nation's birth, and they are now embodiments of the great truths spoken at its cradle—"that all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights, among which are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness; that for the attainment of these ends governments have been instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed." Until these truths are cheerfully obeyed, or, if need be, vigorously enforced, the work of the Republican party is unfinished.

3. The permanent pacification of the Southern section of the Union, and the complete protection of all its citizens in the free enjoyment of all their rights, is a duty to which the Republican party stands sacredly pledged. The power to provide for the enforcement of the principles embodied in the recent constitutional amendments, is vested by those amendments in the Congress of the United States, and we declare it to be the solemn obligation of the legislative and executive departments of the Government to put into immediate and vigorous exercise all their constitutional powers for removing any just causes of discontent on the part of any class, and for securing to every American citizen complete liberty and exact equality in the exercise of all civil, political and public rights. To this end we imperatively demand a Congress and a Chief Executive whose courage and fidelity to these duties shall not falter until these results are placed beyond dispute or recall.

4. In the first act of Congress signed by President Grant, the National Government assumed to remove any doubts of its purpose to discharge all just obligations to the public creditors, and "solemnly pledged its faith to make provision at the earliest practicable period for the redemption of the United States notes in coin." Commercial prosperity, public morals and national credit demand that this promise be fulfilled by a continuous and steady progress to specie payment.

5. Under the Constitution, the President and heads of departments are to make nominations for office; the Senate is to advise and consent to appointments, and the House of Representatives is to accuse and prosecute faithless officers. The best interest of the public service demands that these distinctions be respected; that Senators and Representatives who may be judges and accusers should not dictate appointments to office. The invariable rule in appointments should have reference to the honesty, fidelity and capacity of the appointees, giving to the party in power those places where harmony and vigor of administration require its policy to be represented, but permitting all others to be filled by persons selected with sole reference to the efficiency of the public service, and the right of all citizens to share in the honor of rendering faithful service to the country.

6. We rejoice in the quickened conscience of the people concerning political affairs, and will hold all public officers to a rigid responsibility, and engage that the prosecution and punishment of all who betray official trusts shall be swift, thorough and unsparing.

7. The public school system of the several States is the bulwark of the American Republic, and with a view to its security and permanence we recommend an amendment to the Constitution of the United States forbidding the application of any public funds or property for the benefit of any schools or institutions under sectarian control.

8. The revenue necessary for current expenditures and the obligations of the public debt must be largely derived from duties upon importations, which, so far as possible, should be adjusted to promote the interests of American labor and advance the prosperity of the whole country.

9. We reaffirm our opposition to further grants of the public lands to corporations and monopolies, and demand that the National domain be devoted to free homes for the people.

10. It is the imperative duty of the Government so to modify existing treaties with European Governments, that the same protection shall be afforded to the adopted American citizen that is given to the native born; and that all necessary laws should be passed to protect emigrants in the absence of power in the States for that purpose.

11. It is the immediate duty of Congress to fully investigate the effect of the immigration and importation of Mongolians upon the moral and material interests of the country.

12. The Republican party recognizes with approval the substantial advances recently made towards the establishment of equal rights for women by the many important amendments effected by Republican Legislatures in the laws which concern the personal and property relations of wives, mothers and widows, and by the appointment and election of women to the superintendence of education, charities and other public trusts. The honest demands of this class of citizens for additional rights, privileges and immunities should be treated with respectful consideration.

13. The Constitution confers upon Congress sovereign power over the Territories of the United States for their government, and in the exercise of this power it is the right and duty of Congress to prohibit and extirpate, in the Territories, that relic of barbarism—polygamy; and we demand such legislation as shall secure this end and the supremacy of American institutions in all the Territories.

14. The pledges which the Nation has given to her soldiers and sailors must be fulfilled, and a grateful people will always hold those who imperiled their lives for the country's preservation, in the kindest remembrance.

15. We sincerely deprecate all sectional feeling and tendencies. We therefore note with deep solicitude that the Democratic party counts, as its chief hope of success, upon the electoral vote of a united South, secured through the efforts of those who were recently arrayed against the Nation; and we invoke the earnest attention of the country to the grave truth that a success thus achieved would reopen sectional strife and imperil National honor and human rights.

16. We charge the Democratic party with being the same in character and spirit as when it sympathized with treason; with making its control of the House of Representatives the triumph and opportunity of the Nation's recent foes; with reasserting and applauding in the National Capitol the sentiments of unrepentant rebellion; with sending Union soldiers to the rear, and promoting Confederate soldiers to the front; with deliberately proposing to repudiate the plighted faith of the Government; with being equally false and imbecile upon the overshadowing financial questions; with thwarting the ends of justice by its partisan mismanagements and obstruction of investigation; with proving itself, through the period of its ascendency in the Lower House of Congress, utterly incompetent to administer the Government; and we warn the country against trusting a party thus alike unworthy, recreant and incapable.

17. The National Administration merits commendation for its honorable work in the management of domestic and foreign affairs, and President Grant deserves the continued hearty gratitude of the American people for his patriotism and his eminent services, in war and in peace.

Upon the reading of the resolutions,

EDWARD L. PIERCE, of Massachusetts, moved to strike out the eleventh resolution; which, after debate, was disagreed to—yeas 215; nays 552.

EDMUND J. DAVIS, of Texas, moved to strike out the fourth resolution and substitute for it the following:

Resolved, That it is the duty of Congress to provide for carrying out the act known as the Resumption Act of Congress, to the end that the resumption of specie payments may not be longer delayed.

Which, after a brief debate, was disagreed to on a viva voce vote.

The candidates were: RUTHERFORD B. HAYES, of Ohio, for President; WILLIAM A. WHEELER, of New York, for Vice-President.

Democratic Platform.

[Adopted by the Democratic National Convention at St. Louis, June 28.]

We, the delegates of the Democratic party of the United States, in National Convention assembled, do hereby declare the administration the Federal Government to be in urgent need immediate reform; do hereby enjoin upon t nominees of this Convention, and of the Dem cratic party in each State, a zealous effort a co-operation to this end; and do hereby appe to our fellow citizens of every former politi connection to undertake with us this first a most pressing patriotic duty.

For the Democracy of the whole country, w do here reaffirm our faith in the permanence the Federal Union, our devotion to the Consti tion of the United States, with its amendment universally accepted as a final settlement of th controversies that engendered civil war, and d here record our steadfast confidence in the pe petuity of republican self-government.

In absolute acquiescence in the will of th majority—the vital principle of republics; in th supremacy of the civil over the military author ity; in the total separation of Church and Stat for the sake alike of civil and religious freedom in the equality of all citizens before just laws o their own enactment; in the liberty of individua conduct, unvexed by sumptuary laws; in th faithful education of the rising generation, tha they may preserve, enjoy, and transmit these best conditions of human happiness and hope, we behold the noblest products of a hundred years of changeful history; but while upholding the bond of our union and great charter of these our rights, it behooves a free people to practice also that eternal vigilance which is the price of liberty.

Reform is necessary to rebuild and establish in the hearts of the whole people, the Union, eleven years ago happily rescued from the danger of a secession of States; but now to be saved from a corrupt centralism, which, after inflicting upon ten States the rapacity of carpet-bag tyrannies, has honeycombed the offices of the Federal Government itself with incapacity, waste, and fraud, infected States and municipalities with the contagion of misrule, and locked fast the prosperity of an industrious people in the paralysis of "hard times."

Reform is necessary to establish a sound currency, restore the public credit, and maintain the national honor.

We denounce the failure, for all these eleven years of peace, to make good the promise of the legal tender notes, which are a changing standard of value in the hands of the people, and the non-payment of which is a disregard of the plighted faith of the nation.

We denounce the improvidence which, in eleven years of peace, has taken from the people in Federal taxes thirteen times the whole amount of the legal tender notes, and squandered four times their sum in useless expense, without accumulating any reserve for their redemption.

We denounce the financial imbecility and immorality of that party, which, during eleven years of peace, has made no advance toward resumption, no preparation for resumption, but instead has obstructed resumption, by wasting our resources and exhausting all our surplus income; and, while annually professing to intend a speedy return to specie payments, has annually enacted fresh hindrances thereto. As such a hindrance we denounce the resumption clause of the act of 1875 and we here demand its repeal.

We demand a judicious system of preparation by public economies, by official retrenchments, and by wise finance, which shall enable the nation soon to assure the whole world of its perfect ability, and its perfect readiness to meet any of its promises at the call of the creditor entitled to payment.

We believe such a system, well devised, and, above all, intrusted to competent hands for execution, creating at no time an artificial scarcity of currency, and at no time alarming the public mind into a withdrawal of that vaster machinery of credit by which ninety-five per cent. of all business transactions are performed—a system open, public, and inspiring general confidence, would from the day of its adoption bring healing on its wings to all our harassed industries, set in motion the wheels of commerce, manufactures, and the mechanic arts, restore employment to labor, and renew in all its natural sources the prosperity of the people.

Reform is necessary in the sum and mode of Federal taxation, to the end that capital may be set free from distrust, and labor lightly burdened.

We denounce the present Tariff, levied upon nearly 4,000 articles, as a masterpiece of injustice, inequality and false pretense. It yields a dwindling, not a yearly rising revenue. It has impoverished many industries to subsidize a few. It prohibits imports that might purchase the products of American labor. It has degraded American commerce from the first to an inferior rank on the high seas. It has cut down the sales of American manufactures at home and abroad, and depleted the returns of American agriculture—an industry followed by half our people. It costs the people five times more than it produces to the Treasury, obstructs the processes of production, and wastes the fruits of labor. It promotes fraud, fosters smuggling, enriches dishonest officials, and bankrupts honest merchants. We demand that all Custom House taxation shall be only for revenue.

Reform is necessary in the scale of public expenses—Federal, State, and Municipal. Our Federal taxation has swollen from sixty millions, gold, in 1860, to four hundred and fifty millions, currency, in 1870; our aggregate taxation from one hundred and fifty-four millions, gold, in 1860, to seven hundred and thirty millions, currency, in 1870; or, in one decade, from less than five dollars per head to more than eighteen dollars per head. Since the peace, the people have paid to their tax gatherers more than thrice the sum of the national debt, and more than twice that sum for the Federal Government alone. We demand a rigorous frugality in every department, and from every officer of the Government.

Reform is necessary to put a stop to the profligate waste of public lands, and their diversion from actual settlers by the party in power, which has squandered 200,000,000 of acres upon railroads alone, and out of more than thrice that aggregate has disposed of less than a sixth directly to tillers of the soil.

Reform is necessary to correct the omissions of a Republican Congress, and the errors of our our fellow citizens of foreign birth and kindred race, recrossing the Atlantic, of the shield of American citizenship, and have exposed our brethren of the Pacific coast to the incursions of a race not sprung from the same great parent stock, and in fact now by law denied citizenship through naturalization, as being neither accustomed to the traditions of a progressive civilization nor exercised in liberty under equal laws. We denounce the policy which thus discards the liberty-loving German and tolerates a revival of the coolie trade in Mongolian women imported for immoral purposes, and Mongolian men held to perform servile labor contracts, and demand such modification of the treaty with the Chinese Empire, or such legislation within constitutional limitations, as shall prevent further importation or immigration of the Mongolian race.

Reform is necessary, and can never be effected but by making it the controlling issue of the elections, and lifting it above the two false issues with which the office-holding class and the party in power seek to smother it:

1. The false issue with which they would enkindle sectarian strife in respect to the public schools, of which the establishment and support belong exclusively to the several States, and which the Democratic party has cherished from their foundation, and is resolved to maintain without prejudice or preference for any class, sect, or creed, and without largesses from the treasury to any.

2. The false issue by which they seek to light anew the dying embers of sectional hate between kindred peoples once estranged, but now reunited in one indivisible republic and a common destiny.

Reform is necessary in the Civil Service. Experience proves that efficient, economical conduct of the governmental business is not possible if its civil service be subject to change at every election, be a prize fought for at the ballot box, be a brief reward of party zeal, instead of posts of honor assigned for proved competency, and held for fidelity in the public employ; that the dispensing of patronage should neither be a tax upon the time of all our public men, nor the instrument of their ambition. Here, again, promises, falsified in the performance, attest that the party in power can work out no practical or salutary reform.

Reform is necessary even more in the higher grades of the public service. President, Vice-President, Judges, Senators, Representatives, Cabinet officers, these and all others in authority are the people's servants. Their offices are not a private perquisite, they are a public trust.

When the annals of this Republic show the disgrace and censure of a Vice-President; a late Speaker of the House of Representatives, marketing his rulings as a presiding officer; three Senators profiting secretly by their votes as law makers; five chairmen of the leading committees of the late House of Representatives exposed in jobbery; a late Secretary of the Treasury forcing balances in the public accounts; a late Attorney General misappropriating public funds; a Secretary of the Navy enriched or enriching friends by percentages levied off the profits of contractors with his department; an ambassador tion; the President's private secretary barely escaping conviction upon trial for guilty complicity in frauds upon the revenue; a Secretary of War impeached for high crimes and misdemeanors—the demonstration is complete, that the first step in reform must be the people's choice of honest men from another party, lest the disease of one political organization infect the body politic, and lest by making no change of men or parties we get no change of measures and no real reform.

All these abuses, wrongs and crimes, the product of sixteen years' ascendency of the Republican party, create a necessity for reform confessed by Republicans themselves; but their reformers are voted down in conventions and displaced from the Cabinet. The party's mass of honest voters is powerless to resist the 80,000 officeholders, its leaders and guides.

Reform can only be had by a peaceful civic revolution. We demand a change of system, a change of administration, a change of parties, that we may have a change of measures and of men.

Resolved, That this Convention, representing the Democratic party of the United States, do cordially indorse the action of the present House of Representatives in reducing and curtailing the expenses of the Federal Government, in cutting down salaries, extravagant appropriations, and in abolishing useless offices and places not required by the public necessities, and we shall trust to the firmness of the Democratic members of the House that no committee of conference and no misinterpretation of the rules will be allowed to defeat these wholesome measures of economy demanded by the country.

Resolved, That the soldiers and sailors of the Republic, and the widows and orphans of those who have fallen in battle, have a just claim upon the care, protection and gratitude of their fellow-citizens. Pending the report,

Mr. THOMAS EWING, of Ohio, presented the following minority report:

The undersigned members of the Committee recommend that the following clause in the resolutions reported by the Committee be stricken out: "As such hindrance we denounce the resumption clause of the act of 1875 and we here demand its repeal." And they recommend that there be substituted for that clause the following: "The law for the resumption of specie payments on the 1st of January, 1879, having been enacted by the Republican party without deliberation in Congress or discussion before the people, and being both ineffective to secure its objects and highly injurious to the business of the country, ought to be forthwith repealed."

After debate, the Convention rejected the minority report—yeas, 219; nays, 550.

The Platform, as reported, was then adopted—yeas, 651; nays, 83.

The candidates were: SAMUEL J. TILDEN, of New York, for President; THOMAS A. HENDRICKS, of Indiana, for Vice-President.

"Greenback" National Platform.

[Adopted at a National Mass Convention at Indianapolis, May 18.]

The Independent party is called into existence by the necessities of the people, whose industries are prostrated, whose labor is deprived of its just reward by a ruinous policy which the Republican and Democratic parties refuse to change, and in view of the failure of these parties to furnish relief to the depressed industries of the country, thereby disappointing the just hopes and expectations of the suffering people, we declare our principles and invite all independent and patriotic men to join our ranks in this movement for financial reform and industrial emancipation:

First. We demand the immediate and unconditional repeal of the specie resumption act of January 14, 1875, and the rescue of our industries from ruin and disaster resulting from its enforcement; and we call upon all patriotic men to organize in every Congressional District of the country with a view of electing representatives to Congress who will carry out the wishes of the people in this regard, and stop the present suicidal and destructive policy of contraction.

Second. We believe that a United States note issued directly by the Government and convertible on demand into United States obligations, bearing a rate of interest not exceeding one cent a day on each one hundred dollars, and exchangeable for United States notes at par, will afford the best circulating medium ever devised. Such United States notes should be full legal-tenders for all purposes, except for the payment of such obligations as are by existing contracts especially made payable in coin, and we hold that it is the duty of the Government to provide such circulating medium, and insist, in the language of Thomas Jefferson, that "bank paper must be suppressed and the circulation restored to the nation, to whom it belongs."

Third. It is the paramount duty of the Government, in all its legislation, to keep in view the full development of all legitimate business, agricultural, mining, manufacturing and commercial.

Fourth. We most earnestly protest against any further issue of gold bonds for sale in foreign markets, by which we would be made for a long period "hewers of wood and drawers of water" to foreigners, especially as the American people would gladly and promptly take at par all bonds the Government may need to sell, provided they are made payable at the option of the holder and bearing interest at 3.65 per cent. per annum, or even a lower rate.

Fifth. We further protest against the sale of Government bonds for the purpose of purchasing silver to be used as a substitute for our more convenient and less fluctuating fractional currency, which, although well calculated to enrich owners of silver mines, yet in operation it will still further oppress in taxation an already over-burdened people.

A subsequent resolution against railroad subsidies was adopted.

Their candidates were: PETER COOPER, of New York, for President; SAMUEL F. CARY, of Ohio, for Vice-President.

following platform of national reforms and measures:

First. The legal prohibition in the District of Columbia, the Territories, and in every other place subject to the laws of Congress, of the importation, exportation, manufacture and traffic of all alcoholic beverages, as high crimes against society; an amendment of the national Constitution to render these prohibitory measures universal and permanent; and the adoption of treaty stipulations with foreign powers to prevent the importation and exportation of all alcoholic beverages.

Second. The abolition of class legislation and of special privileges in the Government, and the adoption of equal suffrage and eligibility to office without distinction of race, religious creed, property or sex.

Third. The appropriation of the public lands in limited quantities to actual settlers only; the reduction of the rates of inland and ocean postage; of telegraphic communication; of railroad and water transportation and travel to the lowest practical point by force of laws, wisely and justly framed, with reference not only to the interests of capital employed, but to the higher claims of the general good.

Fourth. The suppression, by laws, of lotteries and gambling in gold, stocks, produce and every form of money and property, and the penal inhibition of the use of the public mails for advertising schemes of gambling and lotteries.

Fifth. The abolition of those foul enormities, polygamy and the social evil, and the protection of purity, peace and happiness of homes by ample and efficient legislation.

Sixth. The national observance of the Christian Sabbath, established by laws prohibiting ordinary labor and business in all departments of public service and private employment (works of necessity, charity and religion excepted), on that day.

Seventh. The establishment by mandatory provisions in National and State constitutions, and by all necessary legislation, of a system of free public schools for the universal and forced education of all the youth of the land.

Eighth. The free use of the Bible, not as a ground of religious creeds, but as a text-book of purest morality, the best liberty and the noblest literature, in our public schools, that our children may grow up in its light, and that its spirit and principles may pervade our nation.

Ninth. The separation of the Government in all its departments and institutions, including the public schools and all funds for their maintenance, from the control of every religious sect or other association, and the protection alike of all sects by equal laws, with entire freedom of religious faith and worship.

Tenth. The introduction into all treaties hereafter negotiated with foreign governments, of a provision for the amicable settlement of international difficulties by arbitration.

Eleventh. The abolition of all barbarous modes and instruments of punishment. The recognition of the laws of God and the claims of humanity in the discipline of jails and prisons, and of that higher and wiser civilization worthy of our age and nation, which regards the reform of criminals as a means for the prevention of crime.

Twelfth. The abolition of executive and legislative patronage, and the election of President, Vice-President, United States Senators, and of all civil officers, so far as practicable, by the direct vote of the people.

Thirteenth. The practice of a friendly and liberal policy to immigrants from all nations, the guaranty to them of ample protection, and of equal rights and privileges.

Fourteenth. The separation of the money of Government from all banking institutions. The National Government only should exercise the high prerogative of issuing paper money, and that should be subject to prompt redemption on demand, in gold and silver, the only equal standards of value recognized by the civilized world.

Fifteenth. The reduction of the salaries of public officers in a just ratio with the decline of wages and market prices, the abolition of sinecures, unnecessary offices and official fees and perquisites; the practice of strict economy in government expenses, and a free and thorough investigation into any and all alleged abuses of public trusts.

Their candidates were: GERRIT CLAY SMITH, of Kentucky, for President; GIDEON T. STEWART, of Ohio, for Vice-President.

"The American" National.

[Adopted, in mass meeting, Pittsburgh, June 9, 1875.]

We hold: 1. That ours is a Christian and not a heathen nation, and that the God of the Christian Scriptures is the author of civil government.

2. That God requires and man needs a Sabbath.

3. That the prohibition of the importation, manufacture and sale of intoxicating drinks as a beverage, is the true policy on the temperance question.

4. The charters of all secret lodges granted by our Federal and State Legislatures should be withdrawn, and their oaths prohibited by law.

5. That the civil equality secured to all American citizens by article 13th, 14th and 15th of our amended Constitution should be preserved inviolate.

6. That arbitration of differences with nations is the most direct and sure method of securing and perpetuating a permanent peace.

7. That to cultivate the intellect without improving the morals of men, is to make mere adepts and experts; therefore the Bible should be associated with books of science and literature in all our educational institutions.

8. That land and other monopolies should be discountenanced.

9. That the Government should furnish the people with an ample and sound currency, and a return to specie payment as soon as practicable.

10. That maintenance of the public credit, protection to all loyal citizens, and justice to Indians are essential to the honor and safety of our nation.

11. And finally, we demand for the American people the abolition of Electoral Colleges, and a direct vote for President and Vice-President of the United States.

Their candidates were: JAMES B. WALKER, Wheaton, Ill., for President; and DONALD KIRKPATRICK, Syracuse, N. Y., for Vice-President.

ABSTRACT OF PUBLIC LAWS,

PASSED AT THE FIRST SESSION OF THE FORTY-FOURTH CONGRESS.

Chap. V.—An act to amend the Revised Statutes relating to Naturalization.—The declaration of intention to become a citizen of the United States, required by sec. 2165 of the Rev. Stat. may be made by an alien before the clerk of any of the courts named in said section. All declarations heretofore made before any such clerk are declared legal and valid.

Chap. LVI.—An act to amend section 1044 of the Revised Statutes relating to limitations in criminal cases.—That said section be amended so as to read: No person shall be prosecuted, tried or punished for any offense, not capital, except as provided in section 1046, unless the indictment is found, or the information is instituted within three years next after such offense shall have been committed.

Chap. CIV.—An act to extend the time to preemptors of the public lands.—Whenever any preemptor on public lands shall make satisfactory proof at the local land office, that the crops upon the land occupied by him have been destroyed by grasshoppers within two years prior to the passage of this act, the time for making final proof and payment is extended two years.

Chap. CXXXIII.—An act to amend sec. 5271 Rev. Stat., relating to extradition.—In cases of complaint and of a hearing upon the return of the warrant of arrest, any depositions, warrants, or other papers offered in evidence, shall be admitted if properly and legally authenticated, according to the laws of the foreign country from which the criminal has escaped.

Chap. CLXVI.—Extends the time for filing claims for additional bounty until July 1st, 1880.

Chap. CLXXIX.—Post Office Appropriation Bill, sec. 15, provides "that transient newspapers and magazines, regular publications designed primarily for advertising purposes, or for free circulation at nominal rates, and all printed matter of the third class, except unsealed circulars, shall be admitted to and transmitted through the mails at the rate of one cent for every two ounces or fractional part thereof, and one cent for each two additional ounces or fractional part thereof, and the sender of any article of the third class of mail matter may write his or her name or address therein, or on the outside thereof, with the word 'from' above or preceding the same, or may write briefly or print on any package the number and names of the articles inclosed. Publishers of newspapers or periodicals may print on the wrapper of newspaper or magazine sent from the office of publication to regular subscribers, the time to which subscription therefor has been paid. Any addresses upon postal cards and unsealed circulars, may be either written, printed or affixed thereto, at the option of the sender."

Chp. CCXXXIV.—An act amendatory of the Bankrupt Act.—After the word "committed," in line 44 of sec. 12, act of June 22d, 1874, insert: Provided also, That no voluntary assignment by a debtor or debtors, of all his or their property, heretofore or hereafter made in good faith for the benefit of all his or their creditors, ratably and without creating any preference, and valid according to the laws of the State where made, shall of itself, in the event of his or their being subsequently adjudicated bankrupts in a proceeding of involuntary bankruptcy, be a bar to the discharge of such debtor or debtors.

Sec. 5108 of Rev. Stat. is amended so as to read: At any time after the expiration of six months from the adjudication of bankruptcy, or if no debts have been proved against the bankrupt, or if no assets have come to the hands of the assignee, at any time after the expiration of sixty days, and before the final disposition of the cause, the bankrupt may apply to the court for a discharge from his debts.

Joint Resolution (17) for the issue of silver coin (p. 215 of Statutes).

Sec. 1. Authorizes the Secretary of the Treasury to issue silver coin at any time in the Treasury, to an amount not exceeding $10,000,000, in exchange for an equal amount of legal tender notes; such notes shall be kept as a separate fund, only to be reissued upon the retirement and destruction of a like sum of fractional currency.

Sec. 2. The trade dollar shall not hereafter be a legal tender, and the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to limit the coinage thereof.

Sec. 3. Legalizes the manufacture and issue of silver coin, to an amount, including the amount of subsidiary silver coin and of fractional currency outstanding, not exceeding, at any time, fifty million dollars.

Sec. 4. Provides for the purchase of silver bullion, from time to time, at market rates. Approved July 22, 1876.

Chap. LXIII.—Directs the Secretary of the Treasury to give silver coins of U. S., of ten, twenty, twenty-five and fifty cents standard value, in redemption of an equal amount of fractional currency, whether the same be now in the Treasury awaiting redemption, or whenever it may be presented for redemption; and the Secretary may provide for such redemption and issue by substitution at the regular subtreasuries and public depositories until the whole amount of fractional currency outstanding shall be redeemed. And the fractional currency redeemed under this act shall be held to be a part of the sinking fund provided for by existing law, the interest to be computed thereon as in the case of bonds redeemed under the act relating to the sinking fund. Approved April 17, 1876.

Previous to the election of 1804, each elector voted for two candidates for President, and the person receiving the highest number of votes, if a majority of the whole number of electors, was declared to be President; and the person having the next highest number was Vice-President. At the first election, 1788, there were 69 electors, all of whom voted for Washington, and 34 for JOHN ADAMS, and there were 35 "scattering" votes, of which JOHN JAY, of N. Y., received 9, ROBERT H. HARRISON 6, JOHN RUTLEDGE, of S. C., 6, JOHN HANCOCK, of Mass., 4, GEORGE CLINTON, of N.Y., 3, SAMUEL HUNTINGTON, of Conn., 2, JOHN MILTON 2, JAMES ARMSTRONG, of Penna., 1, EDWARD TELFAIR, of Georgia, 1, and BENJAMIN LINCOLN 1. tion, three States did not vote, viz.: New York (8) which had not passed an electoral law, North Carolina (7) which had not adopted the Constitution, and Rhode Island (3). In 1792, 4 votes were cast for THOMAS JEFFERSON (of Virginia), and 1 for AARON BURR (of New York). In 1796, of the 48 "scattering," SAMUEL ADAMS (of Mass.) had 15, OLIVER ELLSWORTH (of Conn.) 11, GEORGE CLINTON (of N. Y.) 7, JOHN JAY (of N. Y.) 5, JAMES IREDELL (of N. C.) 3, GEORGE WASHINGTON 2, SAMUEL JOHNSTON (of N. C.) 2, JOHN HENRY (of Md.) 2, and CHARLES COTESWORTH PINCKNEY (of S. C.) 1. In 1800, there having been a tie vote between THOMAS JEFFERSON and AARON BURR, in the College, the choice devolved upon the House of Representatives, which, on the 36th ballot, on the 17th of February, 1801, being the sixth day devoted to balloting, elected THOMAS JEFFERSON President, ten States concurring, viz.: Georgia, Kentucky, Maryland, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, Pennsylvania, Tennessee, Vermont, and Virginia. The States of Connecticut, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, and Rhode Island voted for Mr. BURR; and Delaware and South Carolina voted by blank ballots. Mr. BURR became the Vice-President. In the Electoral College, John Jay (of N. Y.) received 1 vote.

In 1808, George Clinton (of N. Y.) received 6 votes for President, and for Vice-President John Langdon (of N. H.) received 9, and James Madison (of Va.) and James Monroe (of Va.) each 3. In 1816, there was no regular Federal opposition to Daniel D. Tompkins (of N. Y.) for Vice-President, but there were 34 "scattering" votes, of which John E. Howard (of Md.) had 22, James Ross (of Penn.) 5, John Marshall (of Va.) 4, and Robert G. Harper (of Md.) 3. In 1820, there was no organized opposition to Mr. Madison and Mr. Tompkins, but one vote (from New Hampshire) was cast for John Quincy Adams (of Mass.) for President, and one elector in Pennsylvania, Tennessee and Mississippi each, having died, failed to vote for President; for Vice-President, 5 votes were cast for Richard Stockton of New Jersey, 4 for Daniel Rodney of Delaware, 1 for Robert G. Harper of Maryland, and 1 for Richard Rush of Pennsylvania. The electoral College consisted of 232, without Missouri, whose formal admission was not proclaimed by the President till August 10, 1821, or 235 with it. As Mr. Monroe and Mr. Tompkins had a majority in the event of either counting or excluding the vote of Missouri, they were declared elected President and Vice-President.

In 1824, no choice having been made of President by the Electoral College, the House of Representatives chose from the three highest in vote. On the first ballot, JOHN QUINCY ADAMS received the votes of Connecticut, Illinois, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Missouri, New Hampshire, New York, Ohio, Rhode Island, and Vermont—13; ANDREW JACKSON received the votes of Alabama, Indiana, Mississippi, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, and Tennessee—7; WILLIAM H. CRAWFORD received the votes of Delaware, Georgia, North Carolina, and Virginia—4; and Mr. ADAMS was declared elected. For Vice-President, ANDREW JACKSON had 13 votes—8 from Connecticut, 3 from Missouri, 1 from Maryland, and 1 from New Hampshire; MARTIN VAN BUREN of New York, 9 from Georgia; and HENRY CLAY of Kentucky, 2 from Delaware. In 1828, WILLIAM SMITH, of South Carolina, had 7 votes from Georgia, for Vice-President. In 1832, for Vice-President, WILLIAM WILKINS, of Pennsylvania, had 30 votes from Pennsylvania; HENRY LEE, of Massachusetts, 11 from South Carolina; and AMOS ELLMAKER, of Pennsylvania, 7 from Vermont. Two votes in favor of Mr. CLAY for President, and Mr. SERGEANT for Vice-President, were lost because of the illness of two of the electors chosen in Maryland, the State law not having given power to fill vacancies. In 1836, no candidate for Vice-President having received a majority of the votes of the Electoral College (which being 294 with Michigan counted, required 148 for a majority, or 291 without Michigan, required 146 for a majority, in either event there being no majority for any one), the Senate elected RICHARD M. JOHNSON, of Kentucky, who received 33 votes, and FRANCIS GRANGER, 16. As the Electoral College consisted of 291 without Michigan, whose formal admission was declared by act of Congress approved January 26, 1837, or 294 with it, and Mr. VAN BUREN received 167 votes without it, or 170 with it, and that vote did not affect the result; the vote was announced in the alternative, and Mr. VAN BUREN'S election proclaimed. In 1840, 11 votes from South Carolina were cast for Vice-President, for LITTLETON W. TAZEWELL, of Virginia, and 1 vote from Virginia for JAMES K. POLK of Tennessee. In 1856, it appears from the record that the electors of Wisconsin cast their votes on the 4th day of December, instead of the 3d. The teller on the part of the House reported that fact, in his statement to the president of the two houses, and indicated the figures given above as the result, including the 5 votes of Wisconsin; and the presiding officer deciding out of order all debate, on a suggestion as to the propriety of rejecting said vote, proceeded to declare that Mr. BUCHANAN had received 174 votes, Mr. FREMONT 114, and Mr. FILLMORE 8; and that Mr. BUCHANAN, having the greatest number of votes for President, that number being a majority of the whole number of electors, had been duly elected President. The subject of the counting of Wisconsin was debated in each house, after adjournment of the joint meeting, but it was finally tabled without action by either. In 1864, the return from Nevada showed the vote of but two electors, one having died after his election, and the law of the State not providing the authority to fill the vacancy. After reading the returns given above, the Vice-President (Mr. HAMLIN), on inquiry made, stated that he had "in his possession returns from the States of Louisiana and Tennessee, but in obedience to the law of the land, the chair holds it to be his duty not to present them." This "law of the land" was a joint resolution, approved February 8, 1865—the day of the counting—resolving that, whereas the inhabitants and local authorities of the States of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas, Arkansas, and Tennessee rebelled against the Government of the United States, and were in such condition on the 8th of November, 1864, that no valid election of electors of President and Vice-President of the United States, according to the Constitution and laws thereof, was held therein on said day; therefore the States mentioned are not entitled to representation in the Electoral College for the choice of President and Vice-President of the United States, for the term commencing March 4th, 1865, and no electoral votes shall be received and counted from said States for said term. Mr. LINCOLN, in a message announcing his approval, disclaimed all power in the executive to defeat or obstruct the power in the two Houses of Congress, under the twelfth amendment, to exclude from the count all electoral votes deemed by them to be illegal, or in any way to interfere with the canvassing or counting the electoral vote; and said he signed the joint resolution in deference to the view of Congress implied in its passage and presentation to him. In 1868, the two houses adopted a concurrent resolution, reciting that whereas the question whether the State of Georgia has become and is entitled to representation in the two Houses of Congress is now pending and undetermined, if the counting or omitting to count the electoral vote of Georgia shall not essentially change the result, the result shall be reported as in the alternative by the presiding officer of the two houses. Counting it, SEYMOUR and BLAIR had each 80 votes; excluding it, they had each 71 votes. In 1872, the full vote of the Electoral College for President was 366, of which 17 were excluded, being the 8 votes of Louisiana (the two houses concurring), the 6 votes of Arkansas (the Senate voting to reject and the House to receive), and 3 votes cast in Georgia for Horace Greeley, he being then dead, (the Senate voting to receive and the House to reject). The votes counted on President were 349, on Vice-President, 352. On the latter, there were these additional votes: 5 from Georgia, for ALFRED H. COLQUITT, of Georgia; 5 from Missouri, for GEORGE W. JULIAN, of Indiana; 3 from Kentucky, for THOMAS E. BRAMLETTE, of Kentucky; 3 from Missouri, for JOHN M. PALMER, of Illinois; 1 from Georgia, for NATHANIEL P. BANKS, of Massachusetts; 1 from Missouri, for WILLIAM S. GROESBECK, of Ohio; and 1 from Kentucky, for WILLIS B MACHEN, of Kentucky. In 1876, the vote is given as believed to have been legally cast. It will be officially declared in February.

The Twenty-second Joint Rule.

This rule was adopted February 6, 1865, and is as follows:

22. The two houses shall assemble in the hall of the House of Representatives at the hour of 1 o'clock P. M. on the second Wednesday in February next succeeding the meeting of the electors of President and Vice-President of the United States, and the president of the Senate shall be their presiding officer; one teller shall be appointed on the part of the Senate, and two on the part of the House of Representatives, to whom shall be handed, as they are opened by the president of the Senate, the certificates of the electoral votes; and said tellers having read the same in the presence and hearing of the two houses thus assembled, shall make a list of the votes as they shall appear from the said certificates; and the votes having been counted, the result of the same shall be delivered to the president of the Senate, who shall thereupon announce the state of the vote and the names of the persons, if any elected; which announcement shall be deemed a sufficient declaration of the persons elected President and Vice-President of the United States, and, together with a list of the votes, be entered on the journals of the two houses.

If, upon the reading of any such certificate by the tellers, any question shall arise in regard to counting the votes therein certified, the same having been stated by the presiding officer, the Senate shall thereupon withdraw, and said question shall be submitted to that body for its decision; and the speaker of the House of Representatives shall, in like manner, submit said question to the House of Representatives for its decision. And no question shall be decided affirmatively, and no vote objected to shall be counted, except by the concurrent votes of the two houses; which being obtained, the two houses shall immediately reassemble, and the presiding officer shall then announce the decision of the question submitted; and upon any such question there shall be no debate in either house. And any other question pertinent to the object for which the two houses are assembled may be submitted and determined in lik manner.

At such joint meeting of the two houses sea shall be provided as follows: For the presiden of the Senate, the "speaker's chair;" for th speaker, a chair immediately upon his left; f the senators, in the body of the hall upon th right of the presiding officer; for the representa tives, in the body of the hall not occupied by th senators; for the tellers, secretary of the Senat and clerk of the House of Representatives, at th clerk's desk; for the other officers of the tw houses, in front of the clerk's desk and upo either side of the speaker's platform.

Such joint meeting shall not be dissolved unt the electoral votes are all counted and the resu declared; and no recess shall be taken, unless question shall have arisen in regard to countin any of such votes, in which case it shall be com petent for either house, acting separately in th manner hereinbefore provided, to direct a recess not beyond the next day, at the hour of 1 o'cloc P. M.

Under this rule, the counting of the electora vote in 1865, 1869, and 1873, proceeded. At th first session of the present Congress—January 2 1876—the Senate passed a concurrent resolutio adopting the joint rules in force at the close of th previous session of Congress as the joint rules fo that session, "excepting the twenty-second joi rule." The House failed to act on the resolution The president of the Senate ruled, at this sessio of Congress, that there were, hence, no joint rule in operation. The speaker of the House rule that the joint rules previously existing stil existed. In the Senate, after debate, the decisio of the president pro tempore was sustained, wit but five recorded votes in the negative, and on paired.

The straight Democratic ticket (O'Conor) received 29,489 votes; and the Prohibition ticket (Black) 5,608—in 1874.

The "Anti-Secret Society ticket," in 1876, received 23 votes in Kansas, 286 in Illinois, 71 in Michigan, 76 in Ohio, 83 in Pennsylvania—539 in all. There were 1,778 votes returned as "scattering" in various States. In Michigan, there were 12,937 returned as "imperfect and scattering."

U. S. Officers as Electors.

In view of the interest attaching to the questions growing out of the choice by the people of persons, as Presidential electors, who are disqualified under the provisions of the Constitution, the subjoined extracts are taken from the report of a committee in the U. S. Senate, February 4, 1887. The committee consisted of Felix Grundy, Henry Clay, and Silas Wright. Not having ascertained the identity of the persons, the committee say:

"The committee cannot adopt the opinion entertained by some, that a single illegal vote would vitiate the whole electoral vote of the college of electors in which it was given, particularly in cases where the vote of the whole college has been given for the same persons.

'The committee are of opinion that the second section of the second article of the Constitution, which declares that 'no Senator or Representative, or person holding an office of trust or profit under the United States, shall be appointed an elector,' ought to be carried in its whole spirit into rigid execution, in order to prevent officers of the General Government from bringing their official power to influence the elections of President and Vice-President of the United States. This provision of the Constitution, it is believed, excludes and disqualifies deputy postmasters from the appointment of electors; and the disqualification relates to the time of the appointments, and that a resignation of the office of deputy postmaster after his appointment as elector would not entitle him to vote as elector under the Constitution.

"Should a case occur in which it became necessary to ascertain and determine upon the qualifications of electors of President and Vice-President of the United States, the important question would be presented, what tribunal would, under the Constitution, be competent to decide? Whether the respective colleges of electors in the different States should decide upon the qualifications of their own members, or Congress should exercise the power, is a question which the committee are of opinion ought to be settled by a permanent provision upon the subject."

[Nelson I. Norton was elected Nov., 1875, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. Allen. Mr. Norton, Rep., received 4,961 in Cattaraugus, and 5,809 in Chautauqua—total 10,770. Mr. Charles S. Cary received 4,525 in Cattaraugus, and 4,614 in Chautauqua—total 9,139. Mr. Flint Blanchard had 72. The State canvassing board declined to give Mr. Norton a certificate of election, because in one county he was voted for for "Representative in Congress," and in the other for "Member of Congress." Mr. Norton was qualified the first day of the session of the XLIVth Congress.]

* In each of the counties marked with a *, the returns by towns not having been sent to the Secretary of State, by the county clerks, up to the date of putting these pages to press, the town votes are not given.

MINNESOTA—Cont'd.

Three amendments to the Constitution of the State were ratified at this election. One authorizes the Governor to veto certain items of appropriation of money, and approve others in any bill presented to him, subject to the action of two-thirds of each branch of the legislature, if in session, as in other vetoes. Another authorizes the Governor, or Lieutenant Governor if the Governor be an interested party, to assign district judges to sit on the supreme bench to hear cases in which all, or a majority of the supreme judges shall from any cause be disqualified from sitting. Another limits the liability of each stockholder in any corporation, to all unpaid installments on stock owned by him or transferred for the purpose of defrauding creditors.

	Senate.	House.	Jt. Bal.
Republicans	5	16	21
Democrats	19	49	68
Dem. maj.	14	33	47

In the previous Legislature, the Democrats had 14 maj. in the Senate, and 33 in the House—47 on joint ballot. Two U. S. Senators are to be chosen by this Legislature—one to fill a vacancy, another for a full term.

At the State election in October, the Democrats elected all their candidates; but the vote has not been printed, and will not be officially canvassed before Jan. 10, 1877. The candidates were as follow:

Governor...Nathan Goff, jr., Rep.; Henry M. Matthews, Dem.; J. M. Laidley, Grbk.

Auditor.....Charles M. Shinn, Rep.; Joseph C. Miller, Dem.; S. H. Piersoe, Gbk.

Treasurer..Moses Frankenberger, Rep.; Thos. J. West, Dem.; J. G. Shilling, Grbk.

Att'y Gen...John A. Hutchinson, Rep.; Robert White, Dem.; W. H. Tomlinson, Grbk.

One of the Republican electors was 4,900 votes behind his colleagues, in consequence of the accidental omission of his name from the tickets in certain counties.

In 1876, there were 1,509 votes for the Cooper Electoral ticket; 153 for the Prohibition electors; 29 for the Anti-Secret Society electors, and 1,555 scattering. In 1875, Hammond, Pro., had 460 votes, and there were 141 scattering.

Total vote: On President, in 1876, 257,312; in 1875, on Governor, 170,070; in 1873, 147,858; in 1872, on President, 191,444.

In 1875, the Democrats elected their candidates for Lieut. Governor, Secretary of State, Treasurer, Attorney General and Supt. of Public Instruction.

Prior to the decision of the Supreme Court, and in the argument before the canvassing board, the counsel for the Democratic committee claimed changes and corrections in the returns, which would make Mr. Tilden's majority 1,197, and, in another contingency named, 2,219. Other claims were put forth of a majority of 361 for Tilden; 791 for Drew; 946 for Hull; of 597 for Congress in 1st District, and 216 in the 2d.

Below is a statement of the actual result alleged by the returning Board, as appearing from the "face of the returns" when opened by them, on the 28th of November last:

On re-count for Governor by order of Court, Dec. 27, the Board rejected Clay county ret'ns, which increased, as the Board certified, Hayes' majority on face of returns		164
Total majority on that showing		206

Governor, Marcellus L. Stearns, Rep.....23,984
George F. Drew, Dem.....24,179
Drew's majority.....195

Lieut.-G...David Montgomery, Rep.....23,895
Noble A. Hull, Dem..t.....24,243
Hull's majority.....348

On Congress the re-count does not change the footing in the 1st District, but it increases the majority of Bisbee, in the 2d, from 18 to 319, caused by the action of the Board regarding Baker and Clay counties. Bisbee's vote is placed at 11,337, Finley's 11,018.

SUBSEQUENT ACTION.

Two Legislatures were organized on the 1st of January, 1877. The one (the Republican), meets in the Capitol Building, and consists of 19 Senators and 68 Representatives. Of these, 8 Senators held over, and 11 were returned elected by the State Board of Canvassers. All the Representatives had certificates of election from the same Board.

The other (the Democratic), meets in a hall in the city, and consists of 21 Senators and 62 Representatives. Of the Senators 9 held over, 8 were returned elected by the State Canvassers, and 4, who claim to have been elected, but had no certificates from the State Canvassers. Of the Representatives, 40 were returned elected by the State Canvassers, and 22 claim to have been elected, but are without certificates of election from the State Canvassers. The Returning Board declared 71 Republicans elected, 46 Democrats and 3 vacancies. They returned 11 Republican Senators elected, and 8 Democrats.

On the 2d inst., in the Republican Legislature, in joint assembly, the returns of the election for Governor, as compiled by the Returning Board and furnished by the Secretary of State, were opened and read, and Mr. Packard was declared duly elected Governor, and Mr. Antoine Lieut.-Governor. On the same day, in the Democratic Legislature, in joint assembly, the vote of the State by parishes was read, and Francis T. Nicholls was declared duly elected Governor, and Louis A. Wiltz Lieut.-Governor.

On the 8th of January each Governor declared elected took an oath of office and delivered an inaugural.

Wm. F. Myers	91830	90860	Robert Aldrich.
Av. vote	91672	90850

* By clerical error, Mr. Hurley's name was omitted from one return in Charleston county.

These figures were those appearing on the "face of the returns," as made from the counties to the State Canvassing Board, and reported by the Board to the Supreme Court, under order so to do. Subsequently, a committee was appointed by the U. S. House of Representatives, to examine into the election of electors in South Carolina, who compiled a return made up from the precinct returns, as distinguished from the returns of the County Commissioners. This committee agree in reporting the result of the election, as follows:

Republicans.			Democrats
Chris. C. Bowen..	92081	91440	T. G. Barker.
John Winsmith...	92117	91462	Samuel d'Gowan.
Thos. E. Johnston	92128	91136	J. W. Harrington.
Timothy Hurley..	92110	91416	John J. Ingram.
Wm. B. Nash.....	92085	91446	Wm. Wallace.
Wilson Cook	92096	91444	John B. Erwin.
Wm. F. Myers....	92112	91400	Robert Aldrich.
Av. vote.....	92104	91439

The lowest Republican Elector has a majority over the highest Democratic candidate, by the first count, of 230; by the second, of 619. The majority of the highest Republican over the highest Democrat is, by the first count, 964; by the second, 665. The average Republican majority, by the first count, is 816; by the second, 666.

The Democratic claim of the actual vote on Governor (including Edgefield and Laurens, thrown out by the Returning Board for violence, intimidation, and fraud), is as follows:

GOVERNOR.

Daniel H. Chamberlain, Rep.....	91127
Wade Hampton, Dem.....	92261
Hampton's maj.....	1134

LIEUT. GOVERNOR.

Richard H. Gleaves, Rep.....	91550
Wm. D. Simpson, Dem.....	91689
Simpson's maj.....	139

Two Legislatures were organized, each purported to count the vote for Governor and Lieut. Governor. One declared the Republican candidates elected; the other, the Democratic. Each candidate for Governor took an oath of office, and delivered an inaugural address, and each body chose a U. S. Senator to fill the vacancy to occur 3d of March, 1877. They have both adjourned.

As nearly as can be ascertained, the facts respecting the rival legislative bodies are as follow:

A full Senate consists of 33 persons. Of these, the election of 31 was regularly returned by the State Board of Canvassers, and certificates issued. Certificates were not issued to the two Democratic candidates in the counties of Edgefield and Laurens. Of the 33 Senators, 31 only had certificates. Of these, 18 were Republicans, and 13 Democrats.

A full House consists of 124 persons. Of these, 116 had regular certificates from the State Board of Canvassers, by whom certificates were refused to five claimants from Edgefield and three from Laurens. Of the 116 who had certificates, 59 participated in the organization of the Mackey House. That House afterwards seated the five Republican contestants in Barnwell, five in Abbeville, and four in Aiken. The election in Edgefield and Laurens was declared not valid. On the 12th of December, when a U. S. Senator was voted for, there were 68 present in the House, and 31 in the Senate, when Mr. Corbin received of the Senate 17, and M. W. Gary, 12; and of the House, 58 of 68 present.

The Hampton interest did not attempt to organize an independent Senate. But with their 57 regularly certified members, they united the five from Edgefield and three from Laurens, and with other changes obtained 68 persons, of whom, it was claimed, 60 had regular certificates. Gen. Wallace was elected Speaker. The number afterwards rose, by accessions, to 62, and to 63, and by defections fell again to 62. On the 19th of December, when M. C. Butler was voted for by them for U. S. Senator, they claimed to have 79 Senators and Representatives in the Joint Assembly, of whom 61 voted for Mr. Butler. The Democratic members of the Senate attended, though they, or most of them, participated in the election on the 12th, when David T. Corbin was chosen.

The following are the aggregates on other State officers, as declared by the Board of Canvassers:

Lieut. Gov....	Richard H. Gleaves, Rep...	86,620
	Wm. D. Simpson, Dem.....	82,521
	Gleaves' majority	4,099

	Tolbert's maj.....	90
Adjutant Gen.	James Kennedy, Rep.....	91,666
	E. W. Moise, Dem.....	91,545
	Kennedy's maj	61

On the return made by the Returning Board, to the Supreme Court, of the figures appearing "on the face of the returns," the differences from the above are these:

Comptroller..	Thos. C. Dunn, Rep.....	90,858
	Johnson Hagood, Dem.....	91,114
	Hagood's maj.....	256
Supt. of Educ.	John R. Tolbert, Rep.....	91,112
	Hugh S. Thompson, Dem..	91,554
	Thompson's maj.....	442

The other results stated are the same.

PROCEEDINGS UNDER THE ELECTORAL COMMISSION ACT.

TEXT OF THE ACT.

AN ACT to provide for and regulate the counting of votes for President and Vice-President, and the decision of questions arising thereon, for the term commencing March fourth, Anno Domini eighteen hundred and seventy-seven.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Senate and House of Representatives shall meet in the hall of the House of Representatives, at the hour of one o'clock post meridian, on the first Thursday in February, Anno Domini eighteen hundred and seventy-seven; and the President of the Senate shall be their presiding officer. Two tellers shall be previously appointed on the part of the Senate, and two on the part of the House of Representatives, to whom shall be handed, as they are opened by the President of the Senate, all the certificates, and papers purporting to be certificates, of the electoral votes, which certificates and papers shall be opened, presented, and acted upon in the alphabetical order of the States, beginning with the letter A; and said tellers having then read the same in the presence and hearing of the two Houses, shall make a list of the votes as they shall appear from the said certificates; and the votes having been ascertained and counted as in this act provided, the result of the same shall be delivered to the President of the Senate, who shall thereupon announce the state of the vote, and the names of the persons, if any, elected, which announcement shall be deemed a sufficient declaration of the persons elected President and Vice-President of the United States, and, together with a list of the votes, be entered on the journals of the two Houses. Upon such reading of any such certificate or paper when there shall be only one return from a State, the President of the Senate shall call for objections, if any. Every objection shall be made in writing, and shall state clearly and concisely, and without argument, the ground thereof, and shall be signed by at least one Senator and one Member of the House of Representatives before the same shall be received. When all objections so made to any vote or paper from a State shall have been received and read, the Senate shall thereupon withdraw, and such objections shall be submitted to the Senate for its decision; and the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall, in like manner, submit such objections to the House of Representatives for its decision; and no electoral vote or votes from any State from which but one return has been received shall be rejected, except by the affirmative vote of the two Houses. When the two Houses have voted, they shall immediately again meet, and the presiding officer shall then announce the decision of the question submitted.

SEC. 2. That, if more than one return, or paper purporting to be a return from a State, shall have been received by the President of the Senate, purporting to be the certificates of electoral votes given at the last preceding election for President and Vice-President in such State (unless they shall be duplicates of the same return), all such returns and papers shall be opened by him in the presence of the two Houses when met as aforesaid, and read by the tellers, and all such returns and papers shall thereupon be submitted to the judgment and decision as to which is the true and lawful electoral vote of such State, of a commission constituted as follows, namely: During the session of each House, on the Tuesday next preceding the first Thursday in February, eighteen hundred and seventy-seven, each House shall, by viva voce vote, appoint five of its members, who with the five associate justices of the Supreme Court of the United States, to be ascertained as hereinafter provided, shall constitute a commission for the decision of all questions upon or in respect of such double returns named in this section. On the Tuesday next preceding the first Thursday in February, Anno Domini eighteen hundred and seventy-seven, or as soon thereafter as may be, the associate justices of the Supreme Court of the United States now assigned to the first, third, eighth, and ninth circuits shall select, in such manner as a majority of them shall deem fit, another of the associate justices of said court, which five persons shall be members of said commission; and the person longest in commission of said five justices shall be the president of said commission. The members of said commission shall respectively take and subscribe the following oath: "I, —— ——, do solemnly swear (or affirm, as the case may be) that I will impartially examine and consider all questions submitted to the commission of which I am a member, and a true judgment give thereon, agreeably to the Constitution and the laws: so help me God;" which oath shall be filed with the Secretary of the Senate. When the commission shall have been thus organized, it shall not be in the power of either House to dissolve the same, or to withdraw any of its members; but if any such Senator or member shall die or become physically unable to perform the duties required by this act, the fact of such death or physical inability shall be by said commission, before it shall proceed further, communicated to the Senate or House of Representatives, as the case may be, which body shall immediately and without debate proceed by viva voce vote to fill the place so vacated, and the person so appointed shall take and subscribe the oath hereinbefore prescribed, and become a member of said commission; and, in like manner, if any of said justices of the Supreme Court shall die or become physically incapable of performing the duties required by this act, the other of said justices, members of the said commission, shall immediately appoint another justice of said court a member of said commission, and, in such appointments, regard shall be had to the impartiality and freedom from bias sought by the original appointments to said commission, who shall thereupon immediately take and subscribe the oath hereinbefore prescribed, and become a member of said commission to fill the vacancy so occasioned. All the certificates and papers purporting to be certificates of the electoral votes of each State shall be opened, in the alphabetical order of the States, as provided in section one of this act; and when there shall be more than one such certificate or paper, as the certificates and papers from such State shall so be opened (excepting duplicates of the same return), they shall be read by the tellers, and thereupon the President of the Senate shall call for objections, if any. Every objection shall be made in writing, and shall state clearly and concisely, and without argument, the ground thereof, and shall be signed by at least one Senator and one member of the House of Representatives before the same shall be received. When all such objections so made to any certificate, vote, or paper from a State shall have been received and read, all such certificates, votes and papers so objected to, and all papers accompanying the same, together with such objections, shall be forthwith submitted to said commission, which shall proceed to consider the same, with the same powers, if any, now possessed for that purpose by the two Houses acting separately or together, and, by a majority of votes, decide whether any and what votes from such State are the votes provided for by the Constitution of the United States, and how many and what persons were duly appointed electors in such State, and may therein take into view such petitions, depositions, and other papers, if any, as shall, by the Constitution and now existing law, be competent and pertinent in such consideration; which decision shall be made in writing, stating briefly the ground thereof, and signed by the members of said commission agreeing therein; whereupon the two Houses shall again meet, and such decision shall be read and entered in the journal of each house, and the counting of the votes shall proceed in conformity therewith, unless, upon objection made thereto in writing by at least five Senators and five members of the House of Representatives, the two Houses shall separately concur in ordering otherwise, in which case such concurrent order shall govern. No votes or papers from any other State shall be acted upon until the objections previously made to the votes or papers from any State shall have been finally disposed of.

SEC. 3. That, while the two Houses shall be in meeting, as provided in this act, no debate shall be allowed and no question shall be put by the presiding officer, except to either House on a motion to withdraw; and he shall have power to preserve order.

SEC. 4. That when the two Houses separate to decide upon an objection that may have been made to the counting of any electoral vote or votes from any State, or upon objection to a report of said commission, or other question arising under this act, each Senator and Representative may speak to such objection or question ten minutes, and not oftener than once; but after such debate shall have lasted two hours, it shall be the duty of each House to put the main question without further debate.

SEC. 5. That at such joint meeting of the two Houses, seats shall be provided as follows: For the President of the Senate, the Speaker's chair; for the Speaker, immediately upon his left; the Senators in the body of the hall upon the right of the presiding officer; for the Representatives, in the body of the hall not provided for the Senators; for the tellers, Secretary of the Senate, and Clerk of the House of Representatives, at the Clerk's desk; for the other officers of the two Houses, in front of the Clerk's desk and upon each side of the Speaker's platform. Such joint meeting shall not be dissolved until the count of electoral votes shall be completed and the result declared; and no recess shall be taken unless a question shall have arisen in regard to counting any such votes, or otherwise under this act, in which case it shall be competent for either House, acting separately, in the manner hereinbefore provided, to direct a recess of such House not beyond the next day, Sunday excepted, at the hour of ten o'clock in the forenoon. And while any question is being considered by said commission, either House may proceed with its legislative or other business.

SEC. 6. That nothing in this act shall be held to impair or affect any right now existing under the Constitution and laws to question, by proceeding in the judicial courts of the United States, the right or title of the person who shall be declared elected, or who shall claim to be President or Vice-President of the United States, if any such right exists.

SEC. 7. That said commission shall make its own rules, keep a record of its proceedings, and shall have power to employ such persons as may be necessary for the transaction of its business and the execution of its powers.

Approved, January 29, 1877.

PRELIMINARY VOTES.

IN SENATE, January 26, 1877.

Pending the passage, Mr. MORTON offered the following amendment, to come in at the close of the second section:

Provided, That nothing herein contained shall authorize the said commission to go behind the finding and determination of the canvassing or returning officers of a State, authorized by the laws of the State to find and determine the result of an election for electors.

MR. EDMUNDS moved to amend the amendment by striking out, after the word "provided," all the negative words, so that it shall read:

That the said commission shall have authority to go behind the finding and determination of the canvassing or returning officers, &c.

MR. EDMUNDS explained his purpose, stating that "as the possible effect of that amendment, if rejected, as I hope it will be, might be to raise in the mind of some doubtful Senator or judge an implication that by refusing to adopt such an amendment we had intended to confer the power to do what is there negated, I move to amend the amendment by striking out after the word 'provided' the negative words, so that it will read 'provided, that this tribunal shall be authorized to go behind the returns.' I shall vote against that amendment to the amendment, as a matter of course, for the object of the committee, I believe successfully and undeniably attained, was to have this great cause tried upon the law as it is now, and not to declare that it should be tried upon some new principle of law, whichever way we might think we would be glad to have a new principle of law."

MR. THURMAN said: "Whatever may be my opinion on the subject of the amendment offered by the Senator from Vermont or the amendment offered by the Senator from Indiana, I shall vote against them both. I have a very strong and decided opinion, I may say, that to a certain extent the decision of a canvassing or returning board may be inquired into, gone behind, in the language here used; but whatever may be my opinion upon those subjects, I shall not vote for either of these propositions, because to attempt to decide either of them is to kill the bill."

Again: "I only want to add that I shall vote against both these amendments, because either one of them kills the bill, and that without any reference to their intrinsic merits at all."

MR. MORTON: "There is in this bill a direction that this commission shall find out who have been duly appointed electors, and for that purpose they are authorized to take into consideration reports, petitions, depositions, and other papers. We know the vital part of this bill is this very question of going behind the returns. The Senator from Ohio [MR. THURMAN] avows that he believes they can go behind to a certain extent, and he undoubtedly believes that this bill will permit them to go behind. Nay, more, I fear that this bill requires them to go behind. It requires them to find a fact independent of State certification, and that fact is who have been elected as electors. Six months ago perhaps you could hardly have found a lawyer in this whole country who would say that Congress or anybody had a right to go behind the return from a State in a matter of this kind; and now in fact we find a great party that stands upon that doctrine; and here is an equivocating, a shuffling bill, a juggle of words, a tangle of phraseology, under which the Democratic party expect to be able to go behind the returns from a State, and they would not vote for this bill unless they expected to be able to do it. As the Senator from California has said, somebody is to be cheated. They do not expect to be cheated. They are not going into this thing with a blindfold on; they understand what they are about; and in taking this bill they expect to be allowed to do just that which is absolutely vital to Democratic success, to go behind the returns."

MR. EDMUNDS: "I am not going to take time in debate; but inasmuch as I have seen, in some decisions of the Supreme Court, references to debates to find out what the law meant, I cannot let what the Senator from Indiana has just said go ex parte as the opinion of the Senate. I wish to say that I disagree with him entirely with respect to the construction he puts on this bill. It does not confer power to go behind or to stay before returns, but it imposes the duty of taking the law as it is and applying it to the question that they are to determine; and if one of the questions that somebody is to determine is not what is the electoral vote of the States and who are the electors of the State, then I do not know what is the use (to use an Irish phrase) of having these double returns at all to give us so much trouble. But, as I say, I do not rise to debate at all, but only to remark that I disagree entirely with the construction the Senator from Indiana has put on it. That saves my distance if the debate should ever be referred to as to what this law means."

MR. THURMAN: "Mr. President, this bill gives to this commission the same powers that the Houses of Congress separately or together have, whatever those powers are. If constitutionally they may go behind the decision of a returning board, this commission can go behind it; if constitutionally they cannot go behind that decision, this commission cannot go behind it; and therefore it is a mere license of speech to call this a shuffling bill. You might as well call any bill such as we so often pass authorizing the Court of Claims to decide on a claim against the United States, or authorizing any other court to decide a claim, a shuffling bill, because in the act we pass we do not decide the case itself, but submit to the judicial determination of the court."

The amendment of MR. EDMUNDS was then rejected—yeas, 1 (Mr. COOPER), nays, 61, not voting, 12 (Messrs. Anthony, Ferry, Harvey, Hitchcock, Logan, Norwood, Oglesby, Saulsbury, Sharon, Spencer, Wadleigh, and Wallace).

The amendment of MR. MORTON was then rejected—yeas 18, nays 47, not voting 9, as follows:

YEAS—Messrs. Boutwell, Bruce, Cameron of Pennsylvania, Cameron of Wisconsin, Clayton, Dawes, Dorsey, Hamilton, Hamlin, Ingalls, Mitchell, Morton, Paddock, Patterson, Sargent, Sherman, Teller, and West—18.

NAYS—Messrs. Alcorn, Allison, Barnum, Bayard, Blaine, Bogy, Booth, Burnside, Chaffee, Christiancy, Cockrell, Conkling, Conover, Cooper, Cragin, Davis, Dennis, Eaton, Edmunds, Frelinghuysen, Goldthwaite, Gordon, Howe, Johnston, Jones of Florida, Jones of Nevada, Kelly, Kernan, McCreery, McDonald, McMillan, Maxey, Merrimon, Morrill, Price, Randolph, Ransom, Robertson, Saulsbury, Sharon, Stevenson, Thurman, Wallace, Whyte, Windom, Withers, and Wright—47.

NOT VOTING—Messrs. Anthony, Ferry, Harvey, Hitchcock, Logan, Norwood, Oglesby, Spencer, and Wadleigh—9.

The bill passed as reported from the Committee.

IN HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Mr. PAYNE, who reported the bill, declined to yield for any amendment; and there was but one vote.

RULES OF THE COMMISSION.

RULE I. The commission shall appoint a secretary, two assistant secretaries, a marshal and two deputy marshals, a stenographer, and such messengers as shall be needful; to hold during the pleasure of the commission.

RULE II. On any subject submitted to the commission, a hearing shall be had; and counsel shall be allowed to conduct the case on each side.

RULE III. Counsel, not exceeding two in number on each side, will be heard by the commission on the merits of any case presented to it, not longer than two hours being allowed to each side, unless a longer time and additional counsel shall be specially authorized by the commission. In the hearing of interlocutory questions, but one counsel shall be heard on each side, and he not longer than fifteen minutes, unless the commission allow further time and additional counsel; and printed arguments will be received.

RULE IV. The objectors to any certificate or vote may select two of their number to support their objections in oral argument, and to advocate the validity of any certificate or vote the validity of which they maintain; and in like manner the objectors to any other certificate may select two of their number for a like purpose; but, under this rule, not more than four persons shall speak, and neither side shall occupy more than two hours.

RULE V. Applications for process to compel the attendance of witnesses or the production of written or documentary testimony may be made by counsel on either side. And all process shall be served and executed by the marshal of the Commission or his deputies. Depositions hereafter taken for use before the Commission shall be sufficiently authenticated if taken before any commissioner of the Circuit Courts of the United States, or any clerk or deputy clerk of any court of the United States.

RULE VI. Admission to the public sittings of the Commission shall be regulated in such manner as the president of the Commission shall direct.

RULE VII. The Commission will sit, unless otherwise ordered, in the room of the Supreme Court of the United States, and with open doors (excepting when in consultation), unless otherwise directed.

WASHINGTON, D. C., January 31, 1877.

ACTION OF THE COMMISSION,

AND OF EACH HOUSE, IN COUNTING.

February 1.—The two Houses met in joint meeting under the law, and votes of Alabama, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Connecticut and Delaware were read and counted. When the certificates from Florida were read—one of the vote of the Hayes College, another of the Tilden, and a third certificate received January 21—objections were made to each of these papers, and they were all referred to the Commission, who proceeded to hear arguments from objectors and counsel.

THE FLORIDA VOTE.

February 7.—In the Commission, Mr. Justice MILLER submitted the following order:

Ordered, That no evidence will be received or considered by the Commission which was not submitted to the joint convention of the two Houses by the President of the Senate with the different certificates, except such as relates to the eligibility of F. C. Humphreys, one of the electors.

Which was agreed to—yeas 8, nays 7, as follows:

YEAS—Messrs. Bradley, Edmunds, Frelinghuysen, Garfield, Hoar, Miller, Morton, and Strong—8.

NAYS—Messrs. Abbott, Bayard, Clifford, Field, Hunton, Payne, and Thurman—7.

Mr. Representative ABBOTT submitted the following order:

Ordered, That in the case of Florida the Commission will receive evidence relating to the eligibility of Frederick C. Humphreys, one of the persons named in certificate No. 1 as elector.

Which was agreed to—yeas 8, nays 7, as follows:

YEAS—Messrs. Abbott, Bayard, Bradley, Clifford, Field, Hunton, Payne, and Thurman—8.

NAYS — Messrs Edmunds, Frelinghuysen, Garfield, Hoar, Miller, Morton, and Strong—7.

Feb. 9.—After further argument, the Commission voted.

Mr. Commissioner THURMAN submitted the following:

Resolved, That F. C. Humphreys was not a United States shipping commissioner on the 7th day of November, 1876.

After debate, he withdrew it.

Mr. Com'r EDMUNDS submitted a resolution that the Hayes Electors (naming them) were duly appointed electors.

Mr. Com'r HUNTON offered as a substitute that the Tilden Electors (naming them) were duly appointed.

NAYS — Messrs. Bradley, Edmunds, Frelinghuysen, Garfield, Hoar, Miller, Morton, and Strong—8.

Mr. Com'r GARFIELD submitted a resolution that the four Hayes electors (naming them) were duly appointed electors, and that the votes cast by them are the votes provided for by the Constitution of the United States.

Which was agreed to—yeas 8, nays 7. The following report on the subject was adopted by the same vote:

The ground of this decision, stated briefly, as required by said act, is as follows:

That it is not competent under the Constitution and the law, as it existed at the date of the passage of said act, to go into evidence aliunde on the papers opened by the President of the Senate in the presence of the two Houses to prove that other persons than those regularly certified to by the governor of the State of Florida, in and according to the determination and declaration of their appointment by the board of State canvassers of said State prior to the time required for the performance of their duties, had been appointed electors, or by counter-proof to show that they had not, and that all proceedings of the courts or acts of the Legislature, or of the executive of Florida, subsequent to the casting of the votes of the electors on the prescribed day, are inadmissible for any such purpose.

As to the objection made to the eligibility of Mr. Humphreys, the Commission is of opinion that, without reference to the question of the effect of the vote of an ineligible elector, the evidence does not show that he held the office of shipping commissioner on the day when the electors were appointed.

The Commission has also decided, and does hereby decide and report, that, as a consequence of the foregoing, and upon the grounds before stated, neither of the papers purporting to be certificates of the electoral votes of said State of Florida, numbered two (2) and three (3) by the Commission, and herewith returned, are the certificates of the votes provided for by the Constitution of the United States, and that they ought not to be counted as such.

February 10.—The two Houses again met, and the above decision was submitted.

Objections to it were offered on behalf of six Senators and twelve Representatives, and the two Houses separated.

In the HOUSE, Mr. LYNDE moved that the House take a recess till Monday the 11th; which was agreed to—yeas 162, nays 107. [The affirmative vote was solidly Democratic; and the negative Republican, except Messrs. Carr, Haymond, Le Moyne, Morgan, and Whitehouse.]

In SENATE, a resolution "that the decision of the Commission upon the electoral vote of the

Digitized by Google

State of Florida stand as the judgment of the Senate, the objections made thereto to the contrary notwithstanding," was agreed to—yeas 44, nays 24, not voting 7, as follows:

YEAS — Messrs. Alcorn, Allison, Anthony, Blaine, Booth, Boutwell, Bruce, Burnside, Cameron of Pennsylvania, Cameron of Wisconsin, Chaffee, Christiancy, Clayton, Conkling, Conover, Cragin, Dawes, Dorsey, Ferry, Frelinghuysen, Hamilton, Hamlin, Harvey, Hitchcock, Howe, Ingalls, Logan, McMillan, Mitchell, Morrill, Morton, Oglesby, Paddock, Patterson, Robertson, Sargent, Sharon, Sherman, Spencer, Teller, Wadleigh, West, Windom, and Wright—44.

NAYS — Messrs. Bailey, Barnum, Bayard, Bogy, Cockrell, Cooper, Davis, Eaton, Goldthwaite, Hereford, Johnston, Jones of Florida, Kernan, McCreery, McDonald, Maxey, Merrimon, Norwood, Randolph, Ransom, Saulsbury, Stevenson, Wallace, Whyte, and Withers—24.

NOT VOTING — Messrs. Dennis, Edmunds, Gordon, Jones of Nevada, Kelly, and Thurman—7.

February 12.—In the HOUSE, Mr. FIELD offered this resolution:

Ordered, That the counting of the electoral vote from the State of Florida shall not proceed in conformity with the decision of the Electoral Commission, but that the votes of Wilkinson Call, James E. Yonge, Robert B. Hilton, and Robert Bullock be counted as the votes from the State of Florida for President and Vice-President of the United States.

Mr. HALE offered this as a substitute:

Strike out the word "not," and also strike out all after the word "Commission," to the end, so that it will read:

Ordered, That the counting of the electoral vote from the State of Florida shall proceed in conformity with the decision of the Electoral Commission.

Which was disagreed to—yeas 103, nays 167, not voting 20.

The resolution of Mr. Field was then agreed to—yeas 168, nays 103, not voting 19, as follows:

YEAS — Messrs. Abbott, Ainsworth, Anderson, Ashe, Atkins, Bagby, J. H. Bagley, jr., Banning, Bell, Blackburn, Bland, Bliss, Blount, Boone, Bradford, Bright, *J. Y. THE LOUISIANA VOTE.

When the certificates from Louisiana were opened and read—two of the vote of the Hayes college, and one of the Tilden—objections were made to each of these papers, and they were all referred to the Commission, who proceeded to hear argument from objectors and counsel.

February 13.—In the Commission, argument was begun, and continued till

February 16.—Mr. Com'r HOAR submitted the following order respecting evidence:

Ordered, That the evidence offered be not received.

Mr. Com'r ABBOTT offered this as a substitute:

Resolved, That so much of the act of Louisiana establishing a returning board for that State is unconstitutional, and the acts of said returning board are void.

Which was disagreed to—yeas 7, nays 9, as follows:

YEAS—Messrs. Abbott, Bayard, Clifford, Field, Hunton, Payne, and Thurman—7.

NAYS—Messrs. Bradley, Edmunds, Frelinghuysen, Garfield, Hoar, Miller, Morton, and Strong—8.

Mr. Commissioner ABBOTT offered the following as a substitute:

Resolved, That evidence will be received to show that the returning board of Louisiana, at the time of canvassing and compiling the vote of that State at the last election in that State, was not legally constituted under the law establishing it, in this: that it was composed of four persons all of one political party, instead of five persons of different political parties.

Which was lost by the same vote.

Mr. Commissioner ABBOTT offered the following as a substitute:

Resolved, That the Commission will receive testimony on the subject of the frauds alleged in the specifications of the counsel for the objectors to certificates Nos. 1 and 3.

Lost by the same vote.

Mr. Commissioner ABBOTT offered the following as a substitute:

Resolved, That testimony tending to show that the so-called returning board of Louisiana had no jurisdiction to canvass the votes for electors of President and Vice-President is admissible.

Lost by the same vote.

Mr. Commissioner ABBOTT offered the following as a substitute:

Resolved, That evidence is admissible that the statements and affidavits purporting to have been made and forwarded to said returning board in pursuance of the provisions of section 26 of the election law of 1872, alleging riot, tumult, intimidation and violence at or near certain polls and in certain parishes, were falsely fabricated and forged by certain disreputable persons under the direction and with the knowledge of said returning board, and that said returning board, knowing said statements and affidavits to be false and forged, and that none of the said statements or affidavits were made in the manner or form or within the time required by law, did knowingly, willfully and fraudulently fail and refuse to canvass or compile more than ten thousand votes lawfully cast, as is shown by the statements of votes of the commissioners of election.

Lost by the same vote.

Mr. Commissioner HUNTON offered the following as a substitute:

Resolved, That evidence be received to prove that the votes cast and given at said election on the 7th of November last for the election of electors, as shown by the returns made by the commissioners of election from the several polls or voting-places in said State, have never been compiled or canvassed, and that the said returning board never even pretended to compile or canvass the returns made by said commissioners of election, but that the said returning board only pretended to canvass the returns made by said supervisors.

Lost by the same vote.

Mr. Commissioner BAYARD offered the following as a substitute:

Resolved, That no person holding an office of trust or profit under the United States is eligible to be appointed an elector, and that this Commission will receive evidence tending to prove such ineligibility as offered by counsel for objectors to certificates 1 and 3.

Lost by the same vote.

Mr. Commissioner PAYNE moved to strike the word "not" from the pending order, which was lost by the same vote.

The order submitted by Mr. Commissioner HOAR was then adopted—yeas 8, nays 7.

Mr. Commissioner MONTON offered the following:

Resolved, That the persons named as electors in certificate No. 1 were the lawful electors of the State of Louisiana, and that their votes are the votes provided by the Constitution of the United States, and should be counted for President and Vice-President.

Mr. Commissioner THURMAN offered the following as a substitute:

Strike out all after the word "resolved," and insert:

That inasmuch as the votes of the people of Louisiana for electors of President and Vice-President in November last have never been legally canvassed and declared, therefore the votes purporting to be votes of electors of that State for President and Vice-President ought not to be counted, and no electors of President and Vice-President can be regarded as chosen in that State.

The substitute was disagreed to—yeas 7, nays 8.

Mr. Commissioner HUNTON moved to amend by striking out all after the word "resolved," and inserting:

That the votes purporting to be the electoral votes of the State of Louisiana be not counted.

Which was disagreed to—yeas 7, nays 8.

Mr. Commissioner MONTON'S resolution was then agreed to—yeas 8, nays 7.

Same day.—The following report on the subject was adopted by the same vote, and duly forwarded:

The Electoral Commission mentioned in said act, having received certain certificates and papers purporting to be certificates, and papers accompanying the same, of the electoral votes from the State of Louisiana, and the objections thereto submitted to it under said act, now report that it has duly considered the same pursuant to said act, and has by a majority of votes decided, and does hereby decide, that the votes of William P. Kellogg, J. Henri Burch, Peter Joseph, Lionel A. Sheldon, Morris Marks, Aaron B. Levissee, Orlando H. Brewster, and Oscar Joffrion, named in the certificate of William P. Kellogg, governor of said State, which votes are certified by said persons, as appears by the certificate submitted to the Commission as aforesaid, and marked numbers one (1) and three (3) by said Commission, and herewith returned, are the votes provided for by the Constitution of the United States, and that the same are lawfully to be counted as therein certified, namely:

Eight votes for Rutherford B. Hayes, of the State of Ohio, for President; and Eight votes for William A. Wheeler, of the State of New York, for Vice-President.

The Commission has by a majority of votes also decided, and does hereby decide and report, that the eight persons first before named were duly appointed electors in and by the State of Louisiana.

The brief ground of this decision is that it appears, upon such evidence as by the Constitution and the law named in said act of Congress is competent and pertinent to the consideration of the subject, that the before-mentioned electors appear to have been lawfully appointed such electors of President and Vice-President of the United States for the term beginning March 4, A. D. 1877, of the State of Louisiana, and that they voted as such at the time and in the manner provided for by the Constitution of the United States and the law.

And the Commission has by a majority of votes decided, and does hereby decide, that it is not competent under the Constitution and the law as it existed at the date of the passage of said act to go into evidence aliunde the papers opened by the President of the Senate in the presence of the two Houses to prove that other persons than those regularly certified to by the Governor of the State of Louisiana on and according to the determination and declaration of their appointment by the returning officers for elections in the said State prior to the time required for the performance of their duties had been appointed electors, or by counter-proof to show that they had not; or that the determination of the said returning officers was not in accordance with the truth and the fact; the Commission by a majority of votes being of opinion that it is not within the jurisdiction of the two Houses of Congress assembled to count the votes for President and Vice-President to enter upon a trial of such questions.

The Commission, by a majority of votes, is also of opinion that it is not competent to prove that any of said persons so appointed electors as aforesaid held an office of trust or profit under the United States at the time when they were appointed, or that they were ineligible under the laws of the State, or any other matter offered to be proved aliunde the said certificates and papers.

The Commission is also of opinion, by a majority of votes, that the returning officers of elections who canvassed the votes at the election for electors in Louisiana were a legally constituted body by virtue of a constitutional law, and that a vacancy in said body did not vitiate its proceedings.

The Commission has also decided, and does hereby decide by a majority of votes, and report that as a consequence of the foregoing, and upon the grounds before stated, the paper purporting to be a certificate of the electoral votes of said State of Louisiana, objected to by TIMOTHY O. HOWE and others, marked "N. C. No. 2" by the Commission and herewith returned, is not the certificate of the votes provided for by the Constitution of the United States, and that they ought not to be counted as such.

Feb. 17, In SENATE.—A motion to inform the House that the Senate is ready to meet the House and proceed in the count was agreed to.

In HOUSE.—Mr. LAMAR moved that the Senate be notified that the House will be prepared at 11 o'clock A. M., on Monday, 19th, to proceed with the count, which was agreed to—yeas 152, nays 111. The affirmative vote was exclusively Democratic, and the negative Republican—except Messrs. Anderson, Haymond, Savage, Southard, Tarbox, Walling, E. Wells, and Whitehouse, Democrats. The House then took a recess till Monday morning—yeas 147, nays 107.

Feb. 19.—The two Houses again met, and the above decision was submitted, when objections to it were offered, one on behalf of eighteen Senators and one hundred and forty-eight Representatives, another on behalf of seven Senators and six Representatives, and a third on behalf of five Senators and seven Representatives—all Democrats. After which the two Houses separated.

In HOUSE.—Mr. WOOD, of N. Y., moved that the House take a recess till to-morrow at 10 o'clock A. M., which was agreed to—yeas 140, nays 130. [The affirmative vote was exclusively Democratic, and the negative Republican, except Messrs. Ainsworth, J. H. Bagley, jr., Bell, Campbell, Carr, Finley, Goodin, Hatcher, Haymond, Hopkins, F. Jones, Kehr, LeMoyne, Morgan, Neal, Phelps, Powell, Stevenson, Tarbox, Warner, E. Wells, Willis, Wilshire, and Yeates, Democrats.]

In SENATE.—Mr. SHERMAN submitted the following:

Resolved, That the decision of the Commission upon the electoral vote of the State of Louisiana stand as the judgment of the Senate, the objections made thereto to the contrary notwithstanding.

Mr. FERRYMAN offered the following substitute:

Ordered, That the votes purporting to be the electoral votes for President and Vice-President, and which were given by William P. Kellogg, J. H. Burch, Peter Joseph, L. A. Sheldon, Morris Marks, A. B. Levissee, O. H. Brewster, and Oscar Joffrion, claiming to be electors for the State of Louisiana, be not counted, the decision of the Commission to the contrary notwithstanding.

Which was disagreed to—yeas 28 (D.), nays 41 (R.), by a strict party vote.

NOT VOTING—Messrs. Blaine, Conkling, Dorsey, Edmunds, Hamilton and Thurman—6.

Mr. SHERMAN's motion was then agreed to—yeas 41, nays 28, a strict party vote.

NOT VOTING—Messrs. Blaine, Conkling, Dorsey, Edmunds, Hamilton, and Thurman—6.

Mr. GIBSON offered the following resolution:

Ordered, That the votes purporting to be electoral votes for President and Vice-President which were given by William P. Kellogg, J. Henri Burch, Peter Joseph, Lionel A. Sheldon, Morris Marks, Aaron B. Levissee, Orlando H. Brewster, and Oscar Joffrion, claiming to be electors for the State of Louisiana, be not counted.

Which was agreed to—yeas 178, nays 99, not voting 18—a party vote, Democrats for, except Messrs. Pierce and Seelye, and Republicans against it.

THE COUNT RESUMED.

Feb. 20.—The two Houses again met, and the vote of Louisiana was counted for Hayes and Wheeler, under the law. The count was then resumed, and the votes of Maine, Maryland, and Massachusetts were counted.

THE MICHIGAN VOTE.

When the vote of Michigan was reached, objections to its counting were offered on behalf of four Senators and nine Representatives.

[The objections were to the point that Benton Hanchett was voted for as an elector and certified as appointed an elector; that on the day of election, and for a long time prior thereto, and up to December 6th, 1876, he was a U. S. Commissioner by appointment of the U. S. Court for Michigan; that the statute of Michigan authorized the filling of vacancies in the office of elector occasioned by death, refusal to act, or neglect to attend the meeting of the college; but there was no vacancy in the office for which Hanchett was voted and to which he was not appointed by reason of the disqualification aforesaid; that Daniel L. Crossman, who was chosen to said vacancy by the other electors, was wholly without authority of law and was void; and that his vote as an elector should not be counted.]

The two Houses separated.

IN SENATE.—Mr. ALLISON offered these resolutions:

Resolved, That the objection made to the vote of Daniel L. Crossman, one of the electors of Michigan, is not good in law and is not sustained by any lawful evidence.

Resolved, That said vote be counted with the other votes of the electors of said State, notwithstanding the objections made thereto.

Mr. WHYTE offered this as a substitute:

Ordered, That while it is the sense of the Senate that no Senator or Representative or person holding an office of trust or profit under the United States shall be appointed an elector, and that this provision of the Constitution shall be carried in its whole spirit into rigid execution, yet that the proof is not such as to justify the exclusion of the vote of Daniel L. Crossman as one of the electors of the State of Michigan, and that his vote should be counted.

Which was disagreed to—yeas 27 (D.), nays 39 (R.), by a strict party vote.

NOT VOTING—Messrs. Blaine, Conkling, Edmunds, Gordon, Hamilton, Hitchcock, Oglesby, Sharon, and Thurman—9.

Mr. MCDONALD moved to strike out the words "is not good in law and," so as to read:

Resolved, That the objection made to the vote of Daniel L. Crossman, one of the electors of the State of Michigan, is not sustained by any lawful evidence.

Which was disagreed to—yeas 26 (D.), nays 38 (R.), by a strict party vote.

NOT VOTING—Messrs. Barnum, Blaine, Conkling, Edmunds, Gordon, Hamilton, Harvey, Hitchcock, Oglesby, Sharon, and Thurman—11.

The first resolution of Mr. ALLISON was then agreed to—yeas 40 (R.), nays 19 (D.), by a strict party vote.

ABSENT—Messrs. Bayard, Blaine, Cockrell, Conkling, Conover, Eaton, Edmunds, Gordon, Hamilton, Johnston, Kernan, Saulsbury, Sharon, Thurman, Wallace, Whyte—16.

The second resolution was then agreed to—yeas 63, nays 0, not voting 12.

Same day—IN HOUSE, Mr. TUCKER offered this resolution:

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That Daniel L. Crossman was not appointed an elector by the State of Michigan as its Legislature directed, and that the vote of said Daniel L. Crossman as an elector of said State be not counted.

Mr. JENKS offered this as a substitute:

Whereas the fact being established that it is about twelve years since the alleged ineligible elector exercised any of the functions of a United States commissioner, it is not sufficiently proven that at the time of his appointment he was an officer of the United States: Therefore,

Resolved, That the vote objected to be counted.

The substitute was adopted without a division, and the resolution was thereby amended.

Same day.—At 4:45 P. M., the two Houses remet, and the vote of Michigan was counted for Hayes and Wheeler under the law. The votes of the States of Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, and Nebraska were severally counted.

THE NEVADA VOTE.

When the certificate from the State of Nevada was read, objection was made to its being counted, on behalf of three Senators, and seven Representatives. [The point was that R. M. Daggett, one of the electors, was on the 7th of November, 1876, a United States Commissioner for the Circuit and District Courts for Nevada, and held therefore an office of trust and profit under the United States, and as such could not be constitutionally appointed an elector under the Constitution of the United States; and that his vote as an elector should not be counted.]

The two Houses separated.

At 5:45, the House took a recess till to-morrow at 10 A. M.—yeas 97, nays 88. The Senate, at 6:15 P. M., also took a recess till to-morrow at 10 A. M.

Feb. 20.—The SENATE voted to count Mr. Daggett's vote without division.

Feb. 21.—In HOUSE, Mr. Springer moved that the vote of Mr. Daggett be counted; which was agreed to without a division.

Whereupon the two Houses again met, and the vote of the State of Nevada was counted for Hayes and Wheeler under the law. The votes from New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, and Ohio were severally counted.

THE OREGON VOTE.

When the vote of Oregon was read, objections were made, on behalf of sundry Senators and Representatives, to the count of either of the certificates. And the two Houses separated, the papers being referred to the Electoral Commission.

Feb. 22.—Argument began and was continued till

Feb. 23.—Mr. Commissioner EDMUNDS offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the certificate signed by E. A. Cronin, J. N. T. Miller, and John Parker, purporting to cast the electoral votes of the State of Oregon, does not contain nor certify the constitutional votes to which said State is entitled.

Mr. Commissioner FIELD offered the following as a substitute:

Whereas J. W. Watts, designated in certificate No. 1 as an elector of the State of Oregon for President and Vice-President, on the day of election, namely, the 7th of November, 1876, held an office of trust and profit under the United States: Therefore,

Resolved, That the said J. W. Watts was then ineligible to the office of elector within the express terms of the Constitution.

Which was disagreed to—yeas 7, nays 8, as follows:

YEAS—Messrs. Abbott, Bayard, Clifford, Field, Hunton, Payne, and Thurman—7

Digitized by Google

NAYS—Messrs. Bradley, Edmunds, Frelinghuysen, Garfield, Hoar, Miller, Morton, and Strong—8.

Mr. Commissioner FIELD offered the following substitute for the resolution:

Whereas at the election held on the 7th of November, 1876, in the State of Oregon, for electors of President and Vice-President, W. H. Odell, J. W. Watts, and John C. Cartwright received the highest number of votes cast for electors, but the said Watts then holding an office of trust and profit under the United States, was ineligible to the office of elector: Therefore,

Resolved, That the said Odell and Cartwright were the only persons duly elected at said election, and there was a failure on the part of the State to appoint a third elector.

Which was disagreed to, by the same vote.

Mr. Commissioner FIELD offered the following as a substitute for the resolution:

Whereas, the Legislature of Oregon has made no provision for the appointment of an elector under the act of Congress, where there was a failure to make a choice on the day prescribed by law: Therefore,

Resolved, That the attempted selection of a third elector by the two persons chosen was inoperative and void.

Which was disagreed to by the same vote.

Mr. Commissioner BAYARD offered the following as a substitute:

Resolved, That the vote of W. H. Odell and the vote of J. C. Cartwright, cast for Rutherford B. Hayes, of Ohio, for President of the United States, and for William A. Wheeler, of New York, for Vice-President of the United States, are the votes provided for by the Constitution of the United States, and that the aforesaid Odell and Cartwright, and they only, were the persons duly appointed electors in the State of Oregon at the election held November 7, A. D. 1876, there having been a failure at the said election to appoint a third elector in accordance with the Constitution and laws of the United States and the laws of the State of Oregon; and that the two votes aforesaid should be counted, and none other, from the State of Oregon.

Which was disagreed to, by the same vote.

The question recurred on the original resolution offered by Mr. Commissioner EDMUNDS, as follows:

Resolved, That the certificate signed by E. A. Cronin, J. N. T. Miller, and John Parker, purporting to cast the electoral votes of the State of Oregon, does not contain nor certify the constitutional votes to which said State is entitled.

Which was agreed to—yeas 15, nays 0, as follows:

YEAS—Messrs. Abbott, Bayard, Bradley, Clifford, Edmunds, Field, Frelinghuysen, Garfield, Hoar, Hunton, Miller, Morton, Payne, Strong, and Thurman.

Mr. Commissioner MORTON offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That W. H. Odell, John C. Cartwright, and John W. Watts, the persons named as electors in certificate No. 1, were the lawful electors of the State of Oregon, and that their votes are the votes provided for by the Constitution of the United States, and should be counted for President and Vice-President of the United States.

Mr. Commissioner HUNTON moved to amend the resolution by striking out the name of John W. Watts; which was disagreed to—yeas 7, nays 8.

The original resolution of Mr. Commissioner MORTON was then agreed to—yeas 8, nays 7, as follows:

YEAS—Messrs. Bradley, Edmunds, Frelinghuysen, Garfield, Hoar, Miller, Morton, and Strong—8.

NAYS—Messrs. Abbott, Bayard, Clifford, Field, Hunton, Payne, and Thurman—7.

The following report on the subject was adopted by the same vote—8 to 7:

The brief ground of this decision is that it appears, upon such evidence as by the Constitution and the law named in said act of Congress is competent and pertinent to the consideration of the subject, that the beforementioned electors appear to have been lawfully appointed such electors of President and Vice-President of the United States for the term beginning March 4, A. D. 1877, of the State of Oregon, and that they voted as such at the time and in the manner provided for by the Constitution of the United States and the law.

And we are further of opinion that by the laws of the State of Oregon the duty of canvassing the returns of all the votes given at an election for electors of President and Vice-President was imposed upon the Secretary of State, and upon no one else.

That the Secretary of State did canvass the returns in the case before us, and thereby ascertained that J. C. Cartwright, W. H. Odell, and J. W. Watts had a majority of all the votes given for electors, and had the highest number of votes for that office, and by the express language of the statute those persons are deemed elected.

That in obedience to his duty, the Secretary made a canvass and tabulated statement of the votes showing this result, which, according to law, he placed on file in his office on the 4th day of December, A. D. 1876. All this appears by an official certificate under the seal of the State and signed by him, and delivered by him to the electors, and forwarded by them to the Pre ident of the Senate, with their votes.

That the refusal or failure of the Governor of Oregon to sign the certificate of the election of the persons so elected, does not have the effect of defeating their appointment as such electors.

That the act of the Governor of Oregon in giving to E. A. Cronin a certificate of his election, though he received a thousand votes less than Watts, on the ground that the latter was ineligible, was without authority of law, and is therefore void.

That although the evidence shows that Watts was a postmaster at the time of his election, that fact is rendered immaterial by his resignation, both as postmaster and elector, and his subsequent appointment, to fill the vacancy so made, by the electoral college.

The Commission has also decided, and does hereby decide, by a majority of votes, and report that, as a cause of the foregoing, and upon the grounds before stated, the paper purporting to be a certificate of the electoral vote of said State of Oregon, signed by E. A. Cronin, J. N. T. Miller, and John Parker, marked "No. 2, N. C.," by the Commission, and herewith returned, is not the certificate of the votes provided for by the Constitution of the United States, and that they ought not to be counted as such.

February 24.—The two Houses again met, when objections were made to counting the vote of Oregon, on behalf of six Senators and eight Representatives.

Same day.—In SENATE Mr. SARGENT offered the following:

Resolved, That the decision of the Commission upon the electoral vote of the State of Oregon stand as the judgment of the Senate, the objections made thereto to the contrary notwithstanding.

Mr COCKRELL offered this as a substitute:

That inasmuch as J. W. Watts was, on November 7, 1876, a deputy United States postmaster, and held an office of trust and profit under the United States, he was ineligible, by the terms of the Constitution, to the office of elector for the State of Oregon, and W. H. Odell and J. C. Cartwright were the only electors duly appointed by the State of Oregon, and their votes only should be counted, and the decision of the Electoral Commission should stand as the judgment of the Senate only so far as their decision sustains the votes cast by said Odell and Cartwright.

Which was disagreed to—yeas 24 (D.), nays 39 (R.), by a strict party vote.

NOT VOTING—Messrs. Davis, Edmunds, Hamilton, Hamlin, Kelly, Oglesby, Patterson, Randolph, Sharon, Stevenson, Thurman, and Windom—12.

The motion of Mr. SARGENT was then agreed to—yeas 40 (R.), nays 24 (D.), by a strict party vote.

NOT VOTING—Messrs. Conover, Davis, Edmunds, Hamilton, Hamlin, McDonald, Patterson, Randolph, Stevenson, Thurman and Windom—11.

February 24.—In HOUSE Mr. CLYMER offered the following:

Resolved, That for the more careful consideration of the objections to the report of the Electoral Commission in the Oregon case, the House now take a recess until ten o'clock on Monday morning.

Which was disagreed to—yeas 112, nays 158, not voting 20. The affirmative vote was exclusively Democratic; the negative Republican, with the addition of the following Democrats: Messrs. Bagby, Beebe, Bell, Bland, Blount, J. Y. Brown, Campbell, Candler, Carr, Cutler, Durham, Eden, Egbert, Felton, Goodin, Hancock, Hardenbergh, Harrison, Hatcher, Haymond, A. S. Hewitt, Hill, Kehr, Le Moyne, Lord, Metcalfe, Milliken, Mills, Morgan, Neal, New, Phelps, Powell, Reagan, J. Robbins, Savage, Schleicher, Stevenson, Tarbox, Teese, Throckmorton, C. C. B. Walker, Ward, Warren, Watterson, E. Wells, Whitehouse, A. S. Williams, J. Williams, Willis, Wilshire and F. Wood.

Mr. HALE offered the following order:

Ordered, That the count of the electoral vote of the State of Oregon shall proceed in conformity with the decision of the Electoral Commission.

Mr. LANE offered the following as a substitute:

Ordered, That the vote purporting to be an electoral vote for President and Vice-President, and which was given by one J. W. Watts, claiming to be an elector for the State of Oregon, be not counted.

The substitute was agreed to—yeas 151, nays 106, not voting, 38. The affirmative vote was exclusively Democratic, the negative Republican, with the addition of Messrs. Bagby, Campbell, J. Reilly, and Stevenson, Democrats.

Whereupon the two Houses again met, and the vote of Oregon was counted for Hayes and Wheeler, under the law.

THE PENNSYLVANIA VOTE.

When the certificate of the vote of Pennsylvania was read, objection was made on behalf of three Senators and ten Representatives to counting the vote of Henry A. Boggs, one of the electors.

[The point of objection was that Daniel J. Morrell, who was voted for on the 7th of November, 1876, was, at the time, a Centennial Commissioner, an office of trust and profit under the act of Congress of March 3, 1871, and was, therefore, constitutionally ineligible; that the electors chose Henry A. Boggs to act in the place of Mr. Morrell, who failed to attend, and that such election was without authority of law, and null and void, there having been no vacancy to which he could be chosen.]

The two Houses separated.

In SENATE, Mr. CAMERON, of Pennsylvania, moved that the vote of Henry A. Boggs be counted, which was agreed to without a division.

In HOUSE, a recess was taken till Monday the 26th—yeas 138, nays 122, not voting 35. The affirmative vote was exclusively Democratic; the negative Republican, with the addition of the following Democrats: Bell, Campbell, Cutler, Hatcher, Haymond, G. M. Landers, Le Moyne, Lord, Morgan, Neal, Powell, Stevenson, C. C. B. Walker, Ward, Warner, Watterson, E. Wells, Whitehouse, A. S. Williams, and Willis.

February 26.—Mr. KELLEY offered a resolution to count the vote of Henry A. Boggs.

Mr. STENGER offered this substitute:

Resolved, That the vote of Henry A. Boggs, as an elector for the State of Pennsylvania, should not be counted, because the said Boggs was not appointed an elector for said State in such manner as its Legislature directed.

Which was agreed to—yeas 135, nays 119, not voting 36. The affirmative vote was exclusively Democratic; the negative Republican, with the addition of Messrs. Ainsworth, Campbell, Carr, Caulfield, Cutler, Egbert, Goodin, Haymond, Hopkins, Powell, J. Reilly, Stevenson, Whitehouse, and Wilshire.

Whereupon the two Houses again met, and the vote of Pennsylvania was counted for Hayes and Wheeler, under the law.

THE RHODE ISLAND VOTE.

When the vote of the State of Rhode Island was read, objections to it were made on behalf of two Senators and fifteen Representatives.

The objections stated were:

First, That the said William S. Slater was not duly appointed elector by the State of Rhode Island at the election in said State on the 7th day of November, 1876.

Second, That George H. Corliss, according to the decision of the Electoral Commission rendered in the counting of the vote of John W. Watts, as elector of the State of Oregon, if said decision be law, was duly appointed elector from the State of Rhode Island, and the substitution for him of the said Slater was illegal and unconstitutional.

Third, If in any event it was competent to complete the electoral college of Rhode Island by adding another elector thereto, it could only have been done, under the law as announced by the said Electoral Commission, if said decision be law and pursuant to the laws of said State, by act of the majority of the members of said college, and not by the Legislature of said State.

Whereupon the two Houses separated.

In SENATE, Mr. BURNSIDE offered an order that the vote of Wm. S. Slater be counted; which was agreed to—yeas 57, nays 0, not voting 18.

In HOUSE, a motion to take a recess till to-morrow morning was disagreed to—yeas 84, nays 178, not voting 28.

Mr. O'BRIEN moved that the vote of Wm. S. Slater be not counted.

Mr. RAINES moved as a substitute that it be counted; which was agreed to, without a division.

Whereupon the two Houses again met, and the vote of Rhode Island was counted for Hayes and Wheeler, under the law.

THE SOUTH CAROLINA VOTE.

When the vote of the State of South Carolina was read, objections were made to each of the two certificates, on behalf of sundry Senators and Representatives; and all the papers were referred to the Electoral Commission.

February 26.—Hon. ALLEN G. THURMAN, Senator, having notified the Commission of his physical inability for continued service, that fact was communicated to the Senate of the United States; whereupon Hon. FRANCIS KERNAN was elected to fill the vacancy, and he was duly qualified. And argument on the South Carolina case was begun, and continued till the afternoon of that day.

February 27.—Mr. Com'r MORTON offered the following:

Resolved, That it is not competent for the two Houses, assembled for the purpose of counting the votes for President and Vice-President, to inquire by evidence whether a State regularly represented in the two Houses of Congress and recognized as a State of the United States by the other departments of the Government, has a government republican in form.

Resolved, That while the existence of public disturbance and anarchy in any State to such an extent as to make it impossible for the State to exercise its right to appoint electors of President and Vice-President, and to express its will in that behalf, is sufficient cause for rejecting any electoral votes purporting to be the votes of electors appointed thereby, yet, that when a State is regularly represented as a State in the Congress of the United States, and is recognized as a State by the other departments of the Government, and has a government republican in form, and does appoint electors in the manner prescribed by the Legislature thereof, evidence cannot be received by the two Houses of Congress assembled to count the votes for President and Vice-President as aforesaid to show that disturbances existed at the time of election which may have interfered, to a greater or less extent, with the freedom of election at the polls in said State.

Resolved, That it is not competent for the two Houses of Congress, when assembled to count the votes for President and Vice-President, by taking evidence, to inquire into the regularity of the action of the President of the United States in sending a military force into any State for the preservation of order or the suppression of insurrection and domestic violence, in order by such proof to lay a ground for rejecting the electoral vote of said State.

Resolved, That in view of the propositions contained in the three foregoing resolutions the evidence offered to show that the State of South Carolina at the late election did not have a republican form of government, and the evidence offered on the subject of disorder and violence, and the presence of troops in said State during said election, is not competent, but that notwithstanding the offer of such evidence the electoral votes of South Carolina ought to be received and counted if not objectionable on other grounds.

Resolved, That the other objections to certificate No. 1 show no valid cause for rejecting the same.

Mr. Com'r FIELD offered the following as a substitute therefor:

Resolved, That evidence is admissible to show that prior to and during the election on the 7th day of November, 1876, in the State of South Carolina, there were unlawfully stationed in various parts of the State, at or near the polling-places, detachments of troops of the Army of the United States, by whose presence and interference qualified voters of the State were deprived of the right of suffrage, and a free choice by the people of presidential electors was prevented.

Resolved, That evidence is admissible to show that at the election on the 7th day of November, 1876, in South Carolina, there were stationed at the several polling-places in the State deputy marshals of the United States exceeding one thousand in number, by whose unlawful action and interference, under orders from the Department of Justice, qualified voters of the State were deprived of the right of suffrage, and a free choice by the people of presidential electors was prevented.

The substitute was disagreed to—yeas 7, nays 8.

Mr. Commissioner MORTON's resolution was then agreed to—yeas 8, nays 7.

Mr. Commissioner FRELINGHUYSEN offered the following:

Resolved, That Theodore R. Barker, S. McGowan, James W. Harrington, John Isaac Ingram, William Wallace, John B. Erwin, and Robert Aldrich, the persons named as electors in certificate No. 2, were not the lawful electors for the State of South Carolina, and that their votes are not the votes provided for by the Constitution of the United States, and should not be counted.

Which was agreed to—yeas 15, nays 0.

Mr. Commissioner MORTON offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That C. C. Bowen, J. Winsmith, Thomas B. Johnston, Timothy Hurley, W. B. Nash, Wilson Cook, and W. F. Myers, the persons named as electors in certificate No. 1, were the lawful electors for the State of South Carolina, and that their votes are the votes provided for by the Constitution of the United States, and should be counted for President and Vice-President of the United States.

Which was agreed to—yeas 8, nays 7, with the following report:

The brief ground of this decision is, that it appears upon such evidence as by the Constitution and the law named in said act of Congress is competent and pertinent to the consideration of the subject, that the beforementioned electors appear to have been lawfully appointed such electors of President and Vice-President of the United States for the term beginning March 4, A. D. 1877, of the State of South Carolina, and that they voted as such at the time and in the manner provided for by the Constitution of the United States and the law.

And the Commission, as further grounds for their decision, are of opinion that the failure of the Legislature to provide a system for the registration of persons entitled to vote, does not render nugatory all elections held under said laws otherwise sufficient, though it may be the duty of the Legislature to enact such a law. If it were otherwise, all government in that State is a usurpation, its officers without authority, and the social compact in that State is at an end.

That this Commission must take notice that there is a government in South Carolina republican in form, since its constitution provides for such a government, and it is, and was on the day of appointing electors, so recognized by the executive and by both branches of the legislative departments of the Government of the United States.

That so far as this Commission can take notice of the presence of the soldiers of the United States in the State of South Carolina during the election, it appears that they were placed there by the President of the United States to suppress insurrection, at the request of the proper authorities of the State.

But we are also of opinion that under the papers before us, it appears that the governor and Secretary of State having certified under seal of the State that the electors whose votes we have decided to be the lawful electoral votes of the State were duly appointed electors, which certificate, both by presumption of law and by the certificate of the rival claimants of the electoral office, was based upon the action of the State canvassers, there exists no power in this Commission, as there exists none in the two Houses of Congress in counting the electoral vote, to inquire into the circumstances under which the primary vote for electors was given.

The power of the Congress of the United States in its legislative capacity to inquire into the matters alleged, and to act upon the information so obtained, is a very different one from its power in the matter of counting the electoral votes. The votes to be counted are those presented by the States, and when ascertained and presented by the proper authorities of the States, they must be counted.

The Commission has also decided by a majority of votes, and does hereby decide and report, that as a cause of the foregoing, and upon the grounds before stated, the paper purporting to be the electoral vote of said State of South Carolina, signed by Theodore R. Barker, S. McGowan, John W. Harrington, John Isaac Ingram, William Wallace, John B. Erwin, and Robert Aldrich, marked "No. 2, N. C." by the Commission and herewith returned, is not the certificate of the votes provided for by the Constitution of the United States, and that they ought not to be counted as such.

Feb. 28.—The decision was laid before the two Houses in joint meeting. On its being read, objections were made to counting the vote of South Carolina in conformity with it, on the part of sundry Senators and Representatives.

These objections were:

I. Because no legal election was held in the State of South Carolina on the 7th day of November last past for Presidential electors in compliance with section 3, article 8 of the Constitution thereof, requiring a registration of the electors of the State as a qualification to vote.

II. Because in consequence of frauds practiced in said election, and the interference with and intimidation of the electors in said State by the Federal Government prior to and during said election, stationing in various parts of said State near the polling-places detachments of the Army of the United States, a full and free exercise of the right of suffrage was prevented, in consequence of which there was no lawful election had.

III. Because in violation of the Constitution of the United States, the Federal authorities at the several polling-places in said State on the day of election, stationed over one thousand deputy marshals of the United States, who by their unlawful and arbitrary action, in obedience to the unauthorized instructions from the Department of Justice, so interfered with the full and free exercise of the right of suffrage by the voters of said State, that a fair election could not be and was not held in said State on the 7th day of November, 1876.

IV. Because the certification of the election held by said electors on the 6th day of December, 1876, was not made by the lawfully constituted governor of said State.

V. Because the said Electoral Commission, contrary to its duty and the authority vested in it by law, neglected and refused to inquire into the facts and allegations aforesaid, and their said decision is contrary to the law and the truth.

VI. Because at the time of the pretended appointment of the said electors in the State of South Carolina, it was under duress from the power of the United States unlawfully exerted upon it, and said pretended appointments were made under such duress.

VII. Because the certificate numbered 1 was and is void.

First. For irregularity in that the electors were not sworn, as by the Constitution of the State of South Carolina they were required to be.

Second, The certificate does not state that said electors voted by ballot, as required by the Constitution of the United States.

Third, The certificate upon the envelope in which the said certificate and accompanying papers were inclosed was not the certificate required by the laws of the United States.

A further objection was that the "said electoral votes, as well as the votes of the people of the said State at the Presidential election on the 7th day of November last, were given under duress caused by the unlawful exercise of Federal power."

The two Houses having separated—

In SENATE, Mr. ROBERTSON offered this resolution:

Resolved, That the decision of the Commission upon the electoral vote of the State of South Carolina stand as the judgment of the Senate, the objections made thereto to the contrary notwithstanding.

Mr. MERRIMON offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That it is competent to receive testimony to sustain the several exceptions above specified.

A question of order having been raised, the Senate voted that it was not in order—yeas 18 (D.), nays 42 Republicans and 1 Democ't (Bailey).

NOT VOTING—Messrs. Alcorn, Barnum, Bayard, Bruce, Cockrell, Conkling, Dennis, Gordon, Hamilton, McDonald, Randolph, Stevenson, Thurman, and White—14.

Mr. BOGY moved that the testimony taken in this case be read, which was disagreed to—yeas 21 Democrats, nays 39 Republicans and 2 Democrats (Bayard and Gordon).

NOT VOTING—Messrs. Alcorn, Bruce, Cameron of Pennsylvania, Chaffee, Cockrell, Conkling, Eaton, Hamilton, Jones of Nevada, Kernan, McDonald, Stevenson, and Thurman—13.

Mr. ROBERTSON's motion was then agreed to—yeas 39 (D.), nays 22 (R.).

NOT VOTING—Messrs. Bogy, Cockrell, Conkling, Davis, Dawes, Goldthwaite, Gordon, Hamilton, Hamlin, Jones of Nevada, Kelly, Thurman, West, and Windom—14.

In HOUSE, Mr. SPRINGER moved that the House take a recess until to-morrow at 10 A. M.

Which was disagreed to—yeas 92, nays 170, not voting 28. The affirmative vote was exclusively Democratic, and the negative vote Republican, with the addition of the following Democrats: Ainsworth, Bagby, Bell, Blount, J. Y. Brown, S. D. Burchard, Campbell, Candler, Cutler, Durham, Eden, Egbert, Felton, Gause, Goode, Goodin, Hancock, Hardenbergh, Harrison, Haymond, A. S. Hewitt, Hill, Holman, House, Jenks, F. Jones, Kehr, Lamar, F. Landers, G. M. Landers, Le Moyne, Levy, Lord, Morgan, Neal, New, Odell, Phelps, Piper, Powell, Savage, Sayler, Singleton, Stevenson, Swann, Tarbox, Teese, Thomas, Throckmorton, C. C. B. Walker, Warren, Watterson, E. Wells, Whitehouse, A. S. Williams, J. Williams, Willis, Wilshire, B. Wilson, F. Wood, Yeates, and Young.

Mr. O'BRIEN moved that the House take a recess till 7:30 o'clock this evening.

The SPEAKER ruled it out of order. An appeal from the decision was taken, and a motion to lay the appeal on the table was agreed to—yeas 134, nays 61, not voting 45.

Mr. SHEAKLEY moved that the House take a recess till 10 o'clock to-morrow morning.

The SPEAKER declined to entertain the motion.

The decision of the Electoral Commission was then read, and the objections offered in joint meeting.

Mr. PHILIPS of Missouri moved that the testimony accompanying the objections be read; which, being submitted to the House, was disagreed to—yeas 87, nays 175, not voting 28. The affirmative vote was exclusively Democratic, the negative vote Republican, with the addition of Messrs. Abbott, Ainsworth, Bagby, Bell, Bland, Blount, J. Y. Brown, Buckner, S. D. Burchard, Cabell, Candler, Cutler, Durham, Eden, Egbert, Faulkner, Felton, Gause, Goode, Goodin, Gunter, R. Hamilton, Hancock, Hardenbergh, Hartridge, Hatcher, Haymond, A. S. Hewitt, Hill, Holman, House, Hunton, Jenks, Kehr, Lamar, G. M. Landers, Le Moyne, Lord, McFarland, Morgan, Neal, New, Payne, Phelps, Piper, Powell, Rea, Reagan, J. Reilly, J. Robbins, Savage, Stevenson, Swann, Tarbox, Teese, Thomas, Throckmorton, Tucker, C. C. B. Walker, Walling, Warren, Watterson, E. Wells, Whitehouse, A. S. Williams, J. Williams, Willis, Wilshire, B. Wilson, F. Wood, and Yeates.

Mr. WALLING moved to reconsider this vote, and Mr. WOOD of New York moved to lay that motion on the table.

Which was agreed to—yeas 177, nays 73, not voting 40.

[This vote resembled the preceding in its political divisions.]

Mr. COCHRANE offered the following:

Resolved, That the objections to the decision of the Electoral Commission upon the electoral votes of South Carolina be sustained by the House, and that said votes be not counted.

Mr. WALLING moved to amend the pending resolution by adding the following words: "in conformity with decision of said Commission."

Mr. JONES of Kentucky offered this substitute:

Resolved, That the decision of the Electoral Commission upon the electoral vote of South Carolina be not concurred in by this House.

The previous question was called and seconded, and was ordered—yeas 190, nays 72, not voting 28.

Pending further votes on the propositions an agreement was made by unanimous consent, by which the substitute was to be withdrawn, and the House to come to a direct vote on Mr. Walling's amendment to the original resolution, the Senate then to be invited to meet the House for the purpose of continuing the count, and when the state of Vermont shall be reached, and the two Houses shall separate, then the House to take a recess until to-morrow at 10 o'clock.

In pursuance of this agreement, the amendment of Mr. WALLING was put to vote and agreed to, and the original resolution as amended was agreed to, each without a division. At 6:18 o'clock the two Houses again met, and the vote of South Carolina was counted for Hayes and Wheeler, under the law. The votes of the States of Tennessee and Texas were then counted.

THE VERMONT CASE.

When the certificate of the State of Vermont was opened.

Mr. POPPLETON asked if the other returns had been received from Vermont.

The PRESIDING OFFICER replied that none had been received except the one submitted. The CONGRESSIONAL RECORD continues:

Mr. POPPLETON. I desire to say that I have prepared objections, upon information by telegraph and otherwise that there were dual returns from the State of Vermont.

Mr. HEWITT, of New York. I desire to make a statement.

Digitized by Google

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection to the member from New York [Mr. Hewitt] making a statement? [After a pause.] The Chair hears none.

Mr. HEWITT, of New York. I hold in my hand a package which purports to contain electoral votes from the State of Vermont. This package was delivered to me by express about the middle of December last, and with it came a letter stating that a similar package had been forwarded by mail to the Presiding Officer of the Senate. Being informed to-day that no package corresponding to this had been received by mail by the Presiding Officer of the Senate, I called upon him and inquired whether any other than one certificate from the State of Vermont had been received by him by mail, and he informed me that there had been no other received by him than the one which was already in his possession. I tendered to him this package, the seals of which are unbroken, and which is now as it came into my possession. He declined to receive it, upon the ground that he had no authority in law so to do. Under the circumstances I now tender this package to the Presiding Officer of the Senate as purporting to contain electoral votes from the State of Vermont.

Mr. KASSON. I object to the reception of the package.

Mr. SPRINGER I offer the following resolution——

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Chair has stated that he has received but one set of certificates from the State of Vermont. He also states that the law prohibits him from receiving any after the first Thursday in February. His duty is to receive and open and have read all certificates that have been received by him up to and on that day.

The PRESIDING OFFICER declined to entertain any proposition or motion except an objection to the vote presented. Finally, objections were made on behalf of sundry Senators and Representatives:

1. That Henry N. Sollace, who is certified to have been elected on the 7th of November, 1876, was at that day, and for a long time before had been, a postmaster of the United States, and therefore held an office of trust and profit under the United States, and could not be constitutionally appointed an elector of said State under the Constitution of the United States.

2. That the law of Vermont did not authorize the election of said Sollace to fill the vacancy alleged to have been the result of the absence of said Sollace from the college of electors.

3. It does not appear that said Sollace had resigned his office of postmaster at the date of his appointment by the college of electors.

4. That Amos Aldrich, who received the highest vote at the election on the 7th day of November, 1876, next to that cast for said Sollace, should have been allowed to have cast one of the electoral votes of the State of Vermont.

5. It is proper for the said Commission to inquire and report whether Amos Aldrich, who received the highest number of votes at the election on the 7th day of November, 1876, next to that cast for said Sollace, and who is certified as an elector by Certificate No. 2, is not the duly-appointed elector for the State of Vermont.

Whereupon the two Houses separated.

In SENATE, Mr. EDMUNDS offered the following:

Resolved, That the vote of Henry N. Sollace as an elector for the State of Vermont be counted together with the other four electoral votes of that State, the objections to the contrary notwithstanding.

Which was agreed to—yeas 47, nays 0, not voting 28.

March 1—In HOUSE a call of the House was moved, but disagreed to—yeas 65, nays 169, not voting 58. A motion to reconsider this vote was tabled—yeas 173, nays 66, not voting 51.

Mr. POPPLETON offered a preamble and the following:

Resolved, By the House of Representatives, that the refusal of the President of the Senate, to open, in the presence of the Senate and House of Representatives, said sealed package purporting to be the electoral vote of the State of Vermont, was a violation of law and of the privileges of this House, and that until said package shall be opened pursuant to law in the presence of the two Houses of Congress, the counting of the votes cannot further proceed according to the Constitution and law now in existence for the counting of said electoral votes for President and Vice-President of the United States.

Resolved, further, That the Clerk of this House informs the Senate of the adoption of the foregoing preamble and resolution, and request the Senate to meet this House in joint session, to the end that said package purporting to be a certificate of the electoral vote of Vermont be opened by the President of the Senate, and that the proceedings thereafter be held according to law.

Mr. WOOD offered the following amendment:

Ordered, That the vote of Henry N. Sollace, claiming to be an elector from the State of Vermont, be not counted.

Mr. KNOTT offered the following as a substitute for the resolution:

Resolved, That this House require that the package tendered by the member from New York (Mr. HEWITT) to the President of the Senate in the presence of the two Houses on yesterday and purporting to be a certificate of the electoral vote for the President and Vice-President of the United States in the State of Vermont, shall be opened by the President of the Senate in the presence of the two Houses, and if found to be such a certificate, the same shall be submitted, together with the certificate read in the presence of the two Houses, to the Electoral Commission for its judgment and decision, and that the Senate be requested to make a like order, requiring the President of the Senate to open said package in the presence of the two Houses; and until such order be made the House will not be ready to meet the Senate to proceed with the count of the electoral vote.

Mr. KNOTT's substitute was disagreed to—yeas 116, nays 148; not voting 22. The affirmative vote was exclusively Democratic, and the negative vote Republican, with the addition of the following Democrats: Bell, J. Y. Brown, Campbell, Candler, Cutler, Durham, Egbert, Felton, Gause, Goodin, Gunter, Hancock, Haymond, A. S. Hewitt, Hill, Hopkins, Kehr, Lamar, G. M. Landers, Le Moyne, Lord, Morgan, Neal, Nesmith, Payne, Phelps, Powell, Pratt

Reagan, J. Reilly, Schleicher, Singleton, Stevenson, Swann, Throckmorton, Ward, Watterson, Whitehouse, A. S. Williams, J. Williams, Willis, Wilshire, F. Wood, and Yeates. Those not voting were: Messrs. Abbott, Anderson, Bass, Cabell, J. H. Caldwell, W. P. Caldwell, Clymer, Durand, Gibson, G. W. Hewitt, Hooker, Hunton, King, Lery, Lewis, Metcalfe, Milliken, Piper, Purman, Stephens, Tarbox, Wait, C. C. B. Walker, Waner, Warren, and Wheeler—26.

Mr. HOPKINS moved the same substitute, omitting the last clause "and until such order, &c.;" which was disagreed to—yeas 115, nays 147, not voting 28. The affirmative vote was Democratic, and the negative vote Republican, with the addition of the following Democrats: Bell, J. Y. Brown, Candler, Cutler, Durham, Eybert, Ellis, Felton Gause, Gunter, Hancock, Haymond, A. S. Hewitt, Hill, Kehr, Lamar, G. M. Landers, Lane, Lord, Morgan, Neal, New, Payne, Phelps, Powell, Reagan, J. Reilly, J. Robbins, Schleicher, Singleton, Stevenson, Swann, Tarbox, Throckmorton, C. C. B. Walker, Ward, Watterson, Whitehouse, A. S. Williams, J. Williams, Willis, Wilshire, F. Wood, and Yeates. Those not voting were: Messrs. Abbott, Anderson, Bass, Cabell, J. H. Caldwell, W. P. Caldwell, Campbell, Darrall, Durand, Faulkner, Gibson, Goodin, G. W. Hewitt, Hunton, King, Le Moyne, Levy, Lewis, Metcalfe, Milliken, Piper, Purman, Roberts, Savage, Stephens, Wait, Warner, and Wheeler—28.

A motion to reconsider was tabled—yeas 171, nays 80, not voting 39.

Mr. WALLING moved to lay on the table the amendment of the gentleman from N. Y. (Mr WOOD), which was disagreed to—yeas 61, nays 167, not voting 62. A motion to reconsider this vote was disagreed to—yeas 64, nays 162, not voting 64.

The amendment of Mr. WOOD was then agreed to—yeas 208, nays 17 not voting 65.

A motion to reconsider this vote was tabled—yeas 172, nays 55, not voting 63. The question recurring on the resolution as amended, Mr. VANCE, of Ohio, moved to lay it on the table, which was disagreed to—yeas 53, nays 180, not voting 57. A motion to reconsider this vote was laid on the table—yeas 170, nays 57, not voting 64. The resolution as amended was then adopted—yeas 207, nays 26, not voting 57. A motion to reconsider this vote was laid on the table—yeas 174, nays 59, not voting 57. And the SPEAKER then directed, under the law, that the Senate be informed of the action of the House, whereupon, at 10:55 P. M., the two Houses again met, and the vote of the State of Vermont was counted for Hayes and Wheeler, under the law. The votes of Virginia and West Virginia were then counted.

THE WISCONSIN CASE.

When the certificate of the vote of Wisconsin was read, objections were made to it on behalf of sundry Senators and Representatives. [The objection was to the validity of the vote of Daniel L. Downs, who was a pension surgeon and examining surgeon at the time of the Presidential election and of the meeting of the Electoral College.]

In SENATE, a resolution to count this vote was agreed to, without a division.

In HOUSE, Mr. LYNDE offered a resolution that the vote of Mr. Downs be not counted. A motion to take a recess till to-morrow at 10 o'clock was lost—yeas 99, nays 148, not voting 43.

Mr. MILLS offered an amendment in the nature of a substitute, to the effect that the House proceed immediately, in obedience to the Constitution, to choose a President from the persons having the highest number not exceeding three on the list of those voted for as President.

He afterward withdrew it, on account of a misunderstanding as to time at which it was to be voted on. Mr. CASWELL moved that the vote of Mr. Downs be counted; which was disagreed to—yeas 77, nays 136, not voting 77.

Mr. LYNDE's resolution was then agreed to.

The two Houses again met, and the vote of the State of Wisconsin was counted for Hayes and Wheeler, under the law.

THE FINAL RESULT.

The counting of the vote of the States having been concluded, Mr. ALLISON, one of the tellers on the part of the Senate, announced the result of the footings; whereupon the PRESIDING OFFICER of the two Houses declared RUTHERFORD B. HAYES of Ohio the duly elected President, and WILLIAM A. WHEELER of New York the duly elected Vice-President, for the term of four years, commencing on the 4th of March, 1877.

The two Houses then separated.

The vote, as finally declared, is the same as that printed on page 55 of this ALMANAC. The result was reached and announced at 10 minutes after 4 o'clock on the morning of March 2—each House having been in session from the hour of 10 o'clock on the morning of March 1. The count was begun February 1, and continued at intervals as stated in this record of proceedings.

R. HOE & CO.'S PATENT CHISEL TOOTH SAWS.

The numerous voluntary testimonials we have received the past year from lumbermen in every section of the country justify us in saying that we have attained nearer to perfection in the manufacture of Inserted Tooth Saws, than has been hitherto thought possible. Our Patent Saws are now made from 13 to 6 gauge, and from 12 to 72 inches in diameter. The accompanying illustration shows the sockets and teeth employed for different purposes. The teeth are so readily changed that the saws never need be taken from the mandrel.

The figure at the left of the cut shows the lever applied, and the shank turned into the position required to receive a tooth. It will be seen that the projection on jaw C will engage with the notch in the tooth D, and the shank, when turned back, will carry the tooth with it into the socket, and stop against the shoulder.

CALIFORNIA!

The Chicago and Northwestern Railway

Embraces under one management the Great Trunk Railway lines of the West and Northwest, and, with its numerous branches and connections, forms the Shortest and Quickest Route between CHICAGO and all points in Illinois, Wisconsin, Northern Michigan, Minnesota, Iowa, Nebraska, CALIFORNIA, and the Western Territories.

San Francisco	Denver	Minneapolis	Winona	Ishpeming	Stevens Poin:
Sacramento	Omaha	Cedar Rapids	St. Paul	Negaunee	Oshkosh
Ogden	Council Bluffs	Dubuque	Duluth	Escanaba	Madison
Salt Lake City	Yankton	La Crosse	Marquette	Green Bay	Milwaukee
Cheyenne	Sioux City	Pra. du Chien	L'Anse	Menasha

Are all on the line of this Great Road, or are reached by this Route with less changes of cars than by any other.

On the arrival of the trains from the East or South, the trains of the Chicago and Northwestern Railway LEAVE CHICAGO as follows:

For Council Bluffs, Omaha and California, Two Through Trains daily, with Pullman Palace Drawing Room and Sleeping Cars through to Council Bluffs.

For St. Paul and Minneapolis, Two Through Trains daily, with Pullman Palace Cars to Minneapolis.

For Green Bay and Lake Superior, Two Trains daily, with Pullman Palace Cars attached.

For Milwaukee, Four Through Trains daily. Pullman Cars on night trains, Parlor Chair Cars on day trains.

For Sioux City and Yankton, Two Trains daily. Pullman Cars to Missouri Valley Junction.

For Lake Geneva, Four Trains daily

For Rockford, Sterling, Kenosha, Janesville, and other points, you can have from two to ten trains daily.

All trains on the Michigan Central, Pittsburgh & Fort Wayne, Lake Shore & Mich. Southern, and Baltimore & Ohio Railroads make connection with this Popular Route for all points West, North, and Northwest.

All Express Trains on this route are equipped with WESTINGHOUSE PATENT AIR BRAKES and MILLER'S SAFETY PLATFORM AND COUPLERS—the Most Perfect Protection against Accidents known.

This popular Route is unsurpassed for Speed, Comfort and Safety. The Smooth, well Ballasted and Perfect Track of Steel Rails, the celebrated PULLMAN PALACE Sleeping Cars, the Perfect Telegraph System of Moving Trains, the Regularity with which they run, the admirable arrangement for running Through Cars from Chicago to all points West, North and Northwest, secure to passengers all the Comforts in Modern Railway Traveling.

The Pullman Drawing Room and Sleeping Cars, such as run on this Popular Route, are so constructed as to combine the convenience and elegance of a private parlor by day, and the comforts of a well furnished bed-chamber by night—clean bedding, thick hair mattresses, thorough ventilation, etc., etc. Conductors and Porters accompany each car to provide for the wants of passengers.

This is the only line running these Cars between Chicago and St. Paul or Chicago and Milwaukee, Chicago and Winona and Chicago and Green Bay.

At Omaha our Sleepers connect with the Overland Sleepers on the Union Pacific Railroad for all points west of the Missouri River.

Ask any ticket agent to show you its maps and time cards. All ticket agents can sell you through tickets by this route.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE is published every Tuesday and Friday, and is accounted by its rapidly increasing number of subscribers and friends the best family newspaper in America. It is entirely different and better than a collection of matter from the columns of THE DAILY TRIBUNE. A large portion of its contents is prepared expressly for it, and includes much that appears in no other edition of THE TRIBUNE. In addition to a careful summary of the news, THE SEMI-WEEKLY contains all the best of the foreign and domestic correspondence and leading articles of the daily; gives specially the scientific intelligence (including the proceedings of all American scientific societies), with the best of the book reviews, and the miscellaneous matter relating to education, the arts, religion, etc. It has all the commercial news and market reports; all the agricultural articles of the weekly; and gives, moreover, regularly a serial work of fiction, presenting in the course of the year three or four of the latest productions of the most popular novelists. As it takes only a few select advertisements, it is enabled to give an unusually large proportion of reading matter, and may be called, considering the extent and variety of its contents, the cheapest newspaper in the world.

To that large and increasing class who are not content with a paper once a week, and whose circumstances or mail facilities will not permit a daily, THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE will be found particularly acceptable. Teachers and public educators will find THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE a daily help and necessity.

☞ Specimen copies of either edition of THE TRIBUNE will be sent free on application.

THE GREAT FAMILY PAPER.

THE

New York Ledger

FOR THE NEW YEAR 1877.

The NEW YORK LEDGER, now one year older, but ever new, reminds its readers that the season has arrived for the renewal of their annual subscriptions.

Many of those who were children when they first began to read the LEDGER now have children of their own who read their favorite paper. There could hardly be a stronger testimonial to the excellence of its character than is thus given to the LEDGER by the regular renewal of these subscriptions.

Our great exertion for the coming year will be to make a volume that will compare favorably with the best of its predecessors.

The LEDGER is always alive and fresh and full of interest.

The stories for the coming year will be by the most popular of our old writers and the best of the new writers who have occasionally contributed to our columns.

The miscellaneous articles by eminent scholars and divines will be continued: so will our accurate scientific department.

We shall reply, as heretofore, to the innumerable questions sent to us on love and domestic affairs, and every variety of subject.

Wherever the LEDGER goes—and it goes nearly everywhere—it is generally conceded there is not a reader to whose happiness it does not minister.

Our subscribers will have no postage to pay. We prepay the postage on every paper that we mail.

OUR TERMS FOR 1877.—POSTAGE FREE.

Single copies, $3 per annum; four copies, $10, which is $2.50 a copy; eight copies, $20, POSTAGE FREE. The party who sends us $20 for a club of eight copies, (all sent at one time,) will be entitled to one copy FREE. Postmasters and others who get up clubs, in their respective towns, can afterward add single copies at $2.50. No subscriptions taken for a less period than one year. When a draft or money order can conveniently be sent, it will be preferred, as it will prevent the possibility of the loss of money by mail. Remember that the postage on the LEDGER to all parts of the country will be paid by us, so that our subscribers will have no postage to pay.

☞ We employ no traveling agents. Address all communications to

"THE LEADING AMERICAN NEWSPAPER."

The Paper for Business Men, Farmers, Families, and all the People.

THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE is a live, intelligent, and thorough newspaper publishing at the earliest moment, and often in advance of all other papers, all the news of the world.

It is candid and independent in its opinions and political convictions. It is not a party organ, and is outspoken in condemnation of fraud or corruption in any party; but its political principles are, as they always have been, essentially Republican, and are well embodied in Gov. Hayes's admirable letter of acceptance.

It is an excellent family paper. "Home Interests" has made it indispensable in many homes; and its Miscellany, Stories, Fashion Articles, and Dry Goods Market Reports, make it of daily use in every household. It is the best farmer's paper published, and the Weekly "has done more to make good farmers than any other single influence which ever existed."

It publishes full, fresh and accurate Market Reports—the price of every article bought and sold in the markets of the world from day to day.

In THE DAILY TRIBUNE special attention and liberal space are given to Literature, Art, Science, Education, Religious news and kindred topics, in each of which THE TRIBUNE has become a favorite medium of communication and a recognized authority, at home and abroad.

It is a complete newspaper, representing the progress, the advancement, and the interests of the American people.

TERMS OF THE TRIBUNE.

TRIBUNE ALMANAC FOR 1878.

ECLIPSES.

In the year 1878 there will be four eclipses, two of the Sun and two of the Moon:

I. An Annular Eclipse of the Sun, February 2, invisible in America.

II. A Partial Eclipse of the Moon, February 17. Magnitude of the Eclipse=0.840 (Moon's diameter=1.) Partly visible in the United States, as per appended table:

PLACE.	Begins.	Middle.	Ends.	PLACE.	Begins.	Middle.	Ends.

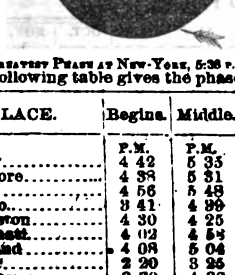
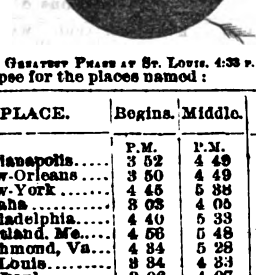
III. A Total Eclipse of the Sun, July 29. The line of total obscuration begins in Asia, crosses Behring's Straits into Alaska, passes down the continent almost parallel with the Rocky Mountain range, and enters the Gulf of Mexico near Galveston. Along and for a few miles on each side of this line the Eclipse will be total, the greatest duration of the totality being 3 m. 12 sec. To most places in the United States, however, the Eclipse will be only partial. The following diagrams show the appearance of the Sun at New-York and St. Louis during the middle of the Eclipse. The arrows which pass through the centre of the Moon indicate its apparent motion:



GREATEST PHASE AT NEW-YORK, 5:36 P. M.



GREATEST PHASE AT ST. LOUIS, 4:33 P. M.

The following table gives the phases of this Eclipse for the places named:

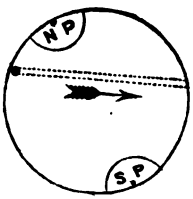
TRANSIT OF MERCURY.

On May 6, the planet Mercury will pass across the Sun's disk as a small round black spot. This passage, or transit, will occupy more than seven hours, and will be visible in all parts of the United States. The following diagrams represent three phases of the transit as seen in New-York:



FIRST INTERNAL CONTACT.

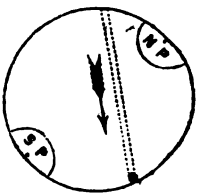
MIDDLE OF TRANSIT.
2 03 P. M.



LAST INTERNAL CONTACT.
5 48 P. M.

[The dotted lines show the path of the planet across the Sun, and the arrows its direction.]

The following table exhibits the approximate times of the transit for the places given:

PLACE.	First Ext. Contact.	First Int. Contact.	Middle of Transit.	Last Int. Contact.	Last Ext. Contact.
Baltimore	10 6 A. M.	10 9 A. M.	1 53 P. M.	5 38 P. M.	5 41 P. M.
Boston	10 28	10 31	2 15	5 59	6 02
Chicago	9 22	9 25	1 09	4 54	4 57
Cincinnati	9 35	9 38	1 22	5 07	5 10
New-Orleans	9 12	9 15	0 59	4 43	4 46
New-York	10 16	10 19	2 03	5 48	5 51
Philadelphia	10 12	10 15	2 00	5 44	5 47
San Francisco	7 08	7 08	10 51 A. M	2 35	2 38
St. Louis	9 12	9 15	1 00 P. M.	4 44	4 47
Washington	10 04	10 07	1 52	5 36	5 39

Three more transits of Mercury will occur in the present century, viz.: on November 7, 1881, May 9, 1891, and November 10, 1894. The first recorded transit was predicted by Kepler, and observed by Gassendi, at Paris, November 7, 1631.

ABSTRACT OF PUBLIC LAWS,

PASSED AT THE SECOND SESSION OF THE FORTY-FOURTH CONGRESS.

RELATING TO THE FRANKING PRIVILEGE.

Chap. CIII.—An act establishing post roads and for other purposes, March 3, 1877.

Sec. 5. That it shall be lawful to transmit through the mail, free of postage, any letters, packages, or other matters relating exclusively to the business of the Government of the United States: Provided, That every such letter or package to entitle it to pass free shall bear over the words "Official business" an indorsement showing also the name of the Department, and, if from a bureau or office, the names of the Department and bureau or office, as the case may be, whence transmitted. And if any person shall make use of any such official envelope to avoid the payment of postage on his private letter, package, or other matter in the mail, the person so offending shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and subject to a fine of three hundred dollars, to be prosecuted in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Sec. 6. That for the purpose of carrying this act into effect, it shall be the duty of each of the Executive Departments of the United States to provide for itself and its subordinate offices the necessary envelopes and in addition to the indorsement designating the Department in which they are to be used, the penalty for the unlawful use of these envelopes shall be stated thereon.

Sec. 7. That Senators, Representatives, and Delegates in Congress, the Secretary of the Senate, and Clerk of the House of Representatives, may send and receive through the mail, all public documents printed by order of Congress: and the name of each Senator, Representative, Delegate, Secretary of the Senate, and Clerk of the House shall be written thereon, with the proper designation of the office he holds: and the provisions of this section shall apply to each of the persons named therein until the first day of December following the expiration of their respective terms of office.

Chap. CV.—An act making appropriation for sundry civil expenses, March, 3, 1877.—That all public documents already printed, or which have been ordered to be printed by the present Congress, shall be distributed among Senators in accordance with the usage of the Senate, and among the Representatives and Delegates of the said Congress, and subject to their respective orders until the first day of January next; and that such of these documents as cannot under existing laws be transmitted through the mails free of postage may be so transmitted, under the frank of such Senators, Representatives, and Delegates, until the first day of January next, subject to such regulations as the Postmaster-General may prescribe; and all public documents which may be transmitted through the mails free of postage may be sent from the document and folding rooms of the two houses of Congress, free of postage, to such Senators, Representatives, and Delegates, until the first day of January next.

PAYING MAIL CONTRACTORS IN CERTAIN STATES.

That the sum of three hundred and seventy-five thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, be appropriated to pay the amount due to mail contractors for mail service performed in the States of Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, Missouri, North Carolina, South Carolina, Texas, Tennessee, Virginia and West Virginia, in the years eighteen hundred and fifty-nine, eighteen hundred and sixty, eighteen hundred and sixty-one and before said States respectively engaged in war against the United States; and the provisions of three thousand four hundred and eighty of Revised Statutes of the United States shall not be applicable to the payments therein authorized*: Provided, That any such claims which have been paid by the Confederate States Government shall not be again paid.

* Sec. 3480 prohibits the payment of any account, claim, or demand against the United States which accrued prior to April 13, 1861, in favor of any person who promoted, encouraged, or in any manner sustained the late rebellion, or in favor of any person who during such rebellion was not known to be approved thereto—the prohibition not to apply to claims founded on contracts where the claims were argued or contracted to be assigned prior to April 1, 1861, to the creditors of such contractors, loyal citizens of loyal States, in payment of debts incurred prior to March 1, 1861.

REDUCTION IN THE NUMBER OF REVENUE DISTRICTS.

Chap. CII.—An act making appropriations for the Legislative, Executive, and Judicial expenses of the Government.—From and after the thirtieth day of June next there shall be no more than one hundred and twenty-six collection-districts; and it shall be the duty of the President, and he is hereby authorized and directed, to reduce the Internal Revenue Districts to not exceeding the number aforesaid, in the manner heretofore provided by law. And the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and directed to cause a careful examination to be made of allowances to collectors of Internal Revenue under the provisions of section thirty-one hundred and forty-five of the Revised Statutes, for collection of revenue in the several districts, and to equalize the same and reduce the aggregate of such allowances not less than five per centum on the amount of the same.

RELATING TO PENSIONS.

Chap. LXXIII.—An act to allow a pension of thirty-six dollars per month to soldiers who have lost both an arm and a leg, February, 28, 1877.—That all persons who, while in the military or naval service of the United States, and in the line of duty, shall have lost one hand and one foot, or been totally and permanently disabled in both, shall be entitled to a pension for each of such disabilities, and at such a rate as is provided for by the provisions of the existing laws for each disability: Provided, That this act shall not be so construed as to reduce pensions in any case.

Chap. CXXI.—An act equalizing pensions of certain officers in the Navy, March, 3, 1877.—That from and after the passage of this act, the pension for total disability of passed assistant engineers, assistant engineers, and cadet engineers in the naval service, respectively, shall be the same as the pensions allowed to officers of the line in the naval service with whom they have relative rank; and that all acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith be, and are hereby, repealed.

RELATING TO PUBLIC LANDS.

Chap. XVIII.—An act providing for the sale of saline lands, January, 12, 1877.—That whenever it shall be made appear to the register and the receiver of any land office of the United States that any lands within their district are saline in character, it shall be the duty of said register and said receiver, under the regulations of the General Land Office, to take testimony in reference to such lands to ascertain their true character and to report the same to the General Land Office: and if, upon such testimony, the Commissioner of the General Land Office shall find that such lands are saline and incapable of being purchased under any of the laws of the United States relative to the public domain, then, and in such case, such lands shall be offered for sale by public auction at the local land office of the district in which the same shall be situated, under such regulations as shall be prescribed by the Commissioner of the General Land Office, and sold to the highest bidder for cash, at a price not less than one dollar and twenty-five cents per acre; and in case such lands fail to sell when so offered, then the same shall be subject to private sale, at such land office, for cash, at a price not less than one dollar and twenty-five cents per acre, in the same manner as other lands of the United States are sold: Provided, That the foregoing enactments shall not apply to any State or Territory which has not had a grant of salines by act of Congress, nor to any State which may have had such a grant, until either the grant has been fully satisfied, or the right of selection thereunder has expired by efflux of time. But nothing in this act shall authorize the sale or conveyance of any title other than such as the United States has, and the patents issued shall be in the form of a release and quit-claim of all title of the United States in such lands.

Chap. CXIII.—An act respecting the limits of reservations for town sites upon the public domain, March 3, 1877.—That the existence or incorporation of any town upon the public lands of the United States shall not be held to exclude from preemption or homestead entry a greater quantity than twenty-five hundred and sixty acres of land, or the maximum area which may be entered as a town site under existing laws, unless the entire tract claimed or incorporated as such town site shall, including and in excess of the area above specified, be actually settled upon, inhabited, improved, and used for business and municipal purposes.

Sec. 2. That where entries have been heretofore allowed upon lands afterward ascertained to have been embraced in the corporate limits of any town, but which entries are or shall be shown, to the satisfaction of the Commissioner of the General Land Office, to include only vacant unoccupied lands of the United States, not settled upon or used for municipal purposes, nor devoted to any public use of such town, said entries, if regular in all respects, are hereby confirmed and may be carried into patent: Provided, That this confirmation shall not operate to restrict the entry of any town-site to a smaller area than the maximum quantity of land which, by reason of present population, it may be entitled to enter under section twenty-three hundred and eighty-nine of the Revised Statutes.

Sec. 3. That whenever the corporate limits of any town upon the public domain are shown or alleged to include lands in excess of the maximum area specified in section one of this act, the Commissioner of the General Land Office may require the authorities of such town, and it shall be lawful for them, to elect what portion of said lands, in compact form and embracing the actual site of the municipal occupation and improvement, shall be withheld from preemption and homestead entry; and thereafter the residue of such lands shall be open to disposal under the homestead and preemption laws. * * *

Sec. 4. It shall be lawful for any town which has made, or may hereafter make entry of less than the maximum quantity of land named in section twenty-three hundred and eighty-nine of the Revised Statutes to make such additional entry, or entries, of contiguous tracts, which may be occupied for town purposes as when added to the entry or entries therefore made will not exceed twenty-five hundred and sixty acres: Provided, That such additional entry shall not together with all prior entries be in excess of the area to which the town may be entitled at date of the additional entry by virtue of its population as prescribed in said section twenty-three hundred and eighty-nine.

Chap. CXXIII.—An act for the relief of settlers on the public lands under the preemption law, March 3, 1877.—That when any person who has made a settlement on the public lands under the preemption laws shall change his filing to that for a homestead entry, the time required to perfect his title under the homestead laws shall be computed from the date of his original settlement made under the preemption laws.

Chap. CXXII.—An act in relation to proof required in homestead entries, March 3, 1877.—That the proof of residence, occupation, or cultivation, the affidavit of non-alienation, and the oath of allegiance, required to be made by section twenty-two hundred and ninety-one of the Revised Statutes, may be made before the judge, or, in his absence, before the clerk, of any court of record of the county and State, or District and Territory, in which the lands are situated; and if said lands are situated in any unorganized county, such proof may be made in a similar manner in any adjacent county in said State or Territory; and the proof, affidavit, and oath, when so made and duly subscribed, shall have the same force and effect as if made before the register or receiver of the proper land district; and the same shall be transmitted by such judge, or the clerk of his court, to the register and the receiver, with the fee and charges allowed by law to him; and the register and receiver shall be entitled to the same fees for examining and approving said testimony as are now allowed by law for taking the same.

Chap. CV.—Sundry Civil Act, March 3, 1877.—For survey of the public lands and private land-claims three hundred thousand dollars: Provided, That the sum hereby appropriated shall be expended in such surveys as the public interest may require, under the direction of the Commissioner of the General Land Office, with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, and at such rates as the Secretary of the Interior shall prescribe, not exceeding the rate herein authorised: Provided, That no lands shall be surveyed under this appropriation, except, first, those adapted to agriculture without artificial irrigation; second, irrigable lands, or such as can be redeemed and for which there is sufficient accessible water for the reclamation and cultivation of the same not otherwise utilized or claimed; third, timber lands bearing timber of commercial value; fourth, coal lands containing coal of commercial value; fifth, exterior boundary of town-sites; sixth private land claims, the cost of such surveys shall not exceed ten dollars per mile for standard lines (and the starting point for said survey may be established by triangulation), seven dollars for township and six dollars for section lines, except the Commissioner of the General Land Office may allow for the survey of standard lines in heavily timbered and mountainous land a sum not exceeding sixteen dollars per mile, and township lines, not exceeding fourteen dollars, and for section lines not exceeding ten dollars.

Chap. LXIII.—An act to encourage and promote telegraphic communication between America and Europe. February 20, 1877.—That Ferdinand C. Latrobe, William F. Frick, and Robert Garrett, of Maryland, shall have the right to construct, lay, land, and maintain a line or lines of telegraph, or submarine cables, on the Atlantic coast of the United States of America, to connect the American and European coasts by telegraphic lines, wires, or submarine cables: Provided, That at least one cable shall be laid and operating between Europe and the Atlantic coast of the United States within three years from the approval of this act; and the at present tariff rates of messages shall be reduced to one-third or one shilling British currency, per word, over said new cable or cables: And provided, That no amalgamation, union, or sale of cable interests established under this act shall be made to any existing European or other cable companies.

The only Internal Revenue tax legislation is an act relating to the production of fruit-brandy which authorizes the establishment by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue of special bonded warehouses not exceeding ten in any one collection-district, in the storage of brandy made from grapes respecting the management of which elaborate provisions are made.

The law prohibiting the payment of any money on account of pensions to any person, or to the widow, children, or heirs of any deceased person, who, in any manner, engaged in or aided or abetted the late rebellion against the authority of the United States, it is provided shall not be construed to apply to such persons as afterward voluntarily enlisted in the Army of the United States, and who, while in such service, incured disability from a wound or injury received or disease contracted in the line of duty.

The term of service of the Commissioners of Southern Claims is extended from two years from March 10, 1877, the time for filing claims not to be extended, nor jurisdiction enlarged, nor are new claims to be filed. All evidence on behalf of claimants is to be filed by March 10, 1878, except in rebuttal of evidence introduced on behalf of the Government, and all claims wherein the evidence of the claimant or claimants, is not filed within the time herein limited, shall be deemed to be barred forever thereafter.

The most important act of the session—To provide for and regulate the count of votes for President and Vice-President, and the decision of questions arising thereon, for the term commencing March 4, 1877—was printed in full in the fifth, and subsequent editions of THE TRIBUNE ALMANAC FOR 1877.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS IN THE STATES.

CALIFORNIA.—At the election of 1877 there was a vote on calling a Constitutional Convention. The vote was: "For" a Convention, 73,400; "Against" it, 73,028; total vote polled, 146,055. A majority of all the votes cast at the election necessary. Majority for a Convention, 432.

COLORADO.—An amendment establishing female suffrage was rejected by a large majority, October 2, 1877.

CONNECTICUT.—The following amendments were adopted, October 1, 1877:

1. "Neither the General Assembly, nor any county, city, borough, town, or school district, shall have power to pay or grant any extra compensation to any public officer, employé, agent, or servant, or increase the compensation of any public officer or employé, to take effect during the continuance in office of any person whose salary might be increased thereby, or increase the pay or compensation of any public contractor above the amount specified in the contract."

2. "No county, city, town, borough, or other municipality, shall ever subscribe to the capital stock of any railroad corporation, or become a purchaser of the bonds, or make donation to, or loan its credit, directly or indirectly, in aid of any such corporation; but nothing herein contained shall affect the validity of any bonds or debts incurred under existing laws, nor be construed to prohibit the General Assembly from authorizing any town or city to protect, by additional appropriations of money or credit, any railroad debt contracted prior to the adoption of this amendment."

The vote on the first was: Yeas, 23,913; nays, 7,451. The vote on the second was: Yeas, 26,832; nays, 4,526.

GEORGIA.—A new Constitution, made by the Convention called by a popular vote, given elsewhere, was submitted to a vote of the people in December, and adopted by a large majority. The Bill of Rights asserts that all government originates in and is for the whole people and that officers are simply their trustees; makes the protection of person and property a paramount duty of the government; and gives citizenship to all who are citizens of the United States, requiring the Assembly to enact sufficient laws for their full protection, and prohibits any legislation which can affect the social status of citizens. Banishment and whipping for crime are forbidden; imprisonment for debt is not allowed; lotteries and the sale of tickets are forbidden, and penal laws provided for full prevention. Free speech and public meetings are authorized, and a provision is introduced by which "lobbying is declared to be a crime, and the General Assembly shall enforce this provision by suitable penalties." With regard to the elective franchise, it is provided that non-payment of taxes for two years, conviction of duelling or giving or accepting a challenge, or of treason to the State, embezzlement of public funds, bribery, larceny, idiocy and any State's prison offence disqualify from voting or holding office. After the term of the incumbents, biennial elections for State officers are to be held, and the Governor is made ineligible after two terms. Important restriction upon the powers of municipal and legislative bodies are inserted.

INDIANA.—The seven following proposed amendments to the Constitution were adopted by the last Legislature, and, if ratified by the Legislature to be elected in the Fall of 1878, will be submitted to popular vote:

1. Amended Section II., of Article 2, so as to read as follows: "Section II. In all elections not otherwise provided for by this Constitution, every male citizen of the United States of the age of twenty-one years and upward, who shall have resided in the State during the six months, and in the township sixty days, and in the ward or precinct thirty days, immediately preceeding such election, and every male of foreign birth, of the age of twenty one years and upwards, who shall have resided in the United Stated one year, and shall have resided in this State during the six months, and in the township sixty days, and in the ward or precinct thirty days immediately preceeding such election, and shall have declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States, conformably to the laws of the United States on the subject of naturalization, shall be entitled to vote in the township or precinct where he may reside, if he shall have been duly registered according to law."

2. That the Constitution of the State of Indiana be amended as follows: "By striking out the words 'No negro or mulatto shall have the right of suffrage,' contained in section 6 of the second Article of the Constitution."

3. That the following amendment to the Constitution of the State of Indiana, be and the same is hereby proposed to-wit: Amend section 14 of the second article to read: "Section 14. All general elections shall be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, but township elections may be held at such time as may be provided by law: Provided, That the General Assembly may provide by law for the election of all Judges of courts of general and appellate jurisdiction, by an election to be held for such officers only, at which time no other officer shall be voted for; and shall also provide for the registration of all persons entitled to vote."

4. Strike the word "white" from sections 4 and 5 of article 4.

5. Amend the fourteenth clause of section 22 of article 4 to read as follows: In relation to fees or salaries, except that the laws may be so made as to grade the compensation of officers in proportion to the population, and the necessary services required.

6. Amend section 1 of the seventh article to read: Section 1. The judicial power of the State shall be vested in a Supreme Court, Circuit Courts and such other courts as the General Assembly may establish.

7. That the second section of the seventh articles of the Constitution of the State of Indiana be amended to read as follows: Section 2. The Supreme Court shall consist of not less than five nor more than seven Judges, a majority of whom shall form a quorum. They shall hold their offices for six years if they shall so long behave well: Provided, That the Judges elected at the first election after the taking effect of this amendment shall be divided by lot into three classes, as nearly as may be, the fraction being in the last class, and the seats of the first class shall be vacated at the expiration of two years, those of the second class at the expiration of four years, the third class at the expiration of six years, so that one-third thereof, as nearly as may be, shall be chosen every two years thereafter.

MINNESOTA.—A proposed amendment to apply 500,000 acres of internal improvement lands, and the proceeds thereof, to the payment of interest, or, in the discretion of the Legislature, to the payment of the principal of the bonds, which may be issued in settlement of the Minnesota State Railroad bonds, under the act, "to provide for the payment of the bonds known as the Minnesota State Railroad bonds." The election was held June 12, and the vote was: Yeas, 17,324; nays, 59,176.

NEW-HAMPSHIRE.—In March, 1877, thirteen amendments were voted on and all adopted, except one and twelve. On the first, which proposed to strike from the Bill of Rights the word "Protestant," the vote was: Yeas, 27,685; nays, 15,907—not two-thirds in favor. The other amendments were:

2. For trying causes under $100, and title to real estate is not concerned, without the intervention of a jury—yeas, 35,582; nays, 7,712.

3. For biennial elections and biennial sessions of Legislature—yeas, 32,471; nays, 10,295.

4. A House of Representatives based upon population, and chosen as provided in amended Constitution—yeas, 31,924; nays, 10,878.

5. Senate of twenty-four members—yeas, 34,685; nays, 8,688.

6. Election of registers of probate, solicitors and sheriffs—yeas, 29,267; nays, 12,952.

7. On abolishing the religious test as a qualification for office—yeas, 28,475; nays, 14,231.

8. To prohibit the General Court from authorizing towns or cities to loan or give their money or credit to corporations—yeas, 23,669; nays, 9,084.

Digitized by Google

9. To change State election from March to November—yeas, 36,237; nays, 7,390.

10. To authorize the General Court to provide that appeals from a justice of the peace may be tried by some other court without the intervention of a jury—yeas, 33,392; nays, 8,969.

11. To increase the jurisdiction of justices of the peace to $100—yeas, 32,592; nays, 9,091.

12. To prohibit the removal from office for political reasons—yeas, 28,095; nays, 14,592.

13. To prohibit money raised by taxation from being applied to the support of the schools or institutions of any religious sect or denomination—yeas, 35,838; nays, 6,606.

NEW-YORK.—The following amendments, having passed the last Legislature, are to be submitted to the Legislature of 1878. If approved, they go to the people, for direct vote, in the Fall of 1878:

That Section 1 of article 2 of the Constitution be amended so as to read as follows:

Sec. 1. Every male citizen of the age of twenty-one years, who shall have been a citizen for ten days, and an inhabitant of this State one year next preceding an election, and for the last four months a resident of the county, and for the last thirty days a resident of the election district in which he may offer his vote, shall be entitled to vote at such election in the district of which he shall at the time be a resident, and not elsewhere, for all officers that now are, or hereafter may be, elective by the people, and upon all questions that may be submitted to the vote of the people; but the Legislature may provide that elections for members of city boards shall be so regulated as to give to minorities a proportionate share of representation therein. Provided that, in time of war no elector in actual military service of the State or of the United States, in the army or navy thereof, shall be deprived of his vote by reason of his absence from such election district; and the Legislature shall have power to provide the manner in which, and the time and place at which such absent electors may vote, and for the return and canvass of their votes in the election districts in which they respectively reside.

That Section 22 of article 3 of the Constitution be amended so as to read follows:

Sec. 22. There shall be in the several counties, except in cities whose boundaries are the same as those of the county, a board of supervisors, to be composed of such members and elected in such manner and for such period as is or may be provided by law. In any such city the duties and powers of a board of supervisors may be devolved upon the Board of Aldermen thereof, except such duties and powers as involve the making of contracts, procuring supplies or creating, auditing or allowing county charges, all which duties and powers, whether now existing or hereafter to be created, shall be exercised and performed exclusively by the Board of finance.

That Section 6 of article 6 of the Constitution be amended so that it shall read as follows:

Sec. 6. There shall be the existing Supreme Court with general jurisdiction in law and equity, subject to such appellate jurisdiction of the Court of Appeals as now is or may be prescribed by law: and it shall be composed of the Justices now in office, with one additional Justice, to be elected as hereinafter provided, who shall be continued during their respective terms, and of their successors. The existing Judicial Districts of the State are continued until changed pursuant to this section. Five of the Justices shall reside in the District in which is the City of New-York, and live in the Second Judicial District, and four in each of the other Districts. The Legislature may alter the Districts without increasing the number, once after every enumeration, under this Constitution, of the inhabitants of the State.

That Article 9 of the Constitution be amended by the addition of the following Sections:

Sec. 2. Free Common Schools shall be maintained throughout the State for ever. The Legislature shall provide for the instruction in the branches of elementary education in such schools of all persons in the State between the ages of five and twenty-one years, for the period of at least twenty-eight weeks in each year.

Sec. 3. Neither the money, property or credit of the State nor any county, city, town, village or school district, shall be given, loaned or leased, or be otherwise applied, to the support or in aid of any school or instruction under the control or in charge of any church, sect, denomination or religious society; nor to or in aid of any school in which instruction is given peculiar to any church, creed, sect or denomination, or to or in aid of any such instruction; nor to or in aid of any school or instruction not wholly under the control and supervision and charge of the public school authorities. This section shall not prohibit the Legislature from making such provision for the education of the blind, the deaf and dumb, and juvenile delinquents, as it may deem proper, except in institutions in which instruction is given peculiar to any church, creed, sect, denomination or religious society; nor shall it apply to or affect the Cornell University endowment fund, hitherto pledged or appropriated.

That Section 11 of article 8 of the Constitution be amended so as to read as follows:

Sec. 11. No county, city, town or village shall hereafter give any money or property, or loan its money or credit to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation, or become directly or indirectly the owner of stock in, or bonds of, any association or corporation; nor shall any such county, city, town or village be allowed to incur any indebtedness, except for county, city, town or village purposes. This section shall not prevent such county, city, town or village from making such provision for the aid or support of its poor as may be authorized by law. No county or city shall be allowed to become indebted for any purpose or in any manner to an amount which, including existing indebtedness, shall exceed five per cent of the assessed valuation of the real estate of such county or city, subject to taxation, as it appeared by the assessment rolls of said county or city, on the last assessment for State or county taxes, prior to the incurring of such indebtedness; and all indebtedness in excess of such limitation, except such as may now exist, shall be absolutely void, except as herein otherwise provided. No county or city, whose present indebtedness exceeds five per cent of the assessed valuation of its real estate, subject to taxation, shall be allowed to become indebted in any further amount, until such indebtedness shall be reduced within such limit, except such indebtedness as may be provided by the tax levy for the then current year, and except that the Legislature, if it deemed necessary for the interest of said city or county, may authorize it to contract further indebtedness to an amount, not exceeding for any one year, one dollar per capita of each of its population, as ascertained by the last State census, and for a period not exceeding five years in any case. No law shall hereafter be passed authorizing any indebtedness of or the issuing of any bonds or evidence of debt by any county or city, unless such law shall provide that such indebtedness, bonds or evidence of debt shall be made payable in equal amounts in each year, during a period not in any case not to exceed twenty years from the contracting of such indebtedness; and such law shall provide that such city or county shall, in each year, levy and raise by taxation a sum sufficient to pay the interest on such debt and the amount thereof coming due in each year, which said provisions, as to time of payment and the taxation therefor, shall be irrepealable. The money raised for the payment of such interest and principal shall be applied for that purpose, and none other, until the whole of such indebtedness is paid.

That the Constitution be amended by adding thereto a new article, to be known as Article 17, and to read as follows:

ARTICLE XVII.

Sec. 1. The power of the Legislature to provide for the organization and government of cities shall be exercised accordance with the provisions and subject to the limitations and restrictions, hereinafter contained, and the powers and franchise of every existing city government must be exercised in conformity therewith. The Legislature shall, at its first session after the adoption of this article, provide by law for carrying into effect all the provisions contained therein.

Sec. 2. City elections shall be held separately from the State and National elections, and in March or April.

Sec. 3. The legislative power conferred on any city shall be vested in a Board of Aldermen, to be elected by the electors qualified under article second of the Constitution, which shall be the Common Council of said city; but no power hereinafter vested in the Board of Finance shall be conferred on or exercised by the Board of Aldermen. No power shall be conferred by the Legislature on the Board of Finance except the powers conferred by this Constitution, or such as may be necessary to carry the powers granted thereby into effect. In case of a veto of any legislative act of the Board of Aldermen by the Mayor, the Board shall have power to pass the same, notwithstanding the Mayor's veto, by a recorded vote of two-thirds of all the members elected, provided that such vote be taken at the next meeting of the Board after the communication of the veto.

Sec. 4. The executive power of every city shall be vested in the Mayor and in such executive officers and departments as may be created by law. The Mayor shall be the chief executive officer of the city, and he shall see to the faithful performance of their duties by the several executive officers and departments thereof. He shall be elected by electors qualified under article second of the Constitution, for such term, and he shall receive such compensation as the Legislature may prescribe. He shall nominate and, with the consent of the Board of Finance, appoint the chief officer or head of the Financial Department, and the chief law officer or head of the Law Department; and he shall have power to appoint the head or chief officers of the other executive departments. With the written approval of the Governor, the Mayor may remove the head or chief officers of any executive department. He shall have power to investigate their accounts and proceedings; have access to all books and documents in their offices and may examine them and their subordinates under oath, as to all matters relating to the performance of their official duties. He shall also have power to veto any legislative act of the Board of Aldermen. The Mayor shall be removed by the Governor for cause, as in the case of Sheriffs; and in case of such removal, the Governor shall appoint a Mayor to fill the vacancy, who shall hold office until the next succeeding city election, at which election a Mayor shall be elected for the full term of the office. The Legislature shall provide for the filling of a vacancy in the office of Mayor, otherwise occurring, until the next succeeding city election, and also for the discharge of the duties of the Mayor during his temporary absence or disability. Heads of departments shall have power to appoint and remove their subordinate officers and employés, but the Legislature may regulate by law the qualifications for such appointments and the conditions of such removals.

Sec. 5. There shall be elected in every city of this State a Board of Finance, to consist of not less than six nor more than fifteen members, who shall possess the qualifications required for electors of members of said Board.

Sec. 6. In cities having a population, according to the State census next preceding the election, of over 100,000 inhabitants, the Board of Finance shall be elected by the electors of the city (otherwise qualified under article second of the Constitution), who shall, for two years next preceding the election, have paid an annual tax on property owned by them, and officially assessed for taxation in such city, of the assessed value of not less than $500, or shall have actually paid during the same period a yearly rent, for premises in said city occupied by them for purposes of residence or lawful business, of not less than two hundred and fifty dollars. In cities having a population, according to the State census next preceding the election, of not more than one hundred thousand inhabitants, the Board of Finance shall be elected by the electors of the city (otherwise qualified under article second of the Constitution), who shall, for two years next preceding the election, have paid an annual tax on property owned by them, and officially assessed for taxation in such city, or who shall have actually paid during the same period a yearly rent, for premises in said city occupied by them for purposes of residence or lawful business, of not less than one hundred dollars. In cities having a population, according to the State census next preceding the election, of not more than twenty-five thousand inhabitants, the Board shall consist of six members. In cities having a population of over twenty-five thousand inhabitants, and not more than fifty thousand, it shall consist of nine members. In cities having a population of over fifty thousand inhabitants and not more than one hundred thousand, it shall consist of twelve members; and in cities having a population of over one hundred thousand inhabitants it shall consist of fifteen members. At the first election one-third of the Board shall be elected for a term of one year, one-third thereof for a term two years, and one-third thereof for a term of three years; and thereafter the term of office shall be three years. The existence of any vacancy in the Board shall not of itself suspend the exercise of its powers and duties. The Legislature shall, at its first session after the adoption of this article, and thereafter from time to time, as may be necessary, provide by general law for the registration, in every city, of electors qualified to vote for the Board of Finance, and for filling vacancies in said Board, and may change the number of members of which the said Board shall consist in any city, provided that the number shall not, in any case, be less than six, and that one-third of the Board shall be elected annually.

Sec. 7. The Board of Finance shall, in every fiscal year, make estimates of the sums of money necessary for the proper administration of the City Government during the next fiscal year, and which are to be raised by taxation or supplied by the revenue of the city derivable from other sources, and applicable to general purposes. Such estimates shall include the sums requisite for the payment of the interest on bonds or other city debts drawing interest, the principal of any debts payable during the year, judgments against the city, the sums sufficient to make good all deficiencies in the payment of taxes on personal estate for the last preceding year, and any deficiencies in the collection of taxes on real estate for any preceding year which may be found by the Board to be uncollectable, and also any deficiencies in the collection of the estimated revenues from other sources, and all other sums required by law to be raised by taxation. The estimates shall also separately state the aggregate amount of moneys in the treasury or receivable during the next fiscal year, applicable to general purposes, in which may be included any prior unexpended appropriations which, in the judgment of the Board, may not be required to meet existing liabilities; and shall, in like manner, separately state the aggregate amount to be raised by taxation. The Board shall submit the estimates, when completed, to the Mayor, who shall, within ten days thereafter, return the same to the Board, with his approval, or with his objection, if any he have, in writing, specifying the items objected to; and the items thus objected to, but no others, shall be reconsidered and finally determined by the Board. The Board shall, after the return of the estimates by the Mayor, and the rejection of the Board upon the items objected to, if any, or in the event of a failure of the Mayor to return the same as above required, proceed by resolution to declare the estimates to be final and adopted; and the several sums of money therein estimated as necessary shall become and be appropriated to and for the departments and officers therein mentioned and for the objects and purposes therein mentioned. The aggregate amount to be raised by taxation shall be stated in such resolution, and shall thereupon be levied and collected in the manner provided by law for the levying and collecting of the city taxes. The Board of Finance may, during any current fiscal year, by a unanimous vote, and with the approval of the Mayor, in case of pestilence, conflagration, or other unforeseen public calamity, transfer sums of money appropriated to one department, object or purpose, and not required to satisfy existing liabilities, to another department, object or purpose. A vote of the majority of the entire Board shall be necessary to the passage of any measure or resolution; and a vote of two-thirds of the entire Board shall be necessary to the condition of the estimates hereinbefore provided for, or any item thereof, or to authorize the issue of any stock or bonds, and in such other cases as are hereinafter specified. It shall be the duty of the several departments, boards, and officers, and the Common Council, to furnish all such statements and accounts as the Board of Finance may require, and at such times and in such manner as the said Board may prescribe; and the Board of Finance shall also have power to examine the books and papers of the several executive departments and officers, and to examine such officers upon oath, concerning their official business.

Sec. 8. No debt or liability shall be incurred by any department, board, or any officer in any city, unless there shall be at the time an unexpended appropriation applicable thereto sufficient to satisfy the same and all debts and liabilities previously incurred and payable out of such appropriation; and all contracts and engagements in contravention hereof shall be void. Nor shall any debt or liability of the city be paid except out of money in the treasury appropriated to the purpose of paying such debt or liability. No city government, or any department thereof, shall grant any extra compensation to any officer, servant, agent, contractor or employé.

Sec. 9. The Legislature shall itself have no power to pass any law for the opening, making, paving, lighting, or otherwise improving or maintaining streets, avenues parks, or places, docks or wharves, or for any other local work, or improvement in or for a city, but all authority necessary for such purposes shall be by law conferred on the city government; nor shall the Legislature impose any charge on any city or civil division of the State containing a city, except by a vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to each House. Any local work or improvement, in or for a city, the cost of which is to be wholly paid by the city at large, must be authorized by resolution, passed by the vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to the Board of Aldermen and Board of Finance, respectively. Any such work or improvement, the cost of which is to be wholly paid otherwise than the city at large, must be authorized by the vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to the Board of Aldermen, with the consent of a majority in interest to be ascertained in such manner as the Legislature may prescribe, of all the owners of land within the district of assessment limited for the cost of such work or improvement. Any such work or improvement the cost of which is to be paid in part by the city at large, and in part by local assessment, must be authorized by a resolution passed by the vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to the Board of Aldermen and Board Finance, respectively, with the consent of a majority in interest, to be ascertained as hereinbefore directed, of all the owners of the land within the prescribed district of assessment.

Sec. 10. No money shall be borrowed by any city government for the purpose of defraying any of the expenses of the city for which an appropriation has been made, except in anticipation of the revenue of the year in which the same may be borrowed, applicable to such purposes; and all moneys so borrowed must be paid out of such revenue, or out of revenues specially provided to supply any deficiency in the collection thereof: provided, however, that temporary loans, in anticipation of taxes, may be renewed, so far as such taxes may not have been collected, when the same are, in the opinion of the Board, fully secured on valid liens on real estate. No city shall borrow any money for any other purpose, except under and in accordance with the following conditions and limitations, in addition to any other conditions and limitations contained in the constitution:

1. The debt must be for some single work or object only, and must be authorized by a resolution passed by a vote of two-thirds of all the members of the Board of Finance, and approved by the Mayor, distinctly specifying such work or object, and the amount of the debt to be incurred.

2. The Legislature must, before the creation of such a debt, assent thereto by a law passed by a vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to each House. Such law shall also distinctly specify the single work or object for which the debt is created, and the amount of the debt authorized, and shall contain provisions for a sinking fund to meet the same at maturity, and requiring at least ten per cent of the principal to be annually raised by taxation and paid into the sinking fund.

Sec. 11. Except as prescribed by the first section of this article, no change in the organization of, or in the distribution of powers in, a city government, or in the terms or tenure of office therein, shall be made by the Legislature, unless by an act passed upon the application of the city made by resolution both of the Board of Aldermen and of the Board of Finance, respectively, approved by the Mayor, or by an act which shall have received the sanction of two successive Legislatures.

In OHIO a proposed Constitutional Amendment reorganizing the judicial system, substituting law Judges for probate Judges for each county, and generally adding to the elaborateness and expensiveness of that branch of service, was negatived, at the last October election: For, 54,896; Against, 264,478.

PARTY PLATFORMS.

Iowa Republican.

[Adopted June 27.]

That the United States of America is a nation, not a league; that by the combined workings of the National and State Governments the rights of every citizen should be everywhere secured. A failure to secure them is a criminal neglect.

The Republican party has done the work of preservation of the Government to which the nation owes its life, but the work of the Republican party is unfinished.

The permanent pacification of the South, and the complete protection of all citizens in the free enjoyment of all their rights, are duties to which the Republican party stands sacredly pledged. The power to provide for the enforcement of the principles embodied in the recent Constitutional Amendments is vested by the amendments in Congress, and we declare it to be a solemn obligation on the Legislative and Executive departments of the Government to put in immediate and vigorous exercise all their Constitutional powers for removing any just causes of discontent on the part of any class, and for securing to every American citizen complete liberty and exact equality in the exercise of civil, political and public rights. To this end we imperatively demand of Congress and of the Chief Executive a courage and fidelity to duty which shall not falter until these results are placed beyond dispute or recall.

The public credit should be sacredly maintained, and all obligations of the Government honestly discharged; and that we favor the early attainment of a currency convertible with coin, and therefore advocate the gradual resumption of specie payments by continuous and steady steps.

The silver dollar having been the legal unit since the foundation of the Federal Government until 1875, the law under which its coinage was suspended should be repealed at the earliest possible day, and silver made with gold a legal-tender for the payment of all debts, both public and private. We also believe that the present volume of currency should be maintained until the wants of trade and commerce demand its further contraction.

Iowa Democratic.

[Adopted August 29.]

The Democracy of Iowa declare in favor of a tariff for revenue only; honest, economical home rule; supremacy of the civil over the military power; separation of Church and State; equality of all citizens before the law; opposition to the granting by the General Government of subsidies to any corporation whatever. * * *

That as a means of relieving the distressed portion of the community, and removing the great stringency complained of in business circles, we demand the immediate repeal of the Specie Resumption Act.

We denounce as an outrage upon the rights of the people the enactment of the Republican measure demonetizing silver, and demand the passage of a law which shall restore to silver its monetary power.

We favor the retention of a greenback currency, and declare against any further contraction, and we favor substitution of greenbacks for National Bank bills.

We congratulate the country upon the acceptance by the present Administration of the Constitutional and pacific policy of local self-government in the States of the South, so long advocated by the Democratic party, and which has brought peace and harmony to that section.

Maine Republican.

[Adopted August 9.]

The United States constitute a nation and not a mere confederacy. The successful issue of the Revolutionary War founded the nation. The successful issue of war for sup pression of the Rebellion preserved it. The Union of States, as one nation, must be maintained for all time, against all foes, at any cost.

Citizenship is national. Its allegiance and obligations are national. The property of the citizen is taxed for the support of the National Government. His services are demanded, and, if need be, his person wounded and maimed, and his life sacrificed in its defence. In return, it is the most solemn, momentous and imperative duty of the National Government, by the exercise of every constitutional power, to extend its protection to every citizen, native and naturalized, white or colored—whether menaced by tyranny abroad, or by political persecution now shielded under the heresy of States' rights at home.

Local self-government in all matters that are local must be strictly adhered to. In no community in the world has this been more completely attained than in the town governments common to the New-England States, and the experience of well nigh a century has taught every law and liberty-loving citizen that there can never be a conflict between the legitimate powers of the nation and the legitimate powers of each State.

Most kindly and fraternal relations should be cultivated between all sections of our common country, and peace, good-will, quiet and harmony have always been most cordially desired and labored for by the Republicans of Maine. They believe these great ends can be secured only by the freest exercise of political opinion and the most unrestrained liberty of party organization. They view, therefore, with solicitude and alarm, the complete consolidation of all political power in the sixteen Southern States in the hands of those who precipitated the Rebellion; while white Union men are persecuted into silence or banishment, the entire colored race is so practically disfranchised by force and fear that, in Congressional districts where they have more than two-thirds of the voters, they are unable to elect one of their own race, or a white man in sympathy with their interests. Thirty-five Representatives in Congress and thirty-five electoral votes apportioned to the Southern States by reason of their colored population are thus invested to the sole aggrandizement of the Confederate power in the National Government; and the late rebel soldiers in Georgia, South Carolina, Mississippi and Louisiana are thus enabled to exert in the administration of the Government more than double the political power of the Union soldiers in any Northern State.

The action of the Democratic House of Representatives in refusing appropriations for the army upon conditions that it deprived the Commander-in-Chief of the discretion vested in him by the Constitution, was wholly unjustifiable, dangerous, and revolutionary; and it is a striking commentary on this evil and perilous course that two of the States whose entire representation in Congress aided in defeating the Army bill have been since compelled, under the pressure and violence of mob law, to call on the National Government for such aid as only the army can render. * *

Sound currency, based on coin and redeemable in coin, is essential to the prosperity of the people. Its attainment would generative employment to labor, decrease expenses of living, remove stagnation from trade and greatly promote the development of commerce, in which Maine is so deeply interested. We, therefore, demand that in the resumption of the specie payment the promise of the National Government be kept in an honest, straightforward manner, and that no backward or sideway step be taken. * * *

Maine Democratic.

[Adopted August 14.]

The Democracy of Maine, in convention assembled, hereby affirm and adopt the plat form and principles adopted by the National Democratic Convention at St. Louis, in June 1876.

The reversal of the verdict of the American people, as expressed at the ballot-box in November last, electing Samuel J. Tilden President of the United States, was the most monstrous political fraud recorded in history. The Democracy submitted to it in the interests of peace. It must not be repeated, and we call on Congress to prepare and submit for ratification an amendment to the Constitution, which will render its repetition impossible, and consign conspirators attempting it to condign punishment.

The restoration to the common rights of citizenship of the people of those Southern States long kept subject to military occupation is a just acknowledgment of the wisdom of Democratic principles; that the Democratic party acts upon principle; makes no factious opposition, and opposes only what is wrong in an Administration in possession of the Government.

Massachusetts Republican.

[Adopted September 19.]

We reaffirm, first of all, our unwavering allegiance to the fundamental truth and principles which have inspired the triumph of the Republican party. We accept the responsibility of the National Administration again committed to Republican hands, as a trust to be exercised for the welfare of all the people, without distinction of race, color, locality or creed. The armed struggle for the Union and equal rights is at an end. The grand results obtained are accepted facts in the national history. Watching, guarding and firmly maintaining all that has been achieved, we do not propose to abandon the helm or drift with the tide, but to address ourselves, with vigor and courage, to pending issues, and to insist upon their settlement in the interests of good government, national progress, and enduring union.

We congratulate the country upon the rightful accession of a Republican President whose conspicuous integrity, honesty of purpose, wisdom, moderation, and firmness deserve and command the confidence of the people, give assurance of a pure, economical and beneficent administration of public affairs, and thus afford the opportunity to encourage the prospect of a speedy restoration of confidence and the revival of business activity.

We hail with unspeakable pleasure every sign of promise of the final and permanent pacification of the Southern section of our country, under local self-government, based upon the full recognition of the equal rights of all by all, and we cordially approve the spirit and measures of the Administrat as wisely adapted to hasten this result, as directed by a just sense of Constitutional right and duty, as tending to promote a spirit of peace and conciliation between citizens of all sections, and as already largely justified by the bettered feeling and condition of the country.

The faith of the country is solemnly pledged to the early resumption of specie payments; public honor and private interest alike demand the fulfilment of this pledge. We approve the steps already taken, and rejoice at the progress already made. We insist upon the adoption of all measures necessary to insure resumption on a day not later than that now fixed by law, and that it is the duty of the Government to maintain its coin and currency, at all times, at par with the gold standard of the commercial world.

That the work of reforming and improving the Civil Service, which the Republican party has undertaken and to which it alone stands committed, ought to be persistently and resolutely carried forward. We fully indorse the utterances of the Cincinnati platform and of the letter of acceptance of President Hayes on this subject: that nominations to office ought to be made upon the sole responsibility of the Executive Department, without the dictation or control of the members of Congress; that honesty, capacity and fidelity constitute the only claim and qualification for office; that partisan service should not be expected or desired from public officers, who should give their whole service to the Government and the people, and that the term of office should depend upon untarnished personal character and the satisfactory performance of official duties, and not upon political changes; and we cordially sustain and approve the policy and action of the President in conducting his administration in fulfilment of his distinct pledge upon these principles. Recognizing that the work of correcting the abuses that have crept into the Civil Service is only begun, and that much remains to be accomplished, in Massachusetts as well as elsewhere, in order to show convincingly that the principle of Civil Service reform is accepted as an enduring principle and not a temporary method of administration, we call upon all departments of the Government to give the President their cordial and effective support in making the reform thorough and radical and complete.

That the order promulgated by the President for the purpose of restraining the executive officers of the Government from exercising an undue and improper influence upon the action of the people in the selection of candidates for office, and in the management of political affairs, is in accordance with the principle and practices established by the founders of the Government. We heartily indorse the order as the first and most important step toward a practical reform of the Civil Service, and we assure the President of our cordial support in its enforcement. * * *

Massachusetts Democratic.

[Adopted September 13.]

We reaffirm and announce the National Democratic platform of 1876 as the authoritative exposition of the principles of our past, and we congratulate our political brethren of the whole country that these principles were indorsed in the national canvass by the suffrages of a decided majority of the American people. We believe the people fairly elected a majority of the Electoral College in favor of the Democratic candidates, and while, in the high interest of the public tranquillity, we submit to the authority of the constituted Federal Administration, we denounce, upon the guilty Republican party, stern retribution for the great public crime by which the people were defrauded of their right to be governed by rulers of their choice, and by which the elective principle was wounded in its most vital part. We challenge for it the opprobium of history, and indignant judgment of all honest men.

We congratulate the country and the supporters of free government everywhere upon the happy results of restored public order and reviving industrial prosperity, the inauguration of a new reign of domestic peace and liberty, regulated by law, in the Southern section of the Union that have ensued upon the adoption of Democratic principles and measures of administration by the Executive Department of the Federal Government in reference to the Southern States. We recognize in these auspicious results the signal vindication and practical triumph of the constitutional doctrines so faithfully contended for by the Democrats in the late political contest, and the statesmanship of the wise fathers which seeks the welfare of the Republic by the support of the equal rights and dignities of all the States in the Federal Union. We trust that hereafter there will be no Southern policy, no Northern policy, but one common policy for the whole Union, and the equality of the rights and duties of all men before the law. * * *

New-Jersey Republican.

[Adopted September 25.]

That the President of the United States, holding his high office by a majority of the electoral votes cast at the last election, and by virtue of the decision of the most august tribunal ever created by Congress, is entitled to the support and respect, in his office, of every law-abiding citizen, and the puerile efforts of some portions of the Democratic party to throw discredit upon a tribunal largely of their own creation, are an exhibition of folly and bad faith, which deserve the reprobation and contempt of all right-minded citizens.

That we cordially recognize the earnestness and sincerity with which President Hayes is laboring to promote the reconciliation of all sections of the country, and to secure an efficient and economical administration of the business of the Government. We are united in desiring the accomplishments of these great objects, and we pledge our hearty support to every wise measure calculated to secure the lasting unity and prosperity of the whole country, on the basis of impartial justice and equal rights for all citizens of all sections.

That we congratulate the country upon the progress made toward the Resumption of specie payment, and demand the adoption of all measures necessary to insure the restoration of a standard, uniform throughout the world, at a date not later than that now fixed by law. * * *

New-Jersey Democratic.

[Adopted September 19.]

1. The Democracy of the State of New-Jersey, in convention assembled, reaffirm the principles contained in the National Democratic platform adopted at St. Louis in 1876. We denounce the frauds and crimes by which our candidates for President and Vice-President are prevented from occupying the position to which they were chosen by a decided majority of the popular and electoral vote.

2. We congratulate the supporters of free government throughout the United States on the fact that even the man who was placed in the presidential chair by means of these frauds and crimes, has found it necessary, in order to receive the respect and support of any portion of the American people, to adopt the Democratic policy of local self-government in the Southern States, and to abandon all further devices to perpetuate sectional jealousies. * * *

New-York Republican.

[Adopted September 26.]

The Republicans of New-York, true to the achievements of an unequalled history, and faithful to the demands of an uncompleted mission, make the following declarations:

The office of government is to conserve order, peace and safety, and to protect every citizen in the enjoyment of every right implied by the Constitution and the laws. Unity and fraternal relations in all States and sections, and between all States and sections, is of the first and highest importance, and the Republican party of New-York will heartily support every measure authorized by law adapted to establishing and maintaining commercial and industrial prosperity and tranquillity, justice, and obedience to lawful authority.

The Constitution ordains that "the United States shall guarantee to every State in this Union a republican form of government." The only republican government known to the Constitution of any American State is a government chosen by the people. The question whether a case has arisen requiring the President to employ military force to protect lawful State authority against domestic violence, is by the Constitution committed to his decision and to his responsibility. Taking no issue with any decision of this kind which has been made by the National Executive in respect to the employment of troops, and expressing no opinion in regard to the methods and attendant proceedings employed in any instance, we cherish the hope that the action taken in relation to the Southern States will result in peace, tranquillity and justice, and no act of the Republicans of New-York conducive to its good effects shall be withheld. We insist on purity, frugality and efficiency in every branch of the public service, National and State. To that end we hold these requirements practical and just: First—No needless office or officer or public agent should exist; Second—Compensation for official service should be fair and just, but in no case excessive; Third—Fit men and no others should hold public trusts; Fourth—Every official, high or low, should be required at all times faithfully to perform his duty and the whole of it; no official or office-holder should be subject to political or partisan assessments, or to interference in any way with his political rights or action, and plain laws should forbid and punish all attempts to make or enforce such assessments or to control or to abridge in any respect the absolute freedom in political action which in this country belongs to all voters alike. In connection with this subject we recur with satisfaction to that portion of the letter of acceptance of Mr. Hayes wherein he declares that the founders of our Government meant that the officer should be secure in his tenure as long as his personal character remained untarnished and the performance of his duty satisfactory. In furtherance of this view we commend as worthy of consideration legislation making officers secure in a limited fixed tenure and subject to removal only as officers under State laws are removable in this State, on charges to be regularly and openly preferred and adjudged.

We hold honest service or labor the best and highest exertion for American citizens, and those who labor for others, whether for the Government or for private employers, are as fully entitled as any citizen can be to absolute freedom in all political, civil and religious affairs. They owe the full service they agree to render, and to their employers they owe nothing more. The Constitution of the United States and of the State of New-York, and the laws establish equal rights for all citizens and all voters, and we deprecate as unwarrantable and hurtful all attempt by employers, whether representing capital or political power, to encroach upon or coerce others in the enjoyment of any of the rights or the exercise of any of the duties of citizenship. In the State of New-York the whole number of National office-holders, including clerks and subordinates of every degree, is 7,465. This is one National official or subordinate to 152 voters. Of State, county and town officials there are in this State 133,513. This is one State, county or town official to every 8½ voters. When the potential functions of local officers are taken into account, their nearness to the citizen, and their power over his property, taxes and interest, their relative influence becomes even greater than the numbers indicate. The exclusion of public servants from political action would disfranchise a great body of our fellow citizens. The laws make no such exclusion, and we deny as an imputation upon the people of New-York, that they are or have been dominated by the Nation's subordinate officials, and we can conceive of no condition of affairs short of the extinction of manhood and patriotism in which a postmaster or a clerk could subdue to his partisan will 152 other electors, or exert any other influence beyond such as his character might give him.

Public faith, honest industry, and the general prosperity demand a sound currency of coin, and paper convertible into coin, and the already near approach of specie payments enforces the wisdom and duty of faithfully pursuing the necessary steps to full resumption within the time now fixed by law. * * *

Pending the adoption of these resolutions, an amendment was proposed to substitute for the second clause the following:

The lawful title of Rutherford B. Hayes to the Presidency is as clear and perfect as that of George Washington. We gladly recognise his eminent patriotism, proved in the field and in civil life. We heartily commend his efforts in the permanent pacification of the Southern section of the Union, and for the correction of the evils and abuse in the Civil Service as strictly conformed to his own pledges and to the declarations of the convention that nominated him, and as tending to the promotion of the public welfare. Recognizing that the work is but begun, we shall hail with satisfaction its prompt and vigorous prosecution, in which the President may confidently rely upon the cordial support of the country.

The substitute was disagreed to, yeas 109, nays 295. The platform was then adopted, on a viva voce vote.

New-York Democratic.

[Adopted October 4.]

The people having in the last Presidential contest elected by an overwhelming popular and a clear electoral majority, the Democratic candidates for President and Vice-President, and the will of the Nation, thus constitutionally declared, having been wickedly and boldly nullified by means of the grossest usurpation and frauds of returning boards, protected and adopted, if not instigated, by the party in possession of the Government, and rendered practicable by a threatening array of military force.

At this, the first convention of the Democrats of this State held since the consummation of this great crime, it is not only just and fit, but it is the plain duty in the interest of Constitutional Government, and in the vindication and preservation of the sacred right of the majority to choose their rulers, to denounce with the warmest indignation this stupendous wrong; and we do hereby denounce, condemn, and hold it up to universal execration.

This duty of setting a mark of infamy upon this transaction, and preventing any quick forgetfulness or easy condonation of it from raising a tempting precedent for future outrages, rests especially and peculiarly upon the Democratic party of this State, one of whose most illustrious leaders was the President actually chosen by the Nation. * *

The present National Administration, by its withdrawal of the troops from the South, and its cessation from the mischievous, unconstitutional and oppressive interference with the internal affairs of States, has in that respect reversed the vicious precedents of the Republican party, followed the course marked out by the Federal Constitution, and to which the Democrats stand pledged, and it is therefore entitled in that particular to the approval of all good citizens. The Democratic party of New-York reaffirm the following principles set forth in the platform adopted in 1874, now thrice indorsed by large majorities of the voters of this State: Gold and silver the only legal-tender; no currency inconvertible with coin; steady steps toward specie payments, no step backward; the honest payment of the public debt in coin; a sacred preservation of the public faith; revenue reform; a tariff for revenue only; no Government partnership with protected monopolies; home rule to limit and localize most zealously the few powers intrusted to public servants, municipal, State and Federal; no centralization; equal and exact justice to all men; no partial legislation, no partial taxation; official accountability enforced by better civil and criminal remedies; no private use of public funds by public officers; corporations chartered by the State always supervisable by the State in the interest of the people; the party in power responsible for all legislation while in power; economy in the public expenses, that labor may be lightly burdened.

Ohio Republican.

[Adopted August 1.]

The Republicans of Ohio, in convention assembled, congratulate the people that during the long term of their control of the affairs of the State no stain has been found upon their record as a party; that their management of local affairs has been true to the moral and industrial interests of the people; and, therefore, they confidently point to their past as the best evidence of their intentions for the future. On National questions, the Republicans of Ohio claim the same fidelity to right principles and practices which they have exhibited in local and State affairs. Appealing to the determination of the people to maintain Republican principles, they offer for the candid consideration of the voters of Ohio the following platform of principles:

We affirm and adopt the platform and resolutions of the National Convention of the Republican party, adopted in the convention at Cincinnati in June, 1876.

The Republicans of Ohio reaffirm their unfaltering confidence in Rutherford B. Hayes as a statesman, patriot and Republican, and cordially approve and support his efforts for the pacification of the country and the establishment of its Civil Service upon a basis of purity and efficiency.

We reaffirm it as the unalterable purpose of the Republican party to maintain and enforce the provisions of the recent amendments to the Federal Constitution, guaranteeing the civil rights of citizens before the law, irrespective of race or color, and to insist upon the full and effectual performance by the Federal Government in the execution of all its powers of its Constitutional obligations in that behalf.

We are in favor of both silver and gold as money; that both shall be a legal tender for the payment of all debts, except those specifically provided for by law, with coinage and valuation so regulated that our people shall not be placed at a disadvantage in our trade with foreign nations; and that both metals shall be kept in circulation as the money of the nation, as contemplated by the Constitution; and we therefore demand the remonetization of silver. * * *

We view with alarm the present disturbed condition of the country, as evinced by the extensive strikes of workingmen and followed by the destruction of life and property in different parts of the country; and while we deprecate each and every resort to violence or disorder, and cordially approve the action of our National and State authorities in their efforts to enforce the supremacy of the law, yet we do most heartily sympathize with the condition of the honest and industrious laborers who are willing to work, but remain unemployed, or are employed at wages inadequate to comfort and independence; and as an earnest of our desire to find a remedy for their condition, we recommend, first, that Congress establish a National Bureau of Industry; second, that Congress exert its authority over all national highways of trade, by prescribing and enforcing such reasonable regulations as will tend to promote safety of travel, secure fair returns for capital invested, and fair wages to employés, preventing mismanagement, improper discriminations, and the aggrandizement of officials at the expense of stockholders and shippers and employés; third, that provision be made for statutory arbitrations between employers and employés to adjust controversies, reconcile interests, and establish justice and equity between them.

Ohio Democratic.

[Adopted July 25.]

The Democratic party of Ohio, in State Convention assembled, renews its pledges of devotion to the Union and the Constitution, with the amendments. It declares, as essential to the preservation of free government, the faithful adherence to the following principles: A strict construction of the Constitution; home rule; the supremacy of civil over military power; the separation of Church and State; equality of all citizens before the law; liberty of individual action unvexed by sumptuary laws; the absolute acquiescence in the lawfully expressed will of the majority: opposition to all subsidies; the reservation of public lands to the use of actual settlers; the maintenance and perfecting of the common school system. Pertinent to the issues now pending before the people—

We look upon the inauguration of R. B. Hayes to the high office of President of the United States, in spite of a majority of the electoral and popular vote given by the people to Samuel J. Tilden, as the most dangerous encroachment upon popular rights that has ever been attempted in this or any other free country, and a repetition of the fraud will not be tolerated.

The destruction of the industry of the country and the pauperizing of labor are the inevitable fruits of the vicious laws enacted by the Republican party.

As a means of relieving the distressed portions of the community, and removing the great stringency complained of in business circles, we demand the immediate repeal of the Resumption Act.

We denounce, as an outrage upon the rights of the people, the enactment of the Republican measure demonetizing silver, and demand the passage of a law which shall restore silver to its monetary power.

We favor the retention of greenback currency as the best paper money we have ever had, and declare against any further contraction.

We congratulate the country upon the acceptance by the present Administration of the constitutional and pacific policy of local self-government in the States South, so long advocated by the Democratic party, which has brought peace and harmony to that section of the Union. * *

We favor the issue, by the General Government alone, of all circulating mediums, whether paper or metallic, to be always of equal tenor and interconvertible. * *

Pennsylvania Republican.

While we recognize and respect the differences of opinion existing among us as to the course pursued by President Hayes toward the South, we are in hearty accord in honoring the patriotic motives which have guided him, and in hoping that the results of this policy will be peace, good-will, and the complete recognition of the equal rights of all men in every section of the country, and to the efforts of his Administration to carry into effect the principles of the platform upon which he was elected we pledge our hearty and cordial support.

The Electoral Commission having been created at the urgent solicitation of the Democratic party, and after the oft-repeated declarations of its leaders in both Houses of Congress that no faction could cavil at its decisions, we witness with profound astonishment the assaults of that party upon the august tribunal of its own creation because its decisions disappointed their expectations of official patronage; which assaults, so far as they seek to impair the confidence of the people in the just title of the President to his high office are equally childish and foolish, but may become extremely mischievous in assisting to diminish the popular respect for the decisions of lawful tribunals. * * *

The long and successful existence, under the laws of Congress, of the double-coin standard warrants us in demanding an early repeal of the legislation which demonetized silver and established an almost exclusive gold standard, and we therefore favor a return to the free use and unrestricted coinage of the dollar of 1798, and its restoration to the position it held as a legal tender during the eighty years of our national existence, thus preserving the equality of the commercial value of the silver dollar with the gold dollar, keeping both in circulation. * *

We hold in equal respect the right of capital to control its investments, and of labor to determine the value of its service. We deprecate any assertion by violence of the rights of either, and we assert it as the duty of all citizens to hold their respective rights within the just limitations of the law, and that any attempt to coerce either by unlawful means should be promptly repressed by such lawful authority as the exigency demands.

Pennsylvania Democratic.

[Adopted August 22.]

The induction of Rutherford B. Hayes into the office of President, notwithstanding the election of Samuel J. Tilden thereto, was a high crime against free government which has not been condoned and will not be forgotten. The same spirit of patriotism which forbore contest upon the first offence will resist and punish any attempt at a second.

The immediate happy effect of the application by the Federal Administration of the Democratic policy of non-intervention in the internal affairs of the Southern States, amply vindicates our frequent protests against previous violations of the reserved right of the several States to exercise all power not delegated to the General Government by express Constitutional provision.

The purpose to reform the Civil Service, which has been proclaimed by the present Administration, is like its adopted "Southern Policy," a confession of the failure of Radicalism, and a just tribute to the Democracy, which has long and earnestly demanded the overthrow and punishment of corrupt officials. *

We accept the admonition of Jackson in saying, concerning standing armies as dangerous to free governments in time of peace, "I shall not seek to enlarge our present establishment, nor disregard the salutary lesson of political experience which teaches that the military should be held subordinate to civil power." Accordingly, the increase of the Federal army, and any attempt to employ it as a partisan agent of Federal authority or for interference with the sovereign rights of the States, will receive the continued earnest opposition of the Democracy of Pennsylvania. The deprivation of employment of many thousands of industrious citizens and laborers, and the deep distress of themselves and families, enlist our hearty sympathy, and we declare, in the language of Jefferson, the founder of our party, that "a wise and frugal government, which shall restrain men from injuring one another, and shall leave them otherwise free to emulate their own pursuits of industry and improvement, and shall not take from the mouth of labor the bread it has earned," is the hope of the people in adversity and their security in prosperity, and that under such a government, which it is the mission of the Democracy to maintain and perpetuate, any resort to force or to violation of law or invasion of the rights of person or of property to redress grievances is needless, and at war with free institutions, under which the only rightful remedy is by frequently recurring elections of representatives of the people in State Legislatures and in the Federal Congress, to accomplish the will of the majority, which should be accepted as the voice of all.

PRESIDENT HAYES'S INAUGURAL.

[Delivered March 5, 1877.]

FELLOW-CITIZENS: We have assembled to repeat the public ceremonial, begun by Washington, observed by all my predecessors, and now a time-honored custom, which marks the commencement of a new term of the Presidential office. Called to the duties of this great trust, I proceed, in compliance with usage, to announce some of the leading principles, on the subjects that now chiefly engage the public attention, by which it is my desire to be guided in the discharge of those duties. I shall not undertake to lay down irrevocably principles or measures of administration, but rather to speak of the motives which should animate us, and to suggest certain important ends to be attained in accordance with our institutions and essential to the welfare of our country.

At the outset of the discussions which preceded the recent Presidential election, it seemed to me fitting that I should fully make known my sentiments in regard to several of the important questions which then appeared to demand the consideration of the country. Following the example, and in part adopting the language, of one of my predecessors, I wish now, when every motive for misrepresentation has passed away, to repeat what was said before the election, trusting that my countrymen will candidly weigh and understand it, and that they will feel assured that the sentiments declared in accepting the nomination for the Presidency will be the standard of my conduct, in the path before me, charged, as I now am, with the grave and difficult task of carrying them out in the practical administration of the Government so far as depends, under the Constituton and laws, on the Chief Executive of the Nation.

The permanent pacification of the country upon such principles and by such measures as will secure the complete protection of all its citizens in the free enjoyment of all their Constitutional rights is now the one subject, in our public affairs, which all thoughtful and patriotic citizens regard as of supreme importance.

Many of the calamitous effects of the tremendous revolution which has passed over the Southern States still remain. The immeasurable benefits which will surely follow, sooner or later, the hearty and generous acceptance of the legitimate results of that revolution, have not yet been realized. Difficult and embarrassing questions meet us at the threshold of this subject. The people of those States are still impoverished, and the inestimable blessing of wise, honest, and peaceful self-government is not fully enjoyed. Whatever difference of opinion may exist as to the cause of this condition of things, the fact is clear, that, in the progress of events, the time has come when such government is the imperative necessity required by all the varied interests, public and private, of those States. But it must not be forgotten that only a local government which recognizes and maintains inviolate the rights of all is a true self-government.

With respect to the two distinct races whose peculiar relations to each other have brought upon us the deplorable complications and perplexities which exist in those States; it must be a government which guards the interests of both races carefully and equally. It must be a government which submits loyally and heartily to the Constitution and the laws—the laws of the Nation and the laws of the States themselves—accepting and obeying faithfully the whole Constitution as it is.

Resting upon this sure and substantial foundation, the superstructure of beneficent local governments can be built up, and not otherwise. In furtherance of such obedience to the letter and the spirit of the Constitution, and in behalf of all that its attainment implies, all so-called party interests loose their apparent importance, and party lines may well be permitted to fade into insignificance. The question we have to consider for the immediate welfare of those States of the Union, is the question of government or no government, of social order and all the peaceful industries and the happiness that belong to it, or a return to barbarism. It is a question in which every citizen of the Nation is deeply interested, and with respect to which we ought not to be, in a partisan sense, either Republicans or Democrats, but fellow-citizens and fellow-men, to whom the interests of a common country and a common humanity are dear.

The sweeping revolution of the entire labor system of a large portion of our country, and the advance of four millions of people from a condition of servitude to that of citizenship, upon an equal footing with their former masters, could not occur without presenting problems of the gravest moment, to be dealt with by the emancipated race, by their former masters, and by the General Government, the author of the act of emancipation. That it was a wise, just, and Providential act, fraught with good for all concerned, is now generally conceded throughout the country. That a moral obligation rests upon the National Government to employ its Constitutional power and influence to establish the rights of the people it has emancipated, and to protect them in the enjoyment of those rights when they are infringed or assailed, is also generally admitted.

The evils which afflict the Southern States can only be removed or remedied by the united and harmonious efforts of both races, actuated by motives of mutual sympathy and regard. And while in duty bound and fully determined to protect the rights of all by every Constitutional means at the disposal of my administration, I am sincerely anxious to use every legitimate influence in favor of honest and efficient local self-government as the true resource of those States for the promotion of the contentment and prosperity of their citizens. In the effort I shall make to accomplish this purpose I ask the cordial coöperation of all who cherish an interest in the welfare of the country, trusting that party ties and the prejudice of race will be freely surrendered in behalf of the great purpose to be accomplished. In the important work of restoring the South, it is not the political situation alone that merits attention. The material development of that section of the country has been arrested by the social and political revolution through which it has passed, and now needs and deserves the considerate care of the National Government within the just limits prescribed by the Constitution and wise public economy.

But at the basis of all prosperity, for that as well as for every other part of the country, lies the improvement of the intellectual and moral condition of the people. Universal suffrage should rest upon universal education. To this end, liberal and permanent provision should be made for the support of free schools by the State Governments, and, if need be, supplemented by legitimate aid from National authority.

Let me assure my countrymen of the Southern States that it is my earnest desire to regard and promote their truest interests, the interests of the white and of the colored people both and equally, and to put forth my best efforts in behalf of a civil policy which will forever wipe out in our political affairs the color line, and the distinction between North and South, to the end that we may have not merely a united North or a united South, but a united country.

I ask the attention of the public to the paramount necessity of reform in our civil service, a reform not merely as to certain abuses and practices of so-called official patronage, which have come to have the sanction of usage in the several departments of our Government, but a change in the system of appointment itself; a reform that shall be thorough, radical, and complete; a return to the principles and practices of the founders of the Government. They neither expected nor desired from public officers any partisan service. They meant that public officers should owe their whole service to the Government and to the people. They meant that the officer should be secure in his tenure as long as his personal character remained untarnished, and the performance of his duties satisfactory. They held that appointments to office were not to be made nor expected merely as rewards for partisan services, nor merely on the nomination of members of Congress, as being entitled in any respect to the control of such appointments.

The fact that both the great political parties of the country, in declaring their principles prior to the election, gave a prominent place to the subject of reform of our civil service, recognizing and strongly urging its necessity, in terms almost identical in their specific import with those I have here employed, must be accepted as a conclusive argument in behalf of these measures. It must be regarded as the expression of the united voice and will of the whole country upon this subject, and both political parties are virtually pledged to give it their unreserved support.

The President of the United States of necessity owes his election to office to the suffrage and zealous labors of a political party, the members of which cherish with ardor, and regard as of essential importance, the principles of their party organization. But he should strive to be always mindful of the fact that he serves his party best who serves the country best.

In furtherance of the reform we seek, and in other important respects a change of great importance, I recommend an amendment to the Constitution prescribing a term of six years for the Presidential office, and forbidding a reëlection.

With respect to the financial condition of the country, I shall not attempt an extended history of the embarrassment and prostration which we have suffered during the past three years. The depression in all our varied commercial and manufacturing interests throughout the country, which began in September, 1873, still continues. It is very gratifying, however, to be able to say that there are indications all around us of a coming change to prosperous times.

Upon the currency question, intimately connected as it is with this topic, I may be permitted to repeat here the statement made in my letter of acceptance, that, in my judgement, the feeling of uncertainty inseparable from an irredeemable paper currency, with its fluctuation of values, is one of the greatest obstacles to a return to prosperous times. The only safe paper currency is one which rests upon a coin basis, and is at all times and promptly convertible into coin.

I adhere to the views heretofore expressed by me in favor of Congressional legislation in behalf of an early resumption of specie payment, and I am satisfied not only that this is wise, but that the interests as well as the public sentiment of the country imperatively demand it.

Passing from these remarks upon the condition of our own country to consider our relations with other lands, we are reminded by the international complications abroad, threatening the peace of Europe, that our traditional rule of non-interference in the affairs of foreign nations has proved of great value in past times, and ought to be strictly observed.

The policy inaugurated by my honored predecessor, President Grant, of submitting to arbitration grave questions in dispute between ourselves and foreign powers, points to a new and incomparably the best instrumentality for the preservation of peace, and will, as I believe, become a beneficent example of the course to be pursued in similar emergencies by other nations.

If, unhappily, questions of difference should at any time during the period of my administration arise between the United States and any foreign government, it will certainly be my disposition and my hope to aid in their settlement in the same peaceful and honorable way, thus securing to our country the great blessings of peace and mutual good offices with all the nations of the world.

Fellow-citizens, we have reached the close of a political contest, marked by the excitement which usually attends the contests between great political parties, whose members expouse and advocate with earnest faith their respective creeds. The circumstances were, perhaps, in no respect extraordinary, save in the closeness and the consequent uncertainty of the result.

For the first time in the history of the country, it has been deemed best, in view of the peculiar circumstances of the case, that the objections and questions in dispute with reference to the counting of the electoral votes should be refered to the decision of a tribunal appointed for this purpose.

That tribunal—established by law for this sole purpose; its members, all of them, men of long-established reputation for integrity and intelligence, and, with the exception of those who are also members of the Supreme Judiciary, chosen equally from both political parties, its deliberations enlightened by the research and the arguments of able counsel—was entitled to the fullest confidence of the American people. Its decisions have been patiently waited for, and accepted as legally conclusive by the general judgment of the public. For the present, opinion will widely vary as to the wisdom of the several conclusions announced by that tribunal. This is to be anticipated in every instance where matters of dispute are made the subject of arbitration under the forms of law. Human judgment is never unerring, and is rarely regarded as otherwise than wrong by the unsuccessful party in the contest.

The fact that two great political parties have in this way settled a dispute, in regard to which good men differ as to the facts and the law, no less than as to the proper course to be pursued in solving the question in controversy, is an occasion for general rejoicing.

Upon one point there is entire unanimity in public sentiment, that conflicting claims to the Presidency must be amicably and peaceably adjusted, and that when so adjusted the general acquiescence of the Nation ought surely to follow.

It has been reserved for a government of the people, where the right of suffrage is universal, to give to the world the first example in history of a great nation, in the midst of a struggle of opposing parties for power, hushing its party tumults, to yield the issue of the contest to adjustment according to the forms of law.

Looking for the guidance of that Divine Hand by which the destinies of nations and individuals are shaped, I call upon you, Senators, Representatives, Judges, fellow-citizens, here and everywhere, to unite with me in an earnest effort to secure to our country the blessings, not only of material prosperity, but of justice, peace, and union—a union depending not upon the constraint of force, but upon the loving devotion of a free people; "and that all things may be so ordered and settled upon the best and surest foundations, that peace and happiness, truth and justice, religion and piety, may be established among us for all generations."

President Hayes's Civil Service Order.

EXECUTIVE MANSION,
WASHINGTON, June 22, 1877.

SIR:—I desire to call your attention to the following paragraph in a letter addressed by me to the Secretary of the Treasury, on the conduct to be observed by the officers of the General Government in relation to the elections:

"No officer should be required or permitted to take part in the management of political organizations, caucuses, conventions or election campaigns. Their right to vote and to express their views on public questions, either orally or through the press, is not denied provided it does not interfere with the discharge of their official duties. No assessment for political purposes on officers or subordinates should be allowed."

This rule is applicable to every department of the Civil Service. It should be understood by every officer of the General Government that he is expected to conform his conduct to its requirements.

Very respectfully,
R. B. HAYES.

Secretary Sherman's Letter on Bonds.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
WASHINGTON, D. C., June 19, 1877.

SIR:—Your letter of the 18th instant, in which you inquire whether the four per cent bonds now being sold by the Government, are payable, principal and interest, in gold coin, is received. The subject, from its great importance, has demanded and received careful consideration. Under laws now in force, there is no coin issued or issuable in which the principal of the four per cent bonds is redeemable or the interest payable except the gold coins of the United States of the standard value fixed by laws in force on the 14th of July, 1870, when the bonds were authorized. The Government exacts in exchange for these bonds payment at their face in such gold coin, and it is not to be anticipated that any future legislation of Congress, or any action of any Department of the Government would sanction or tolerate the redemption of the principal of these bonds or the payment of the interest thereon in coin of less value than the coin authorised by law at the time of the issue of the bonds, being the coin exacted by the Government in exchange for the same.

The essential element of good faith in preserving the equality in value between the coinage in which the Government receives and that in which it pays these bonds, will be sacredly observed by the Government and the people of the United States, whatever may be the system of coinage which the general policy of the Nation may at any time adopt. This principle is impressed upon the text of the law of July 14, 1870, under which the four per cent bonds are issued, and requires, in the opinion of the Executive Department of the Government, the redemption of these bonds and the payment of their interest in coin of equal value with that which the Government receives upon their issue. Very respectfully,

JOHN SHERMAN,
Secretary.

FRANCIS O. FRENCH, Esq.,

General Devens on the Civil Service Order.

Attorney-General Devens, writing from Washington in October excusing himself from active participation in the Massachusetts State campaign, says:

I learn with surprise and regret that any of the Republican officials hesitate either to speak or vote, alleging as a reason the President's recent Civil Service order. In distinct terms that order states that the right of officials to vote and express their views on public questions, either orally or through the press, is not denied, provided it does not interfere with the discharge of their official duties. If such gentlemen choose not to vote, or not to express or enforce their views in support of the principles of the Republican party, either orally or otherwise, they, at least, should give a reason for such a course which is not justified by the order referred to, and which is simply a perver-

.925 fine (British standard), the weekly quotation for July 13. At this rate the relative value of gold to silver was as 1 to 20.17, and the old silver dollar of 412½ grains would have been worth 79¼ cents. Five months afterward, December 14, the highest price during the year was realized, 58½ pence, at which rate the relative value to gold was as 1 to 16.11, and the silver dollar would have been worth 99⅛ cents. This was the highest value reached by silver since July, 1874.
